LAST WEEK

Presiding: Eric Heitkamp
 Invocation: Cub Amos
 Pledge: Gerry Montgomery
 Introductions: Richard Stanford
 Photographer: Ley Waggoner
 Chair of the Day: Roger Diebel
 Speaker: Scott Peck, Director
 Program: Museum of Biblical Arts

President Eric Heitkamp called this special meeting at the Biblical Arts Center to order. Cub Amos gave the invocation, noting that Christy Bednar had fallen and broken her hip. Please keep her in your prayers. Gerry Montgomery led the Pledge of Allegiance and "The Star Spangled Banner." Richard Stanford, assisted by Andy Carothers with the mike, introduced our visitors and guests, including PDG Frank Meyers. Nolan Duck introduced our Marketplace Advertiser of the week. President Eric introduced our newest member Bennett Taylor. PP Linda Tunnell announced plans for the Holiday Party. Bill Clark reminded us of the new location for the meeting on December 12 at the Salvation Army; it will be at the Adult Rehabilitation Center at Inwood and Harry Hines.

Roger Diebel introduced our speaker today, Scott Peck, Director and Curator of the Museum of Biblical Art. He said that the Museum was founded in 1967, but burned in 2005. He remarked that it was a metaphor of rebirth, when the museum has recovered from that loss. He said that the museum had existing connections with Rotary, in that the architect of the new building was PDG Frank Meyers. Currently, the museum is featuring the works of Barbara Hines on the Holy Land and Egypt. Another featured exhibit are the works of Jeffrey Brosk of wood with silver and gold. There is also an exhibition of maps of the Holy Land, dating from the sixteenth century to the present. They are now working on a new project, a replica of the Via Dolorosa, or "Way of Sorrow." It will feature fourteen life size bronzes by Gib Singleton. The Charles C. Ryrie collection of Bibles is one of the most important rare Bible collections in the world. It contains over one hundred bibles, pages and fragments. Among their other works are seventeen copies of the works of Michelangelo. Prior to World War II, Mussolini had casts made of the great sculptures, fearing that they would be destroyed in the war. Recently, they have been made available for a limited number of replicas to be made. Another attraction is a mural "The Resurrection" by internationally-known artist Ron DiCanni. This mural has received a lot of publicity, and many people come to the museum just to see this mural. The museum is non-denominational; there is a Jewish Ceremonial Gallery, as well as contemporary galleries with art from African-American and Hispanic artists. He said he is also very proud of their art restoration laboratory.

The program closed early so that we could see the museum. Each RCPC member also received two tickets to visit the museum again.

~ Charles Dickens

Living in the moment brings you a sense of reverence for all of life's blessings.

Rotary Foundation Is 4-Star Charity

The Foundation recently earned a 4-star rating from Charity Navigator, the largest and most prestigious independent evaluator of nonprofits in the United States. In the 2013-14 Rotary year, 92 percent of the Foundation's expenditures were applied to programs, with only 6 percent spent on fundraising and 2 percent on administrative expenses. The Foundation funded $23.5 million in district grants and $47.3 million in global grants. These grants support local and international humanitarian projects as well as scholarships.

HE PROFITS WHO LAUGHS BEST

A woman was sitting at a bar enjoying an after work cocktail with her girlfriends when Steven, a tall, handsome, middle-aged man entered. He was so striking that the woman could not take her eyes off him.

This man noticed her attentive stare and walked directly toward her. Before she could offer her apologies for staring so rudely, he leaned over and whispered to her, "I'll do absolutely anything that you want me to for $20 – On one condition."

Intrigued, the woman asked what the condition was. The man replied, "You have to tell me what you want me to do in just three words."

The woman considered his proposition for a moment and then slowly removed a $20 bill from her purse, which she pressed into the man's hand, along with her address. She looked deeply into his eyes, barely concealing her anticipation, and slowly and meaningfully said, "Clean My House."
