People of Action—2023 Community Service Award Nomination

Our goal is to honor a “person of action” who effects positive change and personifies the Rotary motto:

Service Above Self

We hope you can think of someone who has made a consistently positive impact on the broader Mesa and East Valley community through their voluntary service with your organization.

Nominations for this award are due by April 30, 2023. The award presentation will be made at the Mesa West Rotary People of Action dinner and celebration to be held June 29, 2023.
