This Week:

Sheriff Mike Strada – will talk to us about the Sussex County Sheriff's Office.

Last Week:

Keary Green spoke to us about the history of the Secret Service. Ms. Green is a part of the Technical Security Division. The Secret Service includes both Investigative/Protective missions.

A few interesting points of history that were presented:

The Secret Service began to combat counterfeit currency.

The second oldest law enforcement agency next to the US Marshals office.

Other missions include US Treasury, Homeland Security, protection of current & former Presidents and current candidates, foreign heads of state and certain special events.

Thank you to Secretary Pam Lazzaro for all of the work she does each year to make the food booth a success.

We had a total of 26 students from Interact, Rotaract and member's sons or daughters help at the booth this year.

Bob McCracken announced that the 47th annual Newton Rotary golf outing will be honoring John Frank. The outing will be held on Wednesday September 10th at Newton Country Club. We need golfers and tee signs. Invitations have been mailed and are also available up front. Surf and turf dinner.

There is a Youth Exchange Program orientation happening this week that Barbara and Matt will be attending. Denise has Jury Duty on Tuesday and may need help picking Clara up at the airport. Tom Brodhecker volunteered to help with the host family interviews.

A donation was made to the Rotary Foundation permanent Fund in memory of Richardson Buist.

August Birthdays and Anniversaries:

Birthdays: Laura Camp, Tim Dinan, Bob Morgenstern, Robert Ford

Anniversaries: Denise Current, Jan Pasculli, Matt Hannum, Bob McCracken

Happy Dollar$:

Jan Pasculli is happy for always knowing where to go when she needs corn thanks to Carl.

Bud Luthman is happy for surviving unscathed after having fallen asleep at the wheel on the way to New Hampshire.

Jerry Nechamkin is happy for Keary our guest speaker today who is recently married.

Matt Hannum is happy to be enjoying a mini-vacation after having left this kids with grandma and grandpa for the week.

Pam Lazzaro is happy to have attended Richardson Buist's memorial service. Carl spoke about Rotary and retired Richardson's badge.
