TODAY'S PROGRAM

Program Chair of the Day: Roger Diebel

Oliver "Buck" Revell

Federal Bureau of Investigation and Counter-Terrorism

Mr. Revell is President of Revell Group International, Inc., Rowlett, TX; he serves as the Executive Vice President of Rogue DNA, Inc of Vancouver, Canada, as a Trustee of the Center for American & International Law, Plano, TX; is the Chairman, of the Board of Directors, Middle East Media Research Institute, (MEMRI), Washington, DC; and Senior Advisor to Synfuels International, Inc. of Dallas, TX. He served as Chairman of Visiphor Corp., Vancouver, Canada, 1998-2008.

He served for five years as an Officer and Aviator in the U.S. Marine Corps, leaving active duty in 1964 as a Captain. He then served 30 years as a Special Agent and Senior Executive of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (1964-1994). From 1980 until 1991 he served in FBI Headquarters first as Assistant Director in charge of Criminal Investigations (including terrorism); then as Associate Deputy Director he was in charge of the Investigative, Intelligence, Counter-Terrorism, Training, Laboratory and International programs of the Bureau (1985-91). He served as a member of the President's Council on Integrity and Efficiency (1980-91), the National Foreign Intelligence Board (1987-91), and the Senior Review Group, Vice President's Task Force on Terrorism (1985-1986). Mr. Revell also served as Vice Chairman of the Inter-agency Group for Counter-Intelligence (1985-91), and on the Terrorist Crisis Management Committee of the National Security Council. In September 1987, Mr. Revell was placed in charge of a joint FBI/CIA/U.S. military operation (Operation Goldenrod) which led to the first apprehension overseas of an international terrorist. President Reagan commended him for his leadership of this endeavor. In May, 1992 the Attorney General ordered Mr. Revell to

Los Angeles placing him in command of joint Federal law enforcement efforts to suppress the riots and civil disorder; he also coordinated the law enforcement activities of the assigned Military Forces. He received the Attorney General's Special Commendation Award for this endeavor. He was Special Agent in Charge (SAC) of the Dallas Division of the FBI at the time of his retirement in 1994. He retired with the rank of Associate Deputy Director.

In 1989, President George H. W. Bush awarded Mr. Revell the Presidential Distinguished Senior Executive Award and in 1990 the Presidential Meritorious Senior Executive Award. In 1991 he was awarded The FBI Medal for Meritorious Achievement and the National Intelligence Distinguished Service Medal; he also received a Commendation from the Secretary of Defense for his efforts to protect the Homeland during the Desert Storm Operation. In October 1994 Mr. Revell was awarded the Albert J. Wood Public Affairs Award by the Middle East Forum for his "efforts in the fight against International Terrorism". On November 24, 1010 Mr. Revell received the GUSI International Peace Prize in Manila, the Philippines for his Outstanding Achievements in International Law Enforcement & Peace Keeping.

Mr. Revell attended the University of Georgia, is a graduate of East Tennessee State University, which awarded him the National Alumni of the year in 1985; he holds a Master's Degree in Government & Public Administration from Temple University, 1972; he is a graduate of Programs in National and International Security and Senior Executives in Government of the Kennedy School, Harvard University.

COMMITTEE TIME

Interactors Spring Break Trip to Nicaragua with District 5810 by Shawn Murphy

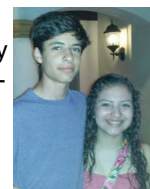

Keyhan Rezvan and Lesley Patino returned from Rotary District 5810's second annual trip to Nicaragua. The trip consisted of twenty Rotarians (including PCRC own John Whaley) and twenty Interactors from all over the district. During the trip, the participants painted schools, built a playground and made hammocks. It was spring break so everyone had fun as well. Some of the activities included zip lining, boating, mountain hiking, and eating exotic foods.

Keyhan and Lesley said it was an experience of a lifetime, and they realize how fortunate they are when they witnessed the living conditions of the Nicaraguans.

Half of the students trip was funded by the PCRC Foundation and half of the trip was funded by the Interact Club's Fundraising Efforts. Special thanks to all PCRC members who helped the Interactors in their fundraising efforts.

LAST WEEK

Presiding: Cleve Clinton
 Invocation: Bill Matthews
 Pledge: Gerry Montgomery
 Introductions: Mark Kashar
 Advertisers: Teri Thomas
 Photographer: Rex Jennings
 Chair of the Day: Ley Waggoner
 Speakers: Jim Lake, Jr.
 Program: Renewal of Oak Cliff, Bishop Area and Jefferson Blvd.

President Cleve Clinton called the meeting to order. Bill Matthews gave the invocation. Gerry Montgomery led the Pledge of Allegiance and "The Star Spangled Banner." Mark Kashar, assisted by Kendra Yan-chak with the mike, introduced our visiting Rotarians and guests, including a long-distance visiting Rotarian. Teri Thomas announced The Hub and web advertisers of the week. President Cleve presented a Blue Badge to Kathleen Turton; she is no longer a newby.

Nolan Duck read a tribute on the life of late member Bob Womack. He then presented a copy, along with Bob's badge, to members of Bob's family who were there; one was Bob's daughter. President Cleve remarked that Bob was a member of the Greatest Generation, and that we still have members of that generation in the club. He said that they have a wealth of experience and knowledge and that the club is exploring a way to involve them in leadership training for the newer members. He reminded everyone to bring a friend to Rotary next week.

PP Ley Waggoner introduced today's speaker, Jim Lake, Jr. His father purchased and named the area that is now the Bishop Arts District. His vision helped to create momentum for the city to build on. Jim said he does adaptive redevelopment; this is not always easy, but he believes places are more interesting when they have a history. He hopes that he can encourage people to explore new places. He described his first purchase in the Design District; the day after they closed on the building, they got a call from the Vice Squad. Now the building has been renovated and houses a satellite communications company. Dragon Street in the Design District has now become the design mecca. They have purchased and renovated several other buildings in the area, including converting one three-story building into apartments. This was the first living space in the area, but now about three thousand people live there. Several restaurants and bars also have opened in the area. His company is also involved with renovating buildings in Oak Lawn and near Southwestern Medical School. He said that he believes Commerce Street in Oak Cliff will undergo the biggest change in the next few years. New buildings are already being built in the area. He also has some projects along Jefferson Boulevard. His company is converting Jefferson Towers, which was built in 1928, into lofts and retail space. They are looking at several other properties along Jefferson, but want to recognize and retain the Hispanic businesses that are there. He said there will be an Oak Cliff Film Festival at the Texas Theater in June. He recently has been looking at Waxahachie, and his company has acquired the Rogers Hotel. They want to bring redevelopment to Waxahachie, just as they have to parts of Dallas. He said that although his company receives a reasonable return on its investment, one of their priorities is to make a positive impact on the community.

Our Mission

THE LAST LAUGH

Husband's Message (by cellphone): Honey, a car hit me near the office. Paula brought me to the Hospital. They have been running tests and taking X-rays. The blow to my head did not cause serious injury, but I have three broken ribs, a compound fracture in my left leg and they may have to amputate my right foot. Wife's Response: Who is Paula?
