Pequannock Valley Rotary Foundation 501(c)(3)

The Pequannock Valley Rotary is a community minded group of men and women who, guided by the motto "Service Above Self", work together to raise money for a variety of local, national, and international causes, and who volunteer their time to help local charities and organizations. The club's members also enjoy a variety of social and educational activities, and meet every Wednesday at Bardi's Bar and Grill in Pequannock. The club was established in 1953, is affiliated with Rotary International, and serves the townships of Pequannock, Lincoln Park and Riverdale.
