Happy Thanksgiving!!!

Editor: Carolyn Ottenbreit

This Week: Thomas Varo & John Hatzelus will discuss the Sussex County Municipal Utilities Authority.

Last Week: Brian McAlister discussed the approach to substance abuse taken at the Full Recovery Wellness Center. Both Brian and his partner lost their sisters to drug addiction and determined to develop a center which addresses both the addiction and the life style which enables it. Residents are paired with personal coaches who address recovery, relationship, and career issues. The program has both a residential facility and outpatient clients. See www.FullRecoveryWellnessCenter.com.

Guests: Marcey Turkington and Bob Ford. Tom Digby welcomed our guests.

Announcements:

We are still waiting to hear the response to our District Grant submission. In addition, Bud Luthman is investigating a Global Grant. He is working with a nurse in Ethiopia to supply a sonogram machine for prenatal care, but needs to identify a partner club in Ethiopia.

Matt Hannum is heading up the Dictionary Project this year. Please see Matt if you would like to help with the distribution of dictionaries to local 3rd graders.

Denise Current reminded the Club that November 2nd is UN Day, and that although she provides the bus we no longer have a member of Newton Rotary leading the day trip to the UN for our District Exchange Students. Please see Denise if you can attend this year's UN Day, and/or head up the project going forward.

The Newton American Legion post thanked us for the $600 contribution from Newton Rotary toward their new flagpole.

Jerry Nechamkin announced that the Pancake Breakfast will be held on March 8th this year.

Bob Shankman recently visited the Caldwell Club and was very impressed with the Thrift Shop which they operate. The retail store generates a profit of approximately $80,000/year.

On November 6th, a representative of Bristol Glen will talk about the challenges of aging. On 11/13, the students who attended RYLA will share their experiences of the program with us.

Picture Fines: None.

Happy $:

Don Costlow is happy to announce that he has purchased the Berkley Heights Animal Hospital.

Charles Grotyohann was happy to talk about the recent field hockey game between Fairleigh Dickenson and Moravian. His daughters played on opposing sides with Fairleigh Dickinson (and the younger sister) winning in overtime.

50/50: Mike Gaus won $17but left $230 in the pot.
