This Week- February 12, 2014: Debra Hollinrake - Emotional Freedom Techniques

Last Meeting - January 29, 2014 : (Feb 5 – snow) – Jim Porter introduced Dr. Sandy Waran, Director of Pediatric Neuroscience at Goryeb Children's Hospital in Morristown.

Dr. Waran spoke of a large international Rotary Service Project to build a Children's Neurology and Epilepsy Unit at Lady Ridgway Hospital in Sri Lanka. There is tremendous need to provide treatment for epilepsy in Sri Lanka, and hoping to expand the program eventually to other parts of Asia. The Unit at LRH in Sri Lanka is to provide long term monitoring and treatment for children suffering from epilepsy.

Newton Interact Club: Two current presidents of the Club thanked the Newton Rotary for their sponsorship at Rotary Leadership Institute last year. Co-President Marie Rodriguez reported the experience was a great opportunity to experience future college life, living in dorms, eating in the cafeteria, etc. Special events included a workshop on "facing your fears" where Marie had the opportunity to "karate chop a block in half!"

Newton Interact Club has 30 members, having doubled in size from last year.

The Club is currently joining other clubs at the high school selling bracelets for typhoon victims in the Philippines.

President Steve presented a check for $150 to the Interact students to help the Club with its expenses and endeavors this year.

Guests: : Jim Ferguson, Newton Medical Center, Chris Wolverton, HQW, Len Pasculli, Esq., Mary Emilius, United Way, Jack Choma, Advisor for Newton High School Interact Club with seven (7) club members.

Happy $:

John Iliff is happy for his granddaughter's latest achievements at the National Individual Ladies Wrestling Championship in St. Louis. And John is happy for his Unity Choir's recent performance of The Messiah, with choir members from 26 churches.

Mike Hanifan is happy he survived the latest Boy Scout camping trip in the cold, and his niece will be performing with her choir as backup for Queen Latifah at the Superbowl Pregame Show.

Mary Emilius from United Way is also happy for the partnership between Newton Notary and the United Way.
