Editor: Barbara Miller

This Week: 11-12-2014

Jeff Farber - Health Insurance for Cats & Dogs

Last Week: 11-5-2014

Jerry introduced Joe DiPaolo, CEO of Newton Medical Center. He showed a video to give us a visual of all of the changes that are taking place at Newton, and spoke about the two issues that have been most controversial in the past: the Emergency Room, and the Hospitalist program. An excellent exchange of questions and answers followed.

Guests: John Hannum, Bill Zonka, Jim Ferguson, Bryan Oakland and Justine, a friend of Alice. All were welcomed by greeter Barbara Miller

Next Week: 11-19-2014

ET Holland Thanksgiving Program

Announcements:

President Matt announced again that the Foundation Ball will be held on November 22, 2014. He urged all members to continue to donate to the Rotary Foundation and explained the importance of continuing to donate on a regular basis.

Denise reported on UN Day held on November 2nd. She and Judi Frank accompanied the six Rotary exchange students to the UN Program, after which they enjoyed an afternoon and evening in New York City, including a visit to Ground Zero, Times Square, Chinatown and Little Italy.

Jim Porter spoke of the importance of the Gift of Life program in our district, and urged all members to participate in the sale of Gift of Life Raffle tickets. This is the major fundraiser for the Gift of Life program.

John Roberts gave a report of the Membership Committee. He asked each member to write down the names of people they think could be potential members of Newton Rotary, and then urged members to personally ASK those people named.

Matt again announced that the Lafayette House will be raising the price of lunch by $2.00 effective December 1st. Anyone with comments and/or suggestions is asked to contact Matt as soon as possible as the Board will be discussing this issue in the near future.

Picture Fines:

Meghan paid a fine for her picture in connection with Newton Medical Center.

Happy Dollar$:

Denise is happy that the daughter of one of her employees is starting a Rotaract Club at Utica College.

Natalie is happy that her son was very excited after visiting Sussex Tech recently, and she is hopeful that he will be accepted there for next year.

Barbara Miller is happy that she invited Clara to have dinner with her family on Sunday, and she challenged others in the club to extend an invitation as well.

Dewey was also happy to have Clara for dinner and again spoke of what a pleasant experience it was.

Alice is happy to have Justine as her guest today.

Tony is happy that the Sussex 200 Club will be celebrating at their annual dinner soon.

Matt is happy that baseball is coming back to Skylands Park.

50/50:

John Cuozzo won the 50/50 for the day, but left the bigger pot for the future!
