Last Week

No Visiting Rotarians

No visiting Rotarians made up with us.

Missing in Action

Nine of our members didn't join us in person or online last week: Courtney Banach, Roger Bonngard, Sunday Etukeren, Tim Gibson, Tiffany Jones, Terry Locke, David Loutzenheiser, Kristel Patton and Bill Ryan.

Make-Up

Cory Whyte made up at the board meeting.

Songs, Fines & Such

President Marty Herder conducted the meeting, Larry Gardner led us in song and Brad Raymond conducted the fine session.

Brad paid $5 for a trip to the cabin with Sandra now that her recovery from eye surgery has progressed so well.

President Mary Herder paid $10 for his mom's 85th birthday and her recovery from cancer for a third time. They took her to Sedona to celebrate.

Jerry Turner paid $5 for his and Barb's successful trip back to Arizona from Colorado, for Barb going to the dentist to have a tooth filled and coming home with a crown, and for congratulations to Doug Gardner and James Caskey for their work on getting the Hole-in-One Contest going.

Greg Thornton paid $5 for James and Doug's hard work on the HIO (speaking from previous experience), for the safe return of Bruce and Jerry, and for Jim Patmos and all he does for Rotary.

Doug Gardner paid $5 in appreciation for James Caskey's work in getting things for the HIO set up in Chandler while Doug is still in Colorado.

Roger Morsch paid for a cross-country trip to Massachusetts to visit his son and family, and to Illinois to visit his brother and attend a wedding where social distancing wasn't practiced to any great extent.

Bruce Dransfeldt paid $5 for his and Jean's

Thought for the Day

Lamborghini's don't have commercials because the people who can afford them aren't sitting around watching TV.

Club Assembly

Golf Committee co-chairs James Caskey (left) and Doug Gardner kicked off our Hole-in-One Contest by laying out plans for our 28th annual event. James was present at San Marcos while Doug spoke remotely from Colorado.

"Because of COVID-19 we are taking a little different approach," James said. He noted that because most of the golf courses are full due to COVID, even though they have raised prices.

The initial plans call for sending out a letter to at least 100 prospective sponsors, asking them to join us in beating the coronavirus and helping those in need in our community. The letter will be placed in a box that also will include: a golf ball, tees, ball marker, Rotary 4-Way Test coin and other information about the event.

The sponsors will be asked to donate $5,000, or whatever they feel they can give to help support Chandler Horizon Rotary Club charities. James got the fund started with a $5,000 donation from Legacy Lending for a Platinum sponsorship.

Flyers and information sheets were handed out for members to peruse and offer comments. Everyone should have received copies of these documents via email. If you have not received them, let James know.

"The appeal to sponsors might not only bring in revenue, but also possible members," Doug said.

Doug present a proposed budget that included changes in our previous format, notably changes in the alternate prize money awarded at the finals and changes in daily prizes. There will be further discussion about these changes.

We will have a ball drop again although details are still being worked out. We also will have a Silent Auction.

Our goal is to increase the bottom line by $20,000+.

Program

Ron Stevens will introduce Amanda Zink and Dezbah Hatathli who will present a program entitled "Let's Talk Self-Driving," including Waymo technology and self-driving cars in general.

Board Meeting

The Chandler Horizon Rotary Club board of directors held its regular monthly meeting October 13.

Treasurer Larry Gardner reported he will present a check for $831 to the Foundation from fines and the 50-50 drawing for the first quarter of this Rotary year.

Ron Stevens reported on the conversion of the Foundation financials to a different source that will save us several hundred dollars per year. He is having problems with the conversion, but hopes to have them resolved soon.

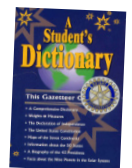

President Marty Herder noted the good turnout for our return to in-person meetings at San Marcos. We will continue the hybrid format as long as it works. There were comments about in-person speakers getting closer to the mic and issues with the wi-fi. Hopefully those will be resolved.

There was discussion about Hole-in-One expenditures and how any purchases should be approved by a second golf committee member. Doug Gardner is still seeking a helicopter for the ball drop. Hopefully that will be resolved soon.

Soo-San Stevens-Clarke reported on the October feed the homeless program with I-HELP.

Dictionary Project

The sticker party for the annual Rotary Third Grade Dictionary Project will be held this Saturday, October 24 in the Hamilton High School cafeteria. There will be two shifts to allow for masking up and social distancing: from 8:30-10:30 a.m. and from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Dictionaries will not be delivered in the classrooms this year because of the coronavirus pandemic. Instead they will be dropped off at the school office. We have been assigned six Chandler elementary schools again this year: Bologna, CTA Freedom, Fulton, CTA Liberty, Galveston and Ryan.

Let Kurt know if you can help with this worthwhile project.

 of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

World Polio Day is October 24. The board suggests that every member contribute by donating 25 polio vaccinations at 15¢ each for a total of $3.75 per member.

Soo reported the club has sent a letter of support in honor of the 2020 Week Without Violence event.

The Chandler Gilbert Community College scholarships were discussed. Only one of five applicants qualified under the present criteria. There was discussion about the criteria. Jerry Turner and Greg Thornton will meet with Lisa Ramirez at CGCC to discuss the issue.

 successful, but smoky, trip back to Arizona from Oregon, and for his granddaughter's 10th birthday.

Kurt Rohrs paid a buck for Alexander's 20th birthday. Larry Gardner reminisced about the time he took Alex to work with him and he paid $5 for that.

And John Leslie won $15 in the 50-50 drawing.

Alexander Rohrs mans the hose while spending a day at work with Larry Gardner in June, 2008. Alex recently celebrated his 20th birthday. We thank Alex for his continuing support of Chandler Horizon Rotary.
