Last Week

No Visiting Rotarians

No visiting Rotarians made up with us.

Missing in Action

Eleven of our members didn't join us for the virtual meeting. Those who didn't attend were: Courtney Banach, Bruce Dransfeldt, Sunday Etukeren, John Leslie, David Lautzenheiser, Roger Morsch, Chuy Ortiz, Kristel Patton, Bill Ryan, Jerry Turner and Cory Whyte.

Makeups

Jerry Turner made up at Rampart Range in Colorado Springs.

Songs, Fines & Such

President Greg Thornton conducted the meeting, Larry Gardner led us in song, and Jim Hoenig conducted the fine session.

Jim Patmos paid $3 for a virtual meeting he and Mary Kay had with several Rotary officials, including Rotary Peace Scholars, discussing COVID-19 problems.

Terry Locke paid $3 for a weekend trip to Flagstaff to get out of the heat which he did with a low of 36° one of the days.

Kurt Rohrs paid for Alexander landing a summer job at The Home Depot. Brad Raymond paid $5 for his son Dylan earning his Master's degree and landing a job at Mesa Community College.

Marty Herder paid $4 in thanks to his tech people for getting his system back up and going again after it crashed over the weekend, and for the valuable information he received during his third weekend with the Club Leadership Academy.

Checking in from Colorado, Doug Gardner paid $4 for his grandson joining a Hot Shots firefighting outfit in Sequoia National Forest in California, and reporting he and Jerry Turner played golf in 35 mph winds.

Roger Bonngard paid $4 helping to celebrate the 33rd anniversary of the chartering of the Chandler Horizon Rotary Club on May 20, 1987. Roger had been president of the Chandler noon club but saw a need for an additional club, preferably Please continue reading on page 2

Jen Hewitt was ecstatic to receive a check for the Chandler Education Foundation. When it became impossible to hold our annual Thank You Breakfast because of the coronavirus pandemic, checks were mailed to recipient organizations, and leaders were asked to send along a photo of the check and themselves.

Program

Jen Hewitt brought us up-to-date on two of the organizations that were recipients of money raised during our 27th annual Hole-in-One Contest. They are the Desert Cancer Foundation of Arizona and the Chandler Education Foundation.

On behalf of the both organizations, she thanked the Chandler Horizon Rotary Club for its continued commitment to the community. She noted that she first became involved with Rotary in Branson, Missouri in 2002.

Jen is President of the Desert Cancer Foundation of Arizona. She said their focus is on education, with particular emphasis on early detection.

She thanked us again for our "sizable donation." The funds will go toward providing mammograms to those who can't afford them. Last year they tested 287 women with 10 coming back positive.

She hopes to find increased board participation this year. The staff is voluntary and works many hours. She mentioned Paula Wirth who has long been involved with the foundation but is facing serious health issues herself.

Jen is Executive Director of the Chandler Education Foundation. Their focus is on students Please continue reading on page 2

We have received our quarterly donation from Amazon from those who participate in the Amazon Rewards program, this time in the amount of $5, but every little bit helps. See Kristel Patton if you would like to sign up.

Thought for the Day

The WHO and CDC now recommend that we all wear blindfolds along with our masks to protect us from seeing what's really going on.

and teachers.

“We try to be flexible,” she said. “We seem to be moving in the direction of emergency care due to families’ needs,” especially leaning toward COVID-19 relief.

Our donation previously had gone to support the Destination College program, a summer school event for students from families with financial needs. However, that program was cancelled for this summer...probably a good thing because it’s doubtful they could have carried it out during the coronavirus pandemic.

Instead, they will use the money to help purchase computers for students from families in need, although she hoped it will morph into something larger. She noted the Chandler Unified School District received a grant from the government for $50,000, but that has been severely depleted. Terry Locke chimed in and said the CUSD that has 47,000 students has recently approved the purchase of 2,500 computers.

Jen said that she and Steve both need a computer for work, plus they have two children that also need a computer for school. That is typical of many families, although many have even more children. “That puts a lot of stress on families,” Jen said.

Some people have wondered if the cost of software for the computers is more than buying textbooks for the students. However, research has shown that the bottom line is about the same.

Jen and Steve also are part of the re-opening task force that is looking at what may/and has been done not only looking at re-opening the schools in the fall, but also looking ahead to next year and beyond.

in the morning. In those days a new club had to receive permission from any other area clubs, which CHRC received from the noon club. He expressed how proud he is of Chandler Horizon and all it has done to help the community.

And Tim Gibson bought a Scooter badge.
