Last Week: John Cuozzo introduced Theresa Riccardi, Director, and the High Point Chamber Singers. This is the first time that the High Point singing group has come to lunch at Newton Rotary, and we certainly hope that it will become a tradition. Songs included the traditional “Angels’ Carol” and “The Holly and the Ivy”, several Jazz selections, and the Club was invited to sing along to the last two selections, “Deck the Halls” and “Jingle Bells”. In addition to the singers, Natalie Gooding introduced two Marines from Picatinny Arsenal, who had come to collect toys for the “Toys for Tots” program. A large collection of toys, donated by Newton Rotary members and brought to lunch, were contributed to the program. The toys will go to boys and girls in North Jersey.

Guests: Nancy Smith, Keith Gooding, Gunnery Sgt. Kevin Battavio, Corporal Daniel Telor, Catherine Fletcher, Scott Ripley, Sally Tomasino, Lori Roberts, Mrs. Grotyohann, Dori Martin, and two RoterAct students. George Morville welcomed our guests and thanked our visiting Marines.

Announcements:

Thank you to everyone who brought gifts today.

Frank Eberhart had surgery on his rotator cuff. A card is circulating .

Jerry Nechamkin let us know that sign-up sheets for the Pancake Breakfast will be back on the lunch tables in January.

Jim Porter is still selling Gift of Life raffle tickets to the Superbowl for $10 each. The winner receives 2 tickets to the game, but not transportation or lodging because the game is local this year.

Bob Shankman, our Club Historian, discussed exotic locations for your club make-ups. Antarctica is home to two clubs. There are 35,000 tourists to Antarctica each year.

George Morville was awarded a pin for 35 years of service to Newton Rotary.

Dictionaries have arrived and are being distributed. Corey Stoner is producing stickers which read "Donated by Newton Rotary Club" to be added to the dictionaries.

Picture Fines: None.

Happy $:

Bud Luthman is happy that his son was married last weekend. He is also happy that his son graduated from High Point High School. His son graduated from HP, the best man at his son's wedding was a graduate of HP, and both of bud's children graduated from High Point.

Rutgers is playing Notre Dame on December 27th.

Tom Brodecker is happy to report that Roberto (our former exchange student) is the proud father of a new baby boy, and says "Hello" to Newton Rotary.

Charles Grotyohann is happy for his mother, who first got him involved with Rotary. He is also happy that his second daughter will graduate from college in May.

50/50: Dorian Alu won $20, but not the pot.
