Program

The Treblemakers from Chandler High School will make their annual visit to Chandler Horizon Rotary. They will get us in the holiday spirit with songs of the season.

Last Meeting

No Visiting Rotarians

No visiting Rotarians made up with us last meeting. However, Courtney Banach was a guest of Roger Bonngard.

Missing in Action

Nine of our members were missing: Debra Brown, Sunday Etukeren, Terry Locke, Chuy Ortiz, Brent Patmos, Kristel Patton, Bill Ryan, Soo-San Stevens-Clarke and Cory Whyte.

Makeups

Cory Whyte made up at the board meeting.

Songs, Fines & Such

President Greg Thornton conducted the meeting, Larry Gardner led us in song and Brad Raymond conducted the fine session.

Jerry Turner paid for Courtney Banach being late. Courtney paid because of the warm welcome she received from club members. James Caskey was late. He added $2 for the Golf Committee getting the Hole-in-One flyers out so soon.

Doug Gardner paid because Ron Stevens was not late, but Ron forgot his Rotary pin. He also paid a happy buck for the flyers. Theresa Clemmons paid $5 for the flyers.

Brad Raymond paid $3 for throwing his badge on the floor, for his arm continuing to heal and it looks like his friend, Lucas, will make it home for Thanksgiving. Tim Gibson paid $3 for his granddaughter's party.

John Leslie paid $2 because a salesman who was trying to sell him a paint job, peeled the paint off his car. Jim Patmos paid $2 for looking at cars and purchasing a new Lincoln Continental for Mary Kay.

Kurt Rohrs paid $2 for Alex's achievements in school and his daughter announcing she hoped to go to medical school. Although exempt, Roger Morsch noted three of his nieces have babies on the way.

Program

CHRC Membership Chair Roger Bonngard (right in photo) and PP Roger Morsch presented a program on membership. Roger B. urged us to share Rotary and to follow Rotary's five avenues of service: Club, Vocational, Community, International and New Generations.

"We need to allow new members to be immediately integrated into our club," Roger said.

Roger M. noted strong points of Rotary clubs (most of which we do): greeting visitors, having good programs, developing a strategy for attracting new members, have a stated retention plan, create a positive experience for all members and guests, and improve public image which can be done through a club's website.

Roger M. used the analogy of a train, if you want to help. "You can start a train of your own," he said, "or you can jump on the CHRC train that is already moving."

He noted that sometimes we don't do a good job of explaining all that goes on at our meetings to new and/or potential members, such as the fine session, the 50-50 drawing, and the Exempt badge, among others. We also should explain Rotary's effort to eliminate polio from the face of the earth.

December 25 • January 1

We won't meet on either of these two days so we can spend the holidays with our families.

Board Meeting

The Board of Directors held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday.

The board learned that Secretary Soo-San Stevens-Clarke will be leaving to take care of family and not sure when she will return. PP Theresa Clemmons has agreed to take over the secretary's duties until Soo returns.

The board approved investing the $15,000 being held in reserve from the Hole-in-One Contest in a 2.02% Money Market account at Unisom Bank. The funds are fully liquid after the first seven days.

President Greg Thornton, PP Theresa Clemmons, Foundation Treasurer Jim Hoenig, Cory Whyte and Ron Stevens will meet after today's club meeting to discussion revision of the club's by-laws.

The Hole-in-One Putting Contest and Ball Drop will be discussed at next week's Club Assembly.

James Caskey has offered to host the annual Holiday Party in his home Wednesday, December 18 from 5-7 p.m. Instead of a gift exchange, the board approved donating blankets for the homeless through the Aris Foundation.

The board approved to send three Basha High School students to the RYLA Pinerock Camp in April.

The board approved a $3,100 anonymous donation project. More details will be coming.

The board approved a Christmas Deer fundraiser organized by PDG Roger Bonngard. Proceeds will go toward the Hole-in-One Contest.

Theresa will work with Nick Lacey at San Marcos on the First Tee Chili Cookoff scheduled January 10 at San Marcos.

THE FOUR WAY TEST of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Dictionary Project Deliveries Continue; More Scheduled

Kristel Patton is shown discussing the dictionaries which were delivered to third graders at Fulton Elementary School November 26. Doug and Sharlene Gardner helped Kurt Rohrs with the delivery at CTA Freedom November 25. They were delivered previously to CTA-Liberty and Galveston. Another set will be delivered today at 1 p.m. at Ryan. If you can help let Kurt know today. Bologna has been dropped from the schedule, but Guerro in Mesa has been added, although a date has not been set. Watch your e-mail for the day and time and let Kurt know if you can help with that one.

President Greg Thornton paid $5 for Bruce Dransfeldt and Tim Schauermaun being with us, for the Oregon Ducks' win over Arizona, for Riley receiving several NYA awards, but a sad buck because Garrett was cut at New Mexico.

Tim Schauermaun paid $5 for recent success by the Ducks and the Oregon State Beavers, and for Nancy renting a house in Scottsdale where they will have 15 guests for Thanksgiving.

Bruce Dransfeldt paid $5 because he and Jeanne are headed north for Thanksgiving, and for urging Rotarians to take advantage of the Arizona tax credit by donating to The Rotary Vocational Fund of Arizona. Jim Hoenig paid a buck for a good report from his oncologist.

And Tim Gibson won $13 in the 50-50 drawing.
