TODAY'S PROGRAM

Program Chair of the Day: Jeff McNaughton

Mark R. Harrison

PGA Frisco: Inspiring the Future of Golf, Welcoming Everyone

Mark Harrison became the Northern Texas PGA Section's third Executive Director in 2011. In 2016, Harrison was named the Northern Texas PGA Section's first Chief Executive Officer.

Harrison guides the staff of a regional office of the PGA of America, the world's largest working sports organization in their dedication and service to the Northern Texas Section's 900 men and women PGA Professionals.

As Executive Director and CEO, he directs the organization and management of the core business functions, which include: administration, business development, communication, education, employment, finances, fund raising, governance, membership, sponsorship, tournaments and guiding the growth of the nation's most dynamic junior golf program and not for profit Foundation.

Perhaps most notably, Harrison created a business plan that ultimately led to the recent announcement that the Northern Texas PGA and the PGA of America would be moving their headquarters to Frisco.

We have had four cohorts travel through this program, and we have improved the course every time. We have found that not only is the course beneficial as a leadership training, it has also built strong relationships within the Club.

LAST WEEK

Presiding: Jeff McNaughton
Invocation/Pledge: Paul Pirok
Photographer: Barb Jeffries
Chair of the Day: Nolan Duck
Speaker: Tony Jeary
Program: Leadership

President Jeff McNaughton called the meeting to order. PP Paul Pirok gave the invocation and then led the Pledge of Allegiance and the singing of the Star Spangled Banner. President Jeff asked for Happy Bucks. Among our visitors was a colleague of our speaker who brought a flag to exchange. Patsy Watson introduced our Marketplace Advertiser of the Week, Kyle Marmillion and Marsh & McLennan Agency.

Sgt.-at Arms Kathy Wall asked all of the members with September birthdays to stand and reminded them that they were encouraged to make their voluntary contribution of $100 (or more) to the RCPC Foundation.

New Member Christine Volkmer started her new member speech by saying she was glad to be a part of RCPC. She grew up in San Antonio, the fifth of seven children. She attended parochial school and came to Dallas to attend the University of Dallas. She started in education and taught English as a Second Language. She then changed to Public Relations, where her tagline was "to create a story worth telling." She made some great connections with the media. Through a series of connections she introduced a woman from Zimbabwe who dreamed of having an education and who finished her PhD in the U.S. to Oprah Winfrey. Christine said she had three children soon after college, but then her marriage ended. She then met her soulmate, a woman who also had three children. They have been together for thirty years, and married for five years. Together they raised six boys. She now has eleven grandchildren, all boys. She works at Equest and has realized that we all want to be included.

PP Cleve Clinton said that Rotary is changed and in some ways RCPC is leading in changing. Legacy of Leadership was started five years ago. They are building on their alumni base to form a community which is becoming the backbone of the club. It is a new approach to how we do servant leadership. He urged members to sign up for the next class which will be starting soon.

VP Nolan Duck introduced our speaker today, Tony Jeary, who spoke on "Leadership." The book he brought was meant to be about 60% business and 40% personal. His talk today will be highlights of the book. The center of the book is based on strategic acceleration. His clients come to him to get more clear and more focused. He works out of his Results Center to help people with clarity, focus and execution. When you hear a speaker or read a book, you get perspectives. Some are inspiring and valuable. Sometimes they apply to your life. He asked how many of us, when we speak of time, use the word "spend." A better word to use would be "invest." Two important things in everyone's life is your time and your health. After you subtract time for sleep and maintenance there are about one hundred hours left, which you divide between professional and personal time. He asked how are we in our clarity, focus and execution. How clear are you on where you are going in the next five years? Do we set goals? Setting goals is being more clear. In this world results are rewarded, but most people do not think enough. You should think seriously everyday about your values and what you are doing every day. Strategic acceleration means achieving the right results faster, but not just any results, the right results for you and your business. You can be persistent and be successful, but you can be better if you have more clarity, focus and execution. Ask yourself how clear are you on where you are going. Most people have not studied strategically saying, "no," but still getting what you want.

HE WHO LAUGHS, LASTS

A teacher was giving a lesson on the circulation of the blood. Trying to make the matter clearer, she said, "Now, class, if I stood on my head, the blood, as you know, would rush into it, and I would turn red in the face."

"Yes," the class said."

"Then why is it that when I'm standing up-right in the ordinary position the blood doesn't run into my feet?"

"A little fellow shouted, "Cause your feet ain't empty!"

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL

Bringing Calm to Chaos

Jamie LeSueur, head of Emergency Operations of the Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (IFRC), was a Rotary Peace Fellow during 2013-2015 when training for future peace work at Uppsala University.

Today Jamie is working as a specialist in humanitarian relief and management in disaster and conflict situations, based in Turkey. He is also an excellent ambassador for Rotary's work to increase the professional capacity in peace work.

During his assignments, Jamie has found that research data has become a powerful mediation tool. Letting research be the foundation for decision-making brings much needed calm to chaos in multi-agency operations.
