This Week: Jim Furgeson & Dr. Christian Robertozzi, Newton Medical Center Foundation

Last Week: Mary Emilius, Head of United Way of Northern NJ, Sussex County, brought two phenomenal student athlete-scholars to speak to the Newton Rotary. Brett Conrads, ranks 6th in his Newton HS class and has earned 12 Varsity letters. He told of spending his spare time volunteering in the community. Emma Chick, from Walkkill Valley HS, and originally from Canada, is at the top of her class. She, too, juggles sports (soccer, field hockey, and others) with academics while she volunteers to help others in the community.

Guests:

Mary Emilius
Tammy Chick (Emma's mother)
Henry Cebo, (Chester Rotary Club)
Bob Mangino
Chris Wolvington, the Architect
Sarah Leonardo, SCCC Rotaract Club Member

Announcements:

Terry Iliff is recuperating from a serious heart problem. A card was passed for all to sign.

Jerry Nechamkin, head of the March 8 Pancake Breakfast, thanked
Carl for saving the club $700 on food
Tom for replacing John
Janice for the great Bake Sale
Dave, John, and Dan for the great pancakes
Pam for handling the tickets sales
The Rotaract and Interact students who "made it all possible"
Corey's daughter for being a super salesman

Charles for being a DJ and photographer
Natalie for her all around help
Those in charge of the Rotaract and Interact Clubs
Alice did a beautiful job on placemats
Lori, who washed dirty towels
$4,000 was raised at the Pancake Breakfast.

Editor's Note: Many thanks also to Rich Hayzler, who seated every single person who walked through the door, Denise Current who is always the "go-to" person at every event, Linda McConville who spent hours with the baked goods, the many familiar faces whose names I do not yet know, Fletch, Matt, Steve, my husband Mike who loaded chairs and tables. Thank you to all who hung posters, called friends, and came on Saturday to support Rotary.

Corey Stoner announced the beginning of the District 50/50 Raffle. Tickets sell for $20, starting today. The Club gets 50% of the amount raised. The District hopes to raise $100,000.

Dorian Alu reported that Wednesday, April 23, will be an evening meeting for the Rotary and it will take place at Sussex County Community College. There, the Rotaract Club will hold its Pinning for those Rotaract students who have earned their way to becoming full Rotaractors. A dinner will be served in the Student Theater. More information will be given at the next Club meeting.

Steve announced the upcoming Rotaract District Conference of April 26 and mentioned that there were District Level Awards that could be given to anyone worthy of the nomination (deadline April 12). Some categories are: Best Rotaract Club Award, Rotarian of the Year, etc.

John Roberts requested more volunteers for the March 28 Gift of Life Volley Ball Tournament. Referees and money collectors are needed.

Alice Vigiletti is still taking items to be sold on eBay. So far, she has received 6 items and 3 have sold.

Steve McNally asked for a volunteer for the Garden Party for this year.

History: Bob Shankman gave us a historical lesson on how and when Rotary started. 109 years ago on February 23, 1905, Paul Harris, founder of the Rotary Club, met with colleagues in Chicago. Because they rotated their meetings among the member's offices, the name became the Rotary Club.

Happy $:

Natalie B. Gooding gave a Happy $ because Charles made her table laugh.

Dorian Alu gave a Happy $ for her guest Sarah, a wonderful, young Rotaractor, and for her husband who joined her at the Pancake Breakfast for four hours.

Matt Hannum was happy about the turnout at the Pancake Breakfast.

Same for Charles, who Jerry tells us will wear a Pancake suit next year and stand on the corner by Iliff.

Mary Emilius gave Happy $s for her athlete guest and for the Newton Rotary who she gratefully thanked for its constant support.

50/50:

Cory Stoner won $17 in the Lottery and left $500 in the Pot.
