TODAY'S PROGRAM

Program Chair of the Day: Roger Diebel

Tomi Grover, PhD Human Trafficking

Tomi Grover serves as a speaker, author, and teacher. She is thrilled to announce a new book entitled Compelled. In the book, she explores the Christian church's role, responsibilities, and response to the atrocities of human trafficking. Tomi tells how God is compassionately compelling a response to human trafficking in the world and He is asking His church to respond by joining Him. This book discusses the "why" and "what" of God's compelling message to the church.

Tomi is a dynamic, engaging, sought after speaker. She endeavors to enlighten a variety of audiences on the varied aspects of human trafficking. Additionally, she brings a message to respond to God's call personally. Tomi crafts messages on culture related topics about U.S. children's vulnerabilities through media and technology including the blight of pornography on this generation.

When asked where she teaches Tomi says, "Anytime, any where someone will listen." Her gift of teaching is evident as she shares her wealth of knowledge in a way that brings response and engagement from her audience. Tomi has had many opportunities in public and private arenas including law enforcement, civic groups, schools, universities, organizations, and churches.

Tomi holds a Doctor of Philosophy in Social Work and Ministry-Based Evangelism, and a Master of Arts in Christian Education, from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. Historically, she had a twelve-year career as a certified telecommunications operator, and was certified as a law enforcement officer, as well as a law enforcement instructor and holds a Bachelor of Liberal Arts and Science in Criminal Justice from the University of Florida.

TraffickStop is an educational initiative Tomi founded in 2009 to educate, advocate, and engage people on human trafficking. She believes everyone needs to know their human trafficking footprint and how they can make a difference.

 Pledge: Cindy Cummings
 Introductions: Charlotte Hudgin
 Advertisers: Teri Thomas
 Photographer: Fred Speno
 Chair of the Day: Roger Diebel

President Elect Eric Heitkamp called the meeting to order. Mary Bishop gave the invocation and asked that we keep in our prayers Laurie Aldredge who had to leave suddenly due to family concerns and Kendra Yanchak and her 14-month old daughter who is in ICU. Cindy Cummings led the Pledge of Allegiance and "The Star Spangled Banner." Charlotte Hudgin, assisted by Will Repeto with the mike, introduced our visiting Rotarians and guests, including PDG Frank Meyer. Teri Thomas announced The Hub and web advertisers of the week. PP Greg Pape reported that the club had set a goal of contributing $30,000 to the Rotary Foundation this year, and that we are well on the way. He reminded us that RI launched PolioPlus in 1986, and in 1987 RI held the first Peace Forum which led to the Rotary Peace Fellowships

He introduced Charlie Bond who announced his annual Paul Harris Fellow donation, which he makes in honor of his father-in-law, Jere Elliott, who founded Elliott's Hardware. This year he made Tom Rhodes an honorary Paul Harris Fellow. PE Eric awarded a grant from the RCPC Foundation to Sharon McGowan of Friends of Wednesday's Child, who provides support for children in foster care. The grant will fund their Birthday Project. The children move from home to home, but they will receive a card and a small gift on their birthdays no matter where they are. VP Karen Farris presented a Membership Moment; she suggested that we invite people who are new to Dallas to join. They will have immediate opportunities for networking, fellowship opportunities and community projects. Roger Diebel announced that they are planning programs for the next six months. They will also be sending out a questionnaire on speakers.

Roger introduced our speaker today

Oliver "Buck" Revell, retired deputy director of the FBI. He said he doesn't prepare his speeches until the day they are to be given because events are always changing. He explained that he was going to talk about five issues that are critical for the U.S. The first is the exchange of thermonuclear weapons among rogue countries. Vladimir Putin seems to want to put the Soviet Union back together, and his actions have put NATO on alert. The second are cyber attacks on our infrastructure. There is a tremendous amount of criminal activity and intelligence activity through the use of the internet. We face threats to our monetary and credit systems every day. Cyber attacks can also shut down manufacturing, transportation, and utilities. Classified facilities no longer have connections to the internet because no computer is safe. North Korea has been counterfeiting one hundred dollar bills. If the market can be flooded with counterfeit bills, the monetary system is disrupted. An Electro Magnetic Pulse is created by a nuclear explosion, but it will take out all the electrical equipment and the electric grid. The only facilities that are protected are the governments top secret sites, but most everyday electrical devices are vulnerable. His last point was that even though the First Amendment guarantees free speech, there is a movement to create an Islamist state within the U.S. which follows sharia law rather than the laws of the U.S., even here in Dallas.

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL

Moving doctor's office rescues women from breast cancer

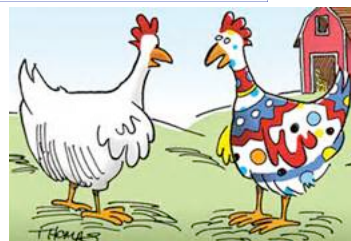

Through a global grant, Rotary members in India are fighting disease and raising breast cancer awareness with a mobile lab that brings mammography services right to women's doorsteps. Many women lack the resources to travel to the city. The project is an example of how you can work sustainability and training into a global grant involving a vehicle.
