Sue Gover Lee, Dallas Genealogical Society "Finding YOUR Roots"

Sue Gover-Lee is a Project Management Professional with more than 25 years of experience in the telecommunications industry, where she held leadership roles in marketing, product management, operations, and supply chain.

A lifelong family history researcher and storyteller, Sue's passion for genealogy was inspired by her grandmothers and parents. She first began exploring local history as a middle school student, captivated by the story of her hometown in Upstate New York, founded in 1789.

She actively shares her expertise and enthusiasm for genealogy through volunteer service with the Dallas Genealogical Society, Genealogy Friends of Plano Libraries, Collin County Genealogical Society, and the Mary Shirley McGuire Chapter of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution (NSDAR). Her family stories have been featured at the New York Genealogical & Biographical Society's annual Family History Conferences.

Dallas Genealogical Society

The Dallas Genealogical Society is a non-profit tax exempt Section 501(c)(3) organization that provides resources and services of interest to family history researchers in (or with an interest in) Dallas and North Texas. We partner with the Genealogy & History Division of the Dallas Public Library to provide services and educational activities that cultivate and nurture an interest in Family History Research.

We are committed to education, service, preservation, and keeping abreast of new developments in genealogical resources, technology, and information providers.

THOUGHTS ON . . .

Generations

Happy families are all alike; every unhappy family is unhappy in its own way. ~ Leo Tolstoy

Because we don't think about future generations, they will never forget us. ~ Henrik Tikkanen

Every generation laughs at the old fashions, but follows religiously the new. ~ Henry David Thoreau

In case you're worried about what's going to become of the younger generation, it's going to grow up and start worrying about the younger generation. ~ Roger Allen

Every generation imagines itself to be more intelligent than the one that went before it, and wiser than the one that comes after it. ~ George Orwell

If human life were long enough to find the ultimate theory, everything would have been solved by previous generations. Nothing would be left to be discovered. ~ Stephen Hawking

He plants trees to benefit another generation. ~ Caecilius Statius

HE WHO LAUGHS LASTS

As parents, we love our children enough to turn a blind eye to their foibles. A young father takes a seat on the bus next to an elderly man and plops his 1-year-old on his lap, just as the little boy begins to wail and fidget. The old man glares at the kid before remarking, "That child is spoiled, isn't he?" "No," says the distracted father. "They all smell this way."
