Emotional Freedom Techniques

Editor: Carolyn Ottenbreit

This Week: Dan Finkle will talk about the Newton Fire Museum..

Last Week: Michael Gabriele talked about his most recent book, “A History of Diners in New Jersey”. He discussed both the business model for early diners (most diner owners started as dish washers and worked their way up) and the construction of what we consider the traditional diner. The diner started as a lunch wagon and at its height of popularity was manufactured by several firms. Today, diners are typically built on site. The book is a collection of short stories and is available at the Sparta Bookstore and online.

Guests: John Klumpp. John Roberts welcomed our guest.

Announcements:

John Frank announced a reception for a former member of Newton Rotary, John Preston, to be held in Richmond, VA. See John for details.

We need two volunteers to attend the Rotary Foundation seminar in Morris Plains from 9 AM – 2 PM on February 8th.

Rotary International has announced its theme for 2014-2015, “Light up Rotary”.
