This Week: January 7, 2015

Sussex County Historian and Newton Rotarian Wayne McCabe will be talking to us about a book he is writing on the German-American Bund's former presence in Sussex County.

Last Meeting: December 17, 2014

John introduced Matthew Petrozelli, the new choral director of the Newton High School Chorus, and they presented a wonderful selection of holiday music.

Guests:

The "Hannum Family" including Eileen, Kate, Julianna and Natalie, Elaine Eberhardt, Jim and Judy Taylor, Dottie Budd, Catherine Fletcher, Carissa Current, Clara St. Remi, Dottie Welch, Scottie Hontz, Terri and Ashley Iliff, and Jim Tasker, Principal of Newton High School.

Special Guest: SANTA

President Matt presented gifts to our servers Sara and Jeanne

Announcements:

Matt reminded everyone that the Chili Open is January 24th. If you would like to volunteer to help at the “refreshment booth” please be in touch with Dan Leary.

The Newton Rotary Club made a monetary donation to the United Way Gift of Warmth campaign, and Matt encouraged members to contribute coats as they are very much needed again this year.

Jim still has Gift of Life Raffle tickets and he is collecting $10 apiece. Great stocking stuffers!!

Sylvester spoke about the Polio Plus campaign, which will move into high gear after the holidays.

Pancake Breakfast is March 7th. Mark your calendars and save the date!!

Happy Dollars$:

John Iliff is happy to have Ashley visiting today. She is a Junior at Kings University in Bristol, Tenn., and her wrestling record this past year was 14-1!

Denise is happy to celebrate her granddaughter Carissa’s 17th birthday today. She passed her driver test and drove Denise to the meeting!!

Kurt is happy that as of Sunday, December 21st, the days start to get longer again!

Jerry is happy to have SANTA with us today, and for everyone else who came to the meeting.

Matt is happy to celebrate Rotary Family Month by having his whole family here for lunch and the program.

Matt is also happy because Clara spent the day with his family on the previous Saturday. It was a great day and he encouraged others to do the same!

Carl is happy to be here another day!

John Cuozzo is happy to have Jim Tasker with us, and thanked him for his support of the students at Newton High School.

50/50:

Dottie Budd won the weekly 50/50 of $11 but left $26 for another week.
