Program

With our 27th annual Hole-in-One Contest starting this weekend, President Greg Thornton will conduct another Club Assembly today as we work out final details.

Last Week

Visiting Rotarians

Two visiting Rotarians made up with us last week: Mark Thompson from Bismarck Far West, North Dakota, and Tim Schaueremann from Forest Grove, Oregon. In addition, Susan Gibson and her granddaughter, Emma, were guests of Tim. Emma was selling Girl Scout cookies.

Missing in Action

Six of our members were missing in action: Courtney Banach, Sunday Etukeren, Roger Morsch, Kristel Patton, Bill Ryan and Cory Whyte.

Makeup

Marty Herder made up at the club social.

Songs, Fines & Such

President Greg Thornton conducted the meeting. Larry Gardner led us in song, and James Caskey conducted the fine session.

After heated bidding, Brent Patmos won the Exempt badge. He paid $21 for it.

Kurt Rohrs was late. Bruce Dransfeldt paid because he is starting his tax preparation stint with AARP.

Tim Gibson paid $10 for Theresa Clemmons and friends picking a bunch of citrus at Tim's Farm; for warning us about turning Roger Morsch loose when trimming bushes, but he thanked him anyway; and for our support for Emma in her Girl Scout cookie sale.

Theresa Clemmons paid $10 for the Kansas City Chiefs winning the Super Bowl. Terry Locke paid $2 for his Super Bowl wagers.

David Loutzenheiser paid $10 for a couple of family birthdays and for a story about one of

By-Laws Revision

A revision of the Chandler Horizon Rotary Club by-laws has been proposed by the By-laws committee. Each club member should have received a copy of the revisions by email. If you did not receive a copy, contact PP Theresa Clemmons and she will send you a copy. The club will vote on the proposed revisions at next week's (2/19) meeting.

Club Assembly

President Greg Thornton conducted a Club Assembly as we continued preparations for our 27th annual Hole-in-One Contest.

Pres. Greg noted post-cards have been mailed to past participants.

He urged members to turn in money received for sponsorships.

Doug Gardner talked about the Helicopter Ball Drop that will take place at about 12:30 p.m. Sunday, March 1, the day of the finals. Sheets are available if you would like to take one to your place of business and get people to sign up at $10 per ball. The balls will be sold throughout the contest, both at the registration table and also at the San Marcos Pro Shop. The ball drop will take the place of the 50-50 Auction we have had the past several years.

We will still have the Silent Auction. If you have any items you would like to donate or that you can obtain from a sponsor, get them to Theresa Clemmons ASAP.

If you have any Daily Prizes that need to be picked up, get them to Jim Hoenig sometime TODAY!

And if you haven't signed up to work shifts yet, please do so by going to SignupGenius.com online today and make your selections. Shift times are 9:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m., 12:30-3:30 p.m., and 3:30-6:30 p.m. each day of qualifying: February 15-17, 21-23, and 28-29.

We will set up this Friday (2/14) afternoon, starting at 2 p.m. There is a spot where you can volunteer for that as well at Sign-up Geni.us.com.

The list of those who signed up for this weekend may be found on page 2.

Program

Tim Schaueremann will present a program entitled, "Are American Colleges Too Expensive?" It will examine how colleges price their product and how they work into the equation of funding both college and research.

Future Program

February 26

We will have a Club Assembly to make preparations for the final weekend of our 27th annual Hole-in-One Contest.

Board Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Board of Directors was held Tuesday.

The board learned that club members who are Wells Fargo Bank customers may now use Zelle to make their dues payments.

The board is still exploring the opportunity to invest part of the $15,000 being held in reserve in the Foundation account into a CD.

There was discussion about the club by-laws update which will be voted on at next week's club meeting, and agreed to further discuss implementation of the 5 Avenues of Service into this year's program.

The board voted to pay the insurance for our trailer, since said trailer is owned by the club, not the foundation.

The board discussed the Hole-in-One contest.

Board Election

The Nominating Committee has proposed the following slate of officers for election to the club Board of Directors:

President	Marty Herder
President Elect	Terry Locke
Secretary	Soo-San Stevens-Clarke
Treasurer	Larry Gardner
(Secretary and Treasurer are two-year terms)
Board Members	Cory Whyte
(3-year terms)
	Jerry Turner

The Nominating Committee has proposed the following members for election to the Foundation Board of Directors:

(2-year terms)
	Doug Gardner

his basketball players who has been a Kobe Bryant fan since he was a little tot, wears No.24 and hit a shot a the buzzer to beat Perry in a recent game. The shot was recorded on video, went viral and even made Sports Center.

Marty Herder paid $5 for his most recent skiing trip to Telluride. Brad Raymond paid for a trip to the cabin.

Soo San Stevens-Clarke paid a sad $5 for a friend of hers who lost her 21-year-old daughter in a motorcycle crash. Jim Hoenig paid a sad buck for a friend of his from the Adrian Rotary Club who passed away recently, just months short of his 100th birthday.

Tim Schaueremann paid $5 for his daughter's trip to Brazil during which Tim stayed with his grandson in Colorado, and for more success for Oregon hoops teams. Chuy Ortiz paid for an ASU basketball win over U-of-A.

President Greg Thornton paid $5 because Dallas has been home from Washington and for the opening of Riley's show that his grandparents were not allowed to attend.

Roger Bonngard paid $5 for his grandson, for his great granddaughter's birthday and for his own birthday. We sang "Happy Birthday" to him.

Ron Stevens found out how much a collision repair bill can be when a recent bump cost $820, plus $300 more when they took off the bumper. (No mention about whether it had anything to do with the drugs that fell out.) And Ron won $9 in the 50-50 drawing.
