This Week: Carl Lazzaro and Steve Wescott will discuss the Newton Rotary Endowment.

Last Meeting, 12/18: John Frank introduced the Newton High School Honor Choir, which has performed during the Christmas season at Newton Rotary for 30 years. The Choir currently consists of 70 students who sang many old favorites including: "Carol of the Bells", "I'll be home for Christmas" and "My God is my Rock". Christmas gifts were presented to our servers, Chris & Sarah.

Guests: Many guests of all ages attended – including Santa Claus!.

Announcements:

Barbara Miller read from a letter sent by Molly, our exchange student in Belgium this year. Her "good news" ranged from "I only failed two classes" to her Early Decision acceptance to Wellesley.

The proposed slate of officers for 2014-2015 was approved, with one change, by vote of the Club. Jerry Nechamkin replaced Linda McConville as President Elect, after Linda decided that work pressures would prevent her from serving in that office this year. Linda continues to serve as a Director.

Happy $:

Frank Eberhart thanked everyone for their well wishes. His rotator cuff is healing.

Natalie Gooding relayed thanks from the Marines who visited last week with the Toys for Tots program.

George Kaiser was happy to attend the performance of "White Christmas" at Sussex County Community College.

Tom Lynch is happy for Linda McConville and the entire slate of officers.

Tom Brodhecker announced that his wife, Jane, has become a great-grandmother.

Jerry Nechamkin is happy to have been able to step up to the plate.

John Iliff was happy attend the refurbished Newton theater.

Mike Gaus is happy for (1) the Anniversary of Ray and Anne Hecht, and (2) Bob Shankman's history of the Dolan family. Pat's brother, Bill, is married to Mike's mother-in-law.

Frank Eberhart is happy that the proposal for the Fredon cell tower is dead.

Carl Lazzaro is happy not to have won the lottery. He has avoided all the bad things that happen to people who win the lottery!

50/50: Tom Digby won $21, but left $354 in the pot..
