Stacy Wilbur from Bristol Glen

Aging in America and the challenges of long term care

Editor: Carolyn Ottenbreit

This Week: A representative of Bristol Glen will talk about the challenges of aging.

Nov 13, 2013

Kitattinny Interact Club / RYLA Update

Last Week: Thomas Varo, from the Sussex County Municipal Utilities Authority, talked about plans to expand the solid waste facility and landfill in Lafayette. The existing landfill is expected to reach capacity in 2018-2020. After reviewing other options, including transferring solid waste out of state, the Utility has decided to expand the existing landfill by raising the perimeter sides. The landfill would be expanded in stages, as the need arises, and current plans are expected to be sufficient to 2060.

Bud Luthman gave the update on the Dictionary Project. The dictionaries have not yet arrived, but we do have team leaders for each school. See Bud or Matt to join a distribution team.

Bob Shankman, our Club Historian, gave the history lesson. On 4/11/29 (during Prohibition) an article appeared in the NJ Herald. State & local police officers arrived at a Newton Rotary meeting and discovered two whiskey bottles under the table of the Club President, Harvey Snook. Harvey denied knowing anything about the bottles but was arrested. When no Club members spoke up to post bail, police prepared to take Harvey to jail. Someone suggested that the bottles be tested, and they were found to be filled with ginger ale. The police left and the rest of the gag gifts were presented that evening.

Newton Rotary has received a $1500 District Grant for its project, in conjunction with SCCC and RoterAct, to record interviews with local WWII veterans. See John Cuozzo if you would like to be involved in this project.

After many years of service, Fred Weber has passed the scholarship committee to the capable hands of George Kaiser. School liaison committees are already in place for this year's selection process.

Dorian Alu invited Club members to the RoterAct induction ceremony, to be held at SCC on 11/12 from 6-8 PM. Dinner will be served. Business dress. The students would love to have Rotarians present at the event. See Dorian to RSVP at dalus@sussex.edu.

The Pancake Breakfast will take place on March 8th. Sign-up sheets will be out soon.

The Membership Committee, co-chaired by Charles Grotyohann and John Roberts, will hold its first meeting in late November, after field hockey season ends. Please think about bringing a guest in December when the local high school choral groups perform at lunch (Kittatinny on 12/4, High Point on 12/11, and Newton on 12/18).

There will be no meeting on the day before Thanksgiving.

Picture Fines: None.

Happy $:

Barbara Miller is back from 3 weeks in Florida, where she visited two local Rotary Clubs. She is happy to report that both clubs were Paul Harris 100% clubs.

George Kaiser is happy to have a buyer for his house.

Matt is happy that the Giants won on Sunday (a better result than Penn State's loss on Saturday).

Make-ups: Tom Brodhecker (Key Largo, FL), and Pam Lazzaro

50/50: Sylvester Fletcher won $16, but left $246 in the pot.
