Program

Chandler Policeman William Walker, who also is the Basha High School Resource Officer, will tell us about his experiences with the students he serves.

Last Week

Visiting Rotarians

The only visiting Rotarians who made up with us last week were Mike Flores, president of the Gilbert Rotary Club, and our speaker, Diana Tacey, who also is a member of the Gilbert club. In addition, Matthew Guy and Michael Ihsan were guests of the club, and Emmett Jones was a guest of Tiffany.

Missing in Action

Ten members did not attend our meeting: Courtney Banach, Theresa Clemmons, Brian Fox, Tim Gibson, Marty Herder, Brent Patmos, Marques Reischl, Bill Ryan, Greg Thornton and Cory Whyte. Five other members attempted to join us online but couldn't get on because of technical difficulties. However, they could hear and see each other, so they held their own informal meeting. They were Doug Gardner, Edyie McCall, Jim Patmos, Ron Stevens and Soo-San Stevens-Clarke.

No Make-Ups

No make-ups were reported.

Songs, Fines & Such

President Terry Locke conducted the meeting, Larry Gardner led us in song and Brad Raymond conducted the fine session.

Roger Morsch outbid several others for the Exempt badge, paying $25 for it. He told us his family has gotten dad moved into a new apartment.

Tiffany Jones paid $5 for her and Emmett being re-united with Diana Tacey. Bruce Dransfeldt paid $5 for our visitors and also describing the first day of doing taxes as "chaotic."

President Terry Locke paid $5 for Intel giving a computer to each student at Chandler High School during a special presentation recently.

Roger Bonngard paid $5 for his 85th birthday the following day, for his father once telling him he probably would live to be 100, and for the Suns' 11th straight victory. We sang "Happy Birthday" to Roger.

Larry Gardner paid a buck for his father living to 101½ until he was killed in a golf cart accident.

James Caskey paid $5 for a party he was hosting for Attorney General candidate Rodney Glassman. Please continue reading on page 2

Program

Diana Tacey provided an opportunity to Chandler Horizon members to participate in a project to provide assistance to a family from Afghanistan. She was introduced by CHRC International Service Chair Bruce Dransfeldt.

Bruce Dransfeldt (right) thanks Diana Tacey for her presentation.

A member of the Gilbert Rotary Club, Diana is coordinating the effort to provide a furnished apartment for a newly arrived refugee family from Afghanistan. She is seeking help from other Rotary clubs in our area, particularly Chandler, Sun Lakes, Fountain Hills, Mesa, Mesa West and Mesa Sunrise as well as Chandler Horizon and Gilbert, the ASU Rotaract Club and the District Peacebuilders Network.

She provided assignment sheets for each of those organizations with specific items to purchase. Chandler Horizon drew baby items that include everything parents might need for a newborn infant, from car seats to high chairs to strollers to diapers and other personal needs.

It is hoped these items might be purchased so that all these organizations can get together in mid-April and get the apartment ready for a move-in during the Rotary at Service Week April 16-23.

She noted we would not meet the family in person due to privacy concerns. It is hoped the apartment might be located in an area where there are other refugees, so the new family can mingle with others who have similar interests.

Diana told stories of the problems faced by refugees who are trying to escape the atrocities going on in Afghanistan. Some 500,000 of them traveled as far as Turkey where they were not accepted.

Gilbert Rotary Club President Mike Flores also was present. He discussed the importance of smaller Rotary clubs working together to be able to accomplish so much more.

Club Assembly

President Terry Locke will conduct a Club Assembly with most attention being paid to final preparations for our 29th annual Hole-in-One Contest.

CHRC Golf Events

We're only two weeks away from our 29th annual Hole-in-One Contest. That means members need to step up their efforts to gain sponsors and particularly daily prizes for the event scheduled Sunday, February 27.

The format for this year's Hole-in-One Shoot-out will be similar to last year. The qualifying round will start at 12 noon, followed by the finals involving the 10 closest qualifying shots. The winner will receive $1,000.

Shots cost $25 each or five for $100 and so on. You can register for the Hole-in-One Contest at www.rotaryhio.org.

We need prizes for the Hole-in-One event, particularly new golf balls. Any prizes collected can be given to Jim Hoenig or Greg Thornton.

Sponsorships will carry over to the new event on this year's schedule. The inaugural Chandler Golf Classic will be held Sunday, May 15. After the Hole-in-One Contest is over, we will continue to seek foursomes and sponsors for the Classic, an 18-hole scramble.

Obviously, sponsors are needed for the golf tournament. We are trying to obtain sponsors for each of the 18 holes at $2,500 per hole. Sponsors who donate more than that may be featured on two holes. Sponsors who donate less will be grouped together to bring the value for each hole to $2,500.

Cost for participation in the tournament is $500 per foursome, or $125 individually. Individual entrants will be placed in a foursome. Check-in will be at 6:30 a.m. with a shotgun start at 7 a.m. Golfers may register for the tournament online at ChandlerRotaryClassic.com.

There will be special events, including a drone ball drop, closest to the pin and longest drive. There also will be raffles for prizes simultaneous with the tournament. Tournament prizes and raffle winners will be announced during lunch following the tournament. Then we will stage our third annual helicopter ball drop.

Helicopter ball drop tickets are available. If you haven't received tickets yet, see James Caskey. They are $10 each.

We also need prizes for the raffles as well Please continue reading on page 2

THE FOUR WAY TEST of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Board Meeting

The Chandler Horizon Rotary Club Board of Directors held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday.

The board voted to recommend and send to the Foundation Board an amount of up to $600 to be spent on baby items for our refugee family from Afghanistan as part of Rotary's Week of Service in April.

The board discussed other service possibilities for that week, including a project at Basha High School and also possibly placing more Peace Poles around the city, including in Veterans Park at Chandler Heights and Lindsay.

Because of a lack of interest from other area clubs, the board withdrew the idea of sponsoring a booth at the annual Ostrich Festival in March. The board thanked Secretary Soo-San Stevens-Clarke for her work in as the hole-in-one contest. We are looking for larger prizes to be used in the raffles, although smaller prizes (like $25 gift cards) can be lumped together. Again, when you have prizes collected, get them to Jim Hoenig or Greg Thornton.

Volunteers also will be needed both days. We will need to get shooters checked in for the Hole-in-One event as well as measure and record shots on February 27. We will need to set up the signs on each hole and get players checked in for the tournament on May 15. Sign-up sheets will be available soon.

The tournament is a new event but may be a direction we will be forced to go in the future. Let's pull together to make both events successful so we can raise more money to give back to the community.

organizing the effort.

The board approved pursuing sponsorship of a booth at the Chandler Innovation Science Fair February 19 at Hamilton High School. It is a collaborative effort between the city and the Chandler Unified School District.

The board heard a report on our annual golf event. The 29th annual Hole-in-One Contest will be held February 27 with a new event, the Chandler Classic Golf Tournament that will be staged May 15. Progress is being made on both events.

PE Roger Bonngard and PP Jim Hoenig will serve as a nominating committee to produce a slate of officers for next year. PE Roger also discussed his goals for the upcoming year.

Two members will be required to attend a Grants Seminar if we wish to request any grants next year. Soo Clarke will be one of the representatives.

The board also discussed applying for recognition in Celebration Plaza at Tumbleweed Park, and possibly applying for Chandler to become an International City of Peace.

SONGS, FINES & SUCH

Brad Raymond paid $2 for reminding members present to give their attention to our speakers as a matter of respect and not carry on conversations with others around them.

Kurt Rohrs bought a Scooter badge.

There was no 50-50 drawing.

Thought for the Day

The best thing about the future is that it comes one day at a time.
