Newton Rotary Golf Tournament – No regular meeting.

Two Weeks Ago: 9-3-2014

Kevin Daly & Sarah Ur of Bristol Glen talked about the growing sector of senior citizens needing in-home care or nursing home facilities. 87% of elderly are cared for by family & friends; which can impact business productivity & safety. Sarah talked about care giver burnout and its impact on their health. Bristol Glen offers respite care as well as nursing and assisted living options, however the biggest issue is convincing the loved one to leave home. Second issue is the cost. Bristol Glen has a fellowship fund that allows a resident to stay in the event they run out of funds.

Announcements:

Golf outing is Wednesday, September 10th Honoring John Frank. Rotarians can come to lunch as well as dinner. Non-Golfers are welcome to come to lunch and dinner.

Denise picked up our Youth Exchange Student Sarah at the airport, and she was able to go boating at the lake house.

Sign-up sheets to host Sarah for dinner 'or other activities' were passed around.

Clara and President Matt Hannum exchanged Rotary banners.

Bob Shankman needs help writing public relations articles, as well as other ideas to promote Newton Rotary.

Presidents Ball – September 20, 2014. Cost is $75.00. Checks can be given to Helen Wescott.
