Last Week:

Marty Kane talked to us about the history of Bertrand Island Amusement Park on Lake Hopatcong. He played an entertaining video outlining the history of the park and the lake.

Guests:

Carissa Current, Liza Nechamkin, David Dumbroff

Announcements:

Denise Current let us know about the Buddy Brown County Concert benefiting 'Walk Now for Autism Speaks'. The concert is going to be held Friday May 16th at 7pm at Kittatinny Regional High School and features a performance by Madeline Smith.

Interviews for the Newton Rotary Scholarships are underway. The scholarship program is scheduled for June 11th.

Cory Stoner gave us an update on district events. The district Conference will be held at the Hanover Marriot on April 25th and 26th.

The Garden Party is going to be June 28th at Carl and Pam Lazzaro's house.

We are looking for volunteers for Newton Day. We will be operating a booth on Spring Street for the event.
