“CELEBRATING OUR 68TH YEAR OF “SERVICE ABOVE SELF”

“Tis the Season” At right, the Pequannock Township tree, next week we will feature the Lincoln Park tree!

FIRESIDE MEETING POSTPONED

Due to health concerns and at least two Rotary members and their families either testing positive or having symptoms, President Patty informed us that tonight’s annual fireside meeting is postponed and may be combined with next month’s Christmas Holiday Party scheduled for January 7th.

The Board will discuss at tonights regularly scheduled monthly meeting and all members will be so advised. The “Fireside” is our annual evening meeting where we formally elect officers for the coming year and discuss and plan the future activities and direction of our club and the input of all members in an informal and comfortable setting is welcome. We usually take a club group photo that evening as well for use during the year.

HAPPY/SAD DOLLARS:

Shrey H$ Although he was a bit late to the tree lighting, all the kids loved it, saw so many kids and young families participating, it was great that Rotary participated, H$ For Charlene putting it together and Mellisa doing a great job at the bean bag toss; Continued...
