OUR 68TH YEAR OF "SERVICE ABOVE SELF"

ARMOR - VEST PRESENTATION: Last evening, a baker's dozen of our members presented body armor vests to Pequannock Township's two newest police officers as part of their swearing-in ceremonies. Police Chief Dan Commune noted that PV Rotary has been doing this for years, "since our department asked many years ago, estimating that we have provided over 100 vests to date." Actually, according to Honorary Member Paul Darmofalski and program founder, the program began in 1998.

< DOUG & RAY

Past District Governor Ray Freaney visited us two weeks ago and was pointing the finger at Doug. Doug was wearing one of the warm Lincoln Park 100th Anniversary pullovers that were part of their New Year's Day 5K entry package. For those who did not run, there are still some pullovers available at $60. See Janet.

33/33/33: Doug 12 points, but he did not uncover the Joker's 32 points. ### WJW
