Last Week

No Visiting Rotarians

No visiting Rotarians made up with us.

Missing in Action

Nine of our members were missing: Courtney Banach, Sunday Etukeren, David Loutzenheiser, Brent Patmos, Kristel Patton, Bill Ryan, Ron Stevens, Soo-San Stevens-Clarke and Cory Whyte.

Makeups

Terry Locke and Cory Whyte made up at the board meeting, and Roger Morsch at the social.

Songs, Fines & Such

President Greg Thornton conducted the meeting. Larry Gardner led us in song, and James Caskey conducted the fine session.

Roger Morsch and John Leslie were late. John added $10 for a difficult loss. Roger paid $5 for losing his primary sales person which doesn't happen too often but he is looking for a replacement.

Roger Bonngard paid $2 for a close friend who suffered cardiac arrest, but is doing better now. Theresa Clemmons paid for recovering from a health issue.

Jerry Turner paid a happy buck for those who collected daily prizes for the Hole-in-One Contest. Doug Gardner paid a happy buck for the good response to the Helicopter Ball Drop.

President Greg Thornton paid $5 to thank everyone for their help in the Hole-in-One Contest. Marty Herder paid $5 for a community get together, what fun they had and how much the neighborhood bonded.

Tim Gibson paid $10 in thanks for Azita Dehkordi, Theresa Clemmons and others who picked his citrus, he warned again about Roger Morsch's chain saw talents, and in thanks for the club's support for his granddaughter Emma's Girl Scout cookie sale. President Greg read a Thank You note from Emma.

Larry Gardner paid a buck because his stepson's father has some health issues. Jim Hoenig paid a happy buck for his granddaughter, Emily, who has been suffering from Crohn's disease for many years. During a recent trip to San Diego to see a specialist, her Crohn's was declared in Please continue reading on page 2

Club Assembly

President Greg Thornton conducted a Club Assembly as we finalized preparations for our 27th annual Hole-in-One Contest which started last Saturday.

Marty Herder reported our event is listed on two different forms of social media.

Jerry Turner reported on daily prizes, noting we are short of last year, but he thanked those who have obtained prizes.

Theresa Clemmons talked about the Silent Auction. Since we are not teaming up with All-American Classics this year, all of our items are locally donated. If you have anything you would like to collect to donate, get them to Theresa ASAP.

Pres. Greg and Roger Morsch discussed placement of the tents which will basically be in the same place as last year.

Doug Gardner discussed the Helicopter Ball Drop. You can get sign-up sheets from Doug to take to your office. Balls will be on sale up to the day before the finals.

It is not too late to obtain Ring of Honor sponsors. Those signs are sold in multiples of $50 and are designed for a sponsor who may not be able to afford a Tee Box or higher, but would like to donate something. Get the sheet filled out by the sponsor, the money to Jim Hoenig and we can still get additional signs up this weekend.

And if you haven't signed up to work the final two weekends, please do. We're especially short on the 3:30-6:30 p.m. shifts both Friday and Sunday. Go to SignupGenius.com to make your choice.

Hole-in-One Contest

The Chandler Horizon Rotary Club's 27th annual Hole-in-One Contest kicked off Saturday. With beautiful weather throughout the weekend, we got off to a good start.

We had a good turnout of shooters Saturday and Sunday. Despite a noon time lull with no shooters, busy tee boxes both in the morning and mid-afternoon pushed Monday to a great day. More details on finances will come later..

There were two holes-in one on each of the first two days, including the father/son combo of Charlie and Randall Barrett (see photo and story on page 2 of News Horizons. Monday was the first day in at least two years we did not have a hole-in-one.

We also had a good turnout out of members and especially volunteers, who came from the Please continue reading on page 2

Thought for the Day

The location of your mailbox shows you how far away from your house you can be in a robe before you start looking like a mental patient.

Like Father, Like Son

Charlie Barrett (left), a retired Tempe police officer with a 31-year career, got a hole-in-one Sunday at our Hole-in-One Contest at the San Marcos Golf Course. Of course he was excited and texted some friends, one of whom was his son, Randall. Sunday was Charlie's first time to participate in the event, Randall has attended in previous years, including Opening Day Saturday when he qualified for the semifinals. Randall was off work and headed over to San Marcos and bought a bag of balls to hit with his dad (probably a little competition there). It wasn't long before the hitting was halted again, as Randall sank a hole-in-one. We are so happy for this family. To the best of our recollection, this is the first time in 27 years this has happened for a father/son on the same day.
