This Week: January 28, 2015

Michele Smith - Parks & Recreation Dept.

Last Meeting: January 21, 2015

Mary Emilius from the United Way spoke to us about helping to fill the gap in available services and resources for unpaid family caregivers.

Announcements:

Our membership survey is circulating. There are hard copies available at our weekly meetings and fill-able copies have been e-mailed to each member.

The Pancake Breakfast is scheduled for March 7th.

The United Way's Chili Open is January 24th at the fairgrounds.

The District has organized a 50/50 raffle. Tickets are $20. Newton Rotary keeps half of the proceeds of each ticket sold.

The Rotary Foundation moved up 35 spots to 85th in the ranking of the top 400 non-profit organizations as measured by monetary contributions.

Happy Dollars$:

John is happy for his wife who is fully healed from her operation and for a performance by the Unity Choir that is taking place Sunday.

Dan is happy for his son who's team only lost by 15 points in their recent basketball game.

Denise is happy to have Pam back and Lionel visiting.

Cory is happy for his daughter who hit her first basket of the year.

Jerry is happy to have Linda with us today and for Charles who is taking over as chair of the Pancake Breakfast this year.

Lionel is happy to announce that Jefferson Rotary is celebrating its 50th anniversary. A dinner will be at Casa Bianca on February 25th.
