

Chester gazebo concert series

2014

The Gazebo Concert Series 2014 features free, live music outdoors at the Gazebo on Main Street in Chester and is open to all. Come relax and enjoy our beautiful park setting and our exciting free music!

Sponsored by sponsored by Chester Borough & Chester Township Recreation and a grant from the Governor's Council on Alcohol and Drug Abuse.

Zero Gravity

June 29, 6:00-7:30

As a shout out to the undeniable effect that the discovery of the Higgs Boson will have on all of our lives...Zero Gravity was formed in the quiet foothills of Central New Jersey on a night not unlike this one. Zero Gravity is a rock and roll cover band coming at you from the heart of the Garden State, playing the songs you love to hear...and having a lot of fun doing it...which is what it's all about.

Jay & Vern

July 27, 6:00-7:30

Jay Johnston is from Memphis, TN, where he learned to love blues, folk music and old country songs. He sings lead vocals and plays guitar and harmonica. He appears in New York City and New Jersey and is a frequent guest on "The Heartland's Hayride" on WDVR, as well as Melanie Thiel's "One More Cup of Coffee" on WNTI, where his new CD, "Magnolia Man," is played regularly.

Vern Warta is from Bridgewater, NJ, where he honed his craft of blues, country, swing, rock and folk. His first experience with a real guitars (wood) was at age 7, before that they were plastic. Vern is a great lead guitar player and sings wonderful harmonies. He plays in NYC, NJ, and PA; has appeared at the Sellersville Theater; and was featured on WXPB's World Café Live in Philadelphia, on WDVR's "Heartlands Hayride," WNTI's "One More Cup of Coffee".

Third Rail

August 3, 6:00-7:30

Third Rail is the main core of a musical web. Playing since the early 90s, the band has seen some change as it expanded from Hoboken to Hunter. Years of playing together has given Third Rail an edge that can't be found in the studio or on a page of music.

Evan Lane & Friends

August 17, 6:00-7:30

From the 1920s hit Blue Skies by Irving Berlin to the ever popular 21st Century hit Let Her Go by Passenger, Evan's solid repertoire is nothing short of impressive and always a joy to audiences young and younger! With training in Classical and Jazz Guitar, Evan's musical talent is well developed with a sensitive touch and tones to melt the heart. Specializing in local events and private parties, he comes equipped with diverse genres, a taste for audience requests, and dozens of folk-inspired jazz rock originals.