TODAY'S PROGRAM

Program Chair of the Day: Herb Ziev

Tony Moore

"Harold Simmons Park"

Tony Moore is President and CEO of Trinity Park Conservancy, an organization tasked with overseeing the development of ten thousand acres of the Trinity River Corridor, one of the largest natural green spaces in the city of Dallas.

Moore leads the development and design of the Harold Simmons Park, a 250-acre public park, the first project of the Trinity River Corridor development.

Prior to joining Trinity Park Conservancy, Moore served as Executive Director and CEO for Gathering Place, Tulsa's Riverfront Park. Gathering Place opened in 2018 and has since transformed more than 100 acres of riverfront property into a nationally acclaimed public park.

Before joining Gathering Place, Moore served as the Chief Operating Officer for Zoo Tampa, where he relaunched the Zoo's brand, introduced new signature programming and oversaw attendance growth.

In his career spanning over 30-years, Moore has held senior-level, leadership roles with other leading brands such as SeaWorld, Universal Studios, Discovery Cove, and Aquatica Water Park. Moore is a veteran leader in the parks and public attractions industry with prominent experiences in park operations, park design, brand management, marketing, and community engagement

Harold Simmons Park

Harold Simmons Park will aim to improve the social, mental, and physical health of our city, fostering stronger community connections to nature and to each other.

THOUGHTS ON ...

Parks

Climb the mountains and get their good tidings. Nature's peace will flow into you as sunshine flows into trees. The winds will blow their own freshness into you, and the storms their energy, while cares will drop away from you like the leaves of Autumn. ~ John Muir

It is not much for its beauty that makes a claim upon men's hearts, as for that subtle something, that quality of air that emanates from old trees, that so wonderfully changes and renews a weary spirit. ~ Robert Louis Stevenson

Those little nimble musicians of the air, that warble forth their curious ditties, with which nature hath furnished them to the shame of art. ~ Izaak Walton

I think that I shall never see a billboard lovely as a tree. Perhaps, unless the billboards fall, I'll never see a tree at all.

~ Ogden Nash

A Visit to the Svalbard Global Seed Vault

The Svalbard Global Seed Vault is a place where our shared history and future are stored, frozen deep within the permafrost. I first wanted to visit the Seed Vault because I saw it as more than just a scientific repository.

To me, it is a symbol of resilience and hope, a silent promise that even in times of

HE WHO LAUGHS LASTS

Parenting is the ultimate DIY project. Here's an example: A delivery driver knocks on a door, and a little kid, holding a beer and puffing on a cigar, answers. The driver asks, "Are your parents home?" The kid takes the cigar out of his mouth and says, "What do you think?"

crisis, we can safeguard the genetic memory of our planet. the vault represents continuity. It bridges the fragility of our present with the possibility of renewal.

Walking through the tunnels carved into Arctic rock, what impressed me most was the humility of the place. There is no spectacle or grandeur, only shelves of sealed boxes, each containing the seeds of civilizations. Wheat, rice, maize, sorghum ... humble grains that feed billions. Behind every sample lies a story of farmers, cultures, and landscapes. What struck me is that while wars are fought over power and borders, here nations (including North Korea) quietly collaborate to protect what is essential for all of us: the foundation of life itself.
