TODAY'S PROGRAM

Program Chair of the Day: Richard Stanford

Richard Stanford Bonnie and Clyde

Dallas native Richard Stanford is a former attorney, retirement home administrator at CC Young Senior Living, and staff member at Highland Park United Methodist Church.

He knew and represented some of the principals in this story later in their lives.

An SMU Business and Law graduate, he and his family live in Uptown.

Ft. Worth author Jeff Guinn has written the most definitive description of the outlaw couple to date.

On this 90th anniversary of their ambush in 1934 we will look at the Depression, and what it meant for 1930's Dallas and law enforcement during the era of the public enemies.

Volunteers Needed for the Parade!

from Phillip Bankhead

The Club's biggest manpower need is for walking and stationary marshals to ensure it's a safe and fun event for all.

Thanks to those who have already responded about this most fun - and critical - role on the day of the parade but we need lots of volunteers to make sure RCPC's string of 21 consecutive years of an accident-free parade continues.

The parade starts at 9:00 a.m. on the day of the 4th, but we gather at the Highland Park Town Hall around 8:00 a.m. before enjoying the relatively short walk to newly named Centennial Park in University Park to join the post parade celebration there. Family members are welcome to participate as well.

If you can join us this year on the 4th as either a walking or stationary marshal, please email me at pbankhead@northmarq.com or sign up on the Club's website, and I'll fill you in on the details.

President Jeff Sheehan called the meeting to order as the new members were recognized and the old members greeted each other. Shawn Foster gave a wonderful invocation followed by the Pledge and National Anthem. Several people donated "Happy Bucks" in honor of milestones in their families.

Van Oliver shared some interesting facts about the RCPC Foundation. He announced the June birthdays of different members.

Herb Ziev highlighted Susan Glen, our Marketplace Advertiser, and the SVP company, a recruitment, development, outplacement group that does talent research and solutions for nonprofits. It is a minority and women based company.

PP Greg Pape updated us on the Rotary Foundation and those who are higher level Paul Harris participants and the importance and many projects undertaken worldwide and among them are Rotary Youth Leadership, Financial Fellowships, Student Exchange programs, grants worth over seven million dollars:

"Mankind is our business".
 PP Jeff McNaughton received his Rotary lapel pin for his consistent and generous donations.

The Legacy of Leadership (2023-2024) cohorts were introduced and their capstone project was announced. This is the sixth class with ten participants. Coach Randy Allen attended and is one of the key speakers for their training as well as other community leaders. The Legacy of Leadership was started by Cleve Clinton and Paul Pirok. The DISD school selected for this year project was the Jack Lowe Sr. Elementary school in the Vickery Meadows. To encourage reading, a Book Vending Machine will be placed and will be managed by the school Principal Crystal Cavitt and her staff. Any of 560 students can earn tokens for service and achievement to purchase their own book to take home to keep. The funds for the machines are donated and filled by different organizations. The Cohort and the Rotary Foundation helped fund this project which is known to improve literacy.

Our main speaker, Mita Havlick, is the executive Director of the Dallas Education Foundation for DISD.

THOUGHTS ON...

Robbery

The more laws and order are made prominent, / The more thieves and robbers there will be. ~ Lao-tzu

He that is robb'd, not wanting what is stolen, / Let him not know 't, and he's not robb'd at all.

~ William Shakespeare

A man who has never gone to school may steal from a freight car; but if he has a university education he may steal the whole railroad.

~ Theodore Roosevelt

No law ever written has stopped any robber, rapist or killer, like cold blue steel in the hands of their last intended victim. ~ W. Emerson Wright

If once a man indulges himself in murder, very soon he comes to think little of robbing; and from robbing he next comes to drinking and Sabbath-breaking, and from that to incivility

~ Thomas De Quincey

If you steal from one author, it's plagiarism; if you steal from many, it's research. ~ Wilson Mizner

Immature poets imitate; mature poets steal. ~ T.S. Eliot

DISD has over 140,000 students 10,000 teachers from many different cultural and ethnic backgrounds. The vending machines cost about $9200 which covers about 400 books targeted to third graders, but all ages enjoy the process. DISD had free Pre-K for four-year-olds and hope to add three-year-olds next year. That is vital to successful learning and children's futures. They also are targeting work force readiness through Career Institutes and
