Equest – Humans Horses Hope Client Testimonials, Tour of the Facility

Our Core Values

-from the Equest website

Professionalism

In all actions of Equest, we strive for best practices, assurance of safety, sound judgment, and common sense abound.

Optimism

Finding ability in the word disability, we strive for goals that reach beyond perceived boundaries.

Integrity

Leading by example, we act with honesty and transparency to create an environment of trust for colleagues, donors, clients, families, volunteers.

Stewardship

All decisions and actions preserve our resources: human, equine, financial and environmental.

Excellence

Equest's identity lies in striving for excellence in all that we do with our clients, volunteers, families, donors, horses and colleagues.

Client outcomes from the fall 2018 semester Of our clients working with a physical or occupational therapist:

- 100 percent demonstrated improved core control and postural alignment.
- 100 percent demonstrated improved quality of gait.
- 100 percent demonstrated improved receptive and expressive communication skills.
- 86 percent improved sequencing skills for greater independence in daily living.
- 60 percent demonstrated improved independence during transitions/transfers.

RCPCIN ACTION

Popcorn Packing at Scottish Rite Hospital from JR Priestman

For the first time since the pandemic, Park Cities Rotary Club helped support the Scottish Rite for Children by packing over 300 tins of popcorn in support of their fundraising efforts.

The club provided over 20 volunteers and was able to finish in record time. It was a great event for an even better cause. We plan to be back again next year and for many more years to come!

Sorting Angel Tree Red Bags at the Salvation Army Distribution Center

Following delicious chili and enjoyable program at our annual Chili Day Meeting at the Salvation Army Adult Rehabilitation Center, some of the members moved to the Salvation Army's Distribution Center to help with incoming Red Bags from Angel Trees around town.

LAST WEEK

Presiding: Jeff McNaughton
Invocation/Pledge: Orville Salmon
Photographer: Holly Hollenbeck
Chair of the Day: Orville Salmon
Speaker: Col. Kenneth Johnson
Program: Salvation Army Chili Day

President Jeff McNaughton called the meeting to order. Orville Salmon gave the invocation, and then led the Pledge of Allegiance and "The Star Spangled Banner." President Jeff called for Happy Bucks and then introduced our visitors and guests.

Sgt-at-Arms Kathy Wall asked for all of the members whose birthdays were in December to stand and reminded them to make their donation to the RCPC Foundation if they had not already. She and President Jeff then presented Dr. Michael Rainwater and PP Fred Brown a grant for $4,380.00 from the Foundation to fund the recent Dentistry with a Heart. Michael expressed his appreciation for working with The Salvation Army to provide dental services to nineteen people. [Read more about Dentistry with a Heart in the eBulletin.]

PP Greg Pape commented on the Rotary International Foundation and their global WASH (Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene Action Group) programs. There are two thousand projects worldwide benefitting communities and schools. Then he called PP Happy Franklin to the podium to receive her sixth level Paul Harris pin and PP Fred Brown to receive his Third level pin.

Michelle Brown introduced our Market Place advertiser of the week, Mark Neace and SyncLab Media. PP Karen Farris announced the Holiday Party and C.C. Collie's one hundredth birthday. Sign up and pay on the website. PP Eric Heitkamp urged members to check out the completed recreation area, which was started last spring. Partially funded with a grant from the RCPC Foundation, it was a joint project of RCPC and The Salvation Army.

President Jeff called the Annual Meeting of the club to order. He reviewed the slate of officers and Board Members. The slate of officers for 2023-24 was elected unanimously.

Orville Salmon introduced our program today, saying that all of our donations for lunch go to the Red Kettle Campaign. He thanked Capt. Chris Gibson for the decorations. He led the singing of "O, Come All Ye Faithful." He also noted that Maj. Paul McFarland was back in the area in a new role directing all of the Salvation Army programs in counties around Dallas.

He introduced our speaker today Col. Kenneth Johnson, the National Chief Secretary of The Salvation Army. He said he was a genuine resident of Texas, and that he and his wife would be returning at the beginning of the new year. He and his son are trying hot foods. He tried the Carolina Reaper Pepper, the hottest pepper, and needed relief. He said he sees people suffering every day and looking for relief; broken hopes and broken dreams. They find salvation in the Christian church. He said we have all seen, standing on corners and sleeping under bridges. We don't know their names. He said we can take suffering and instill them with hope and self-esteem. William Booth, the founder of The Salvation Army, saw a horse pulling a cab had stumbled and fallen. Everybody ran to help the horse to get back on its feet. He looked down the street and saw an alcoholic man, but nobody came to help him. Heart to God, hand to many, we all came together to do good. The Salvation Army will be keeping on keeping on. In the U.S. The Salvation Army has served a million meals to the hungry. They pledge to do good. Do not withhold help for those who deserve it when you have it. He said he is blessed to live in a society that loves to give.

Our Mission

Building a legacy of good works and fellowship, we strive to:
REACH those in need in partnership with others
INSPIRE tomorrow's leaders with high ethical standards
FOSTER lives of service above self

THOUGHTS ON...

Horses

Horse sense is the thing a horse has which keeps it from betting on people.
~ W. C. Field

You never know how a horse will pull until you hook him up to a heavy load.
~ Paul "Bear" Bryant

Never look a gift horse in the mouth.
~ Saint Jerome

A horse! a horse! my kingdom for a horse!
~ William Shakespeare

A good resolution is like an old horse, which is often saddled but rarely ridden.
~ Mexican Proverb

There is nothing so good for the inside of a man as the outside of a horse.
~ John Lubbock

It is not the horse that draws the cart, but the oats.
~ Russian proverb

Take most people, they're crazy about cars. I'd rather have a damn horse. A horse is at least human, for God's sake.
~ J. D. Salinger

Old minds are like old horses; you must exercise them if you wish to keep them in working order.

~ John Adams

A New Chili Chef!

Bob Grossman, Chili Chef Extraordinaire has been cooking the chili for the Salvation Army Chili Day for over forty years. This year he was assisted by his grandson, Charlie Grossman, who was learning to cook chili. Learning from his grandfather, we know he will become a master chili chef!
