TODAY'S PROGRAM

Program Chair of the Day: Orville Salmon

Salvation Army Chili Day!

Lt. Colonel William Mockabee The Salvation Army

Since becoming an officer in 1975, Lt. Colonel Mockabee has led an exemplary career as a servant leader across several of the Army's southern territorial states including Alabama, Florida, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Texas and West Virginia. His Divisional Appointments included Divisional Youth Secretary, Divisional Secretary, Divisional General Secretary and his last appointment was Divisional Commander of the Georgia Division.

He and his wife, Lt. Colonel Debra Mockabee, have been honored with the establishment of the $1 million Bill and Debra Mockabee Leadership Fund, in recognition of their extraordinary leadership while they served as Area Commanders for the Greater Dallas Metroplex in 2011.

Southern Territorial appointments have included Territorial Youth Secretary and Territorial Secretary for Program. During his appointment as Southern Territorial Youth Secretary, Lt. Colonel Mockabee shared his passion for developing leaders by overseeing Boys & Girls Clubs Community Centers in 15 states. While in this position, he concurrently served as Chairman of the National Youth Commission for the Salvation Army National Headquarters in Alexandria, Virginia.

International appointments led he and Debra to serve in Sri Lanka as the Chief Secretary for the Territory. They served in Sri Lanka for 3 years.

Born to Salvation Army officers in Monroe, Louisiana, Lt. Colonel Mockabee has passed the legacy of doing the most good to his three children. Oldest son, Bill, and his wife Stephanie serve as Area Commanders for the Little Rock Arkansas Salvation Army with their three children, Payton, William Edward and Christian Louis. Middle son, Matthew, also served as a Salvation Army officer until he was Promoted to Glory while on duty, working during the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina. His youngest son, Jeremy, resides in Lakeland, Florida with his wife Kristina where they serve as Salvation Army officers appointed to the Lawrenceville, GA corps. Jeremy and Kristina have two daughters, Morgan Skye and Aubrey and a son, Maverick Dane.

Bill has now established his consulting business, Turtle Consulting. He is presently consultant for several nonprofit and for-profit companies. His wife, Debra, is The Salvation Army Angel Tree Director for the North Texas Area Command. <https://salvationarmyntx.org/north-texas>

RCPC IN ACTION

It's Beginning to look a lot like Christmas!

The Tree Lighting in Snider Plaza

Fluffing Trees at Scottish Rite Hospital

from Jane Mullins, Dir. of Volunteer Services, SRH

Happy, please pass along our thanks to Cynthia, John, English, Katie, and JD for helping setting up holiday trees in the patient areas of the hospital. This is a critical step in getting the trees fully decorated to celebrate the holidays! It was great fun

LAST WEEK

Presiding: Happy Franklin
Invocation/Pledge: John Glancy
Marketplace Adv: Shawn Foster
Photographer: Ian Mudge
Chair of Day: Rob Levy
Speaker: Leonor Marquez, CEO
Program: Los Barrios Unidos Community Clinic

President Happy Franklin called the meeting to order. PP John Glancy gave the invocation, and noted that there were no new concerns today. He then led the Pledge of Allegiance and The Star Spangled Banner.

President Happy asked for Happy Bucks and good news. PP Eric Heitkamp provided the good news that work was underway on the RCPC project with the Salvation Army to improve their recreation area.

Tiffany Richmond introduced our public service honorees, Roderick Edwards, a Sergeant with the Specialized Unit of the University Park Police Department and Carlos Velasquez, a parks maintenance worker with Highland Park. Sgt. Edwards is a thirty-year veteran in law enforcement and who has been with the UPPD since 2007. Mr. Velasquez was named Employee of the Year in 2019.

Tom Swift introduced our newest member English Minter. She has a BFA from Baylor and a BS in Interior Design from Abilene Christian. She has done charitable work for Equest because of her interest in horses. She has written and illustrated three books on the subject.

PP Bill Sleeper gave his Membership Minute. He started by saying that it was four decades ago that he and PP Doug Means stood on stage and gave their new member talks. He said he soon found out that there is a tradition in this club of deciding what we want to do and then finding a way to do it. There are three big projects that the club has completed. In the 1980s this club raised $120,000 to support RI's Polio Plus project to eradicate polio. In the 2000s RCPC raised money to build ChildsPlay as our centennial project. Then the club raised a quarter of a million dollars for the North Texas Food Bank to buy a food truck. All of this was made possible through very generous people. He recommends to new members to make friends, to do projects and contribute, and to have fun.

Please remember ...

Mark Neace's father-in-law has passed away and his mother-in-law is not doing well.
Tracy Gomes's nephew has a new baby, but has lost his job.

PP Barb Jeffries announced the vote for the Officers and Board members for the 2022-23 Rotary Year. The slate was elected unanimously.

PP Greg Pape gave an update on polio eradication, and Sarah Oliai gave ideas on donation strategies. [See pg. 3] Shawn Foster introduced our Marketplace Advertiser of the week, Michelle Brown and Advance ER.

Rob Levy introduced our speaker today, Leonor Marquez, CEO of Los Barrios Unidos Community Clinic.

She said that her presentation was on poverty and health. Poverty does not mean homeless, but could mean difficulty paying bills. LBU Clinic takes care of low income people and most do not have insurance LBU is a community health center. They have four locations. Community Health Centers care for about eight percent of the population across the country. They provide primary care Their largest clinic is in West Dallas and also have clinics in Oak Cliff and south Oak Cliff. The children they treat often have CHIP or Medicaid, but the adults are not insured. About half of their revenue is from federal sources; forty-three percent comes from patients, four percent is from private funding and three percent is from state grants. In normal years only about a third of the funding is from federal sources. When the shutdown hit, they started telehealth and drive by health care.
