TODAY'S PROGRAM

Program Chair of the Day: Jon Petersen

Britt Berrett Texas Health Presbyterian Hospital

Britt Berrett serves as president of Texas Health Presbyterian Hospital Dallas, an 898-bed hospital. In addition to his role as president of the Dallas Hospital, Berrett also serves at the system level as an executive vice president of Texas Health Resources. He oversees strategic planning and operations for Texas Health Dallas, guiding the hospital in its mission to improve the health of the people in the community it serves.

While on a two-year mission in Peru, Berrett developed a great appreciation for the role that healthcare providers can play in improving the quality of life for an entire community. It is his concern for the quality of life in the community that makes him a passionate advocate for excellence in healthcare and a perfect fit for Texas Health Dallas.

Prior to joining TexasHealth Dallas, Berrett served as president and chief executive officer of Medical City, a 677-bed hospital, since April 2000. He received his bachelor's degree in finance from Brigham Young University and his master's degree in hospital administration from Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis. Berrett also received his PhD in Public Administration from the University of Texas at Dallas.

Texas Health Dallas was recognized in 2007 as a U.S. News and World Report Best Hospital for Digestive Disorders, Neurology and Neurosurgery, and Orthopedic specialties. TexasHealth Dallas received Magnet Recognition Program Award for excellence in nursing services from the American Nurses Credentialing Center, the nation's largest and leading nursing credentialing organization within the American Nurses Association.

Meadows Museum Comes to Interact

by Ley Waggoner

Andy Carothers arranged for a most engaging and very interesting presentation by Meadows Museum Education Coordinator Mousumi Franks at the Interact meeting on Thursday morning at Hillcrest High School. The forty-four Interactors in attendance were very engaged, and we all learned a lot.

Check out the Patron Tapestries exhibit at the Meadows Museum at SMU, now through May 13th.

LAST WEEK

Presiding: Jim Mills
 Invocation: Margaret Collins
 Song Leader: Gerry Montgomery
 Introductions: Will Reppeto
 Hub and Web Advertisers: Kendra Yanchak
 Four Way Test: Kathy Schatz
 Chair of the Day: Tracey Gomes
 Speakers: Ethics Faire Winners
 Program: Their Winning Entries

President Jim Mills brought the meeting to order with a reminder to contribute to our Rotary Foundation. Margaret Collins led the invocation with a request for prayers PP Charles Delphenis who recently underwent eye surgery. Gerry Montgomery led the Pledge and the singing of our National Anthem, followed by a rousing rendition of "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" in a nod to the upcoming Valentine's Day.

Will Reppeto recognized our guests, with a special nod to visiting Hillcrest High staff members and parents who were on hand to enjoy the program that day. Kendra Yanchak recognized our Hub advertisers, Bill Kelly and Kathleen's Sky Diner.

President Jim then took the microphone to thank all of the new members who attended the recent new member's party, and urged everyone to get to know these new members. He then called on Mark Kashar to give a reminder about the upcoming PCR Connect, coming up on Thursday, February 16, at Peggy Sue Barbecue in Snider Plaza. President Jim asked all board members to remain for a meeting following the lunch, and reminded our Rotary Foundation members that there would be a meeting on Valentine's Day.

The microphone was handed over to Tracy Gomes who introduced our program, the winners of the HHS Interact Club's Ethics Faire. Before doing so Tracy gave special recognition to Bill Kelly for coming up with the idea of the Ethics Fair and making it happen, as well as thanks to HHS counselor Ann McNutt for her help, and to judges Sandy

Thank you to Kirby Warnock for these Meeting Notes!

Forster, Jim Osborne and Christian Cavazos.

Ann McNutt and HHS Senior Class President Christian Cavazos spoke about the Interact Club and its impact upon HHS. Ms. McNutt said that since starting with DISD in 1976, the Interact Club was the best thing that has happened during her tenure. Christian said that he was honored to be a judge for the Ethics Faire, and while everyone who entered did a good job, we were going to see and hear from the three best. He went on to say that the theme for the Ethics Fair was Trust, Friendship, Equality and Honesty.

Jackson Stein, one of the three winners, said that he chose Truth for his theme and Mark Twain for his quote: "If you tell the truth, you don't have to remember anything." He drew a portrait of Mark Twain for his entry. Stein is a junior at HHS who is on the cross country team and plays ultimate Frisbee.

The second winner, Justic is a junior class officer and on the student council. She chose Friendship and drew a picture of a U.S. soldier holding a child. The text with the drawing told about what children go through when their country is engulfed by war.

Jordan Johnson is a senior at HHS. He likes poetry and wrote a poem which he recited to the club.

Tracy Gomes ended the program by saying that as much as RCPC and Rotary do to wipe out polio, he believes we need to establish our values with the young people of today

The students commented that the Ethics Fair gives a good opportunity to promote good ethics, but more is needed. They went on to say that the majority of students at Hillcrest practice good ethics. Tracy Gomes took the time to thank everyone who has been helping him at the Interact Club, particularly Ley Waggoner and Linda Tunnell. Ann McNutt gave a big thanks to Tracy for all of his work.

The meeting ended with President Jim urging RCPC members to get out of their comfort zone and volunteer more.

THOUGHTS ON . . .

In the words of Hippocrates

Walking is man's best medicine.

Healing is a matter of time, but it is sometimes also a matter of opportunity.

A wise man should consider that health is the greatest of human blessings, and learn how by his own thought to derive benefit from his illnesses.

To do nothing is sometimes a good remedy.

Prayer indeed is good, but while calling on the gods a man should himself lend a hand.

There are in fact two things, science and opinion; the former begets knowledge, the latter ignorance.

FAMILY of ROTARY

Winners of the 2012 Hillcrest H.S. Ethics Faire by Tracy Gomes

The Park Cities Rotary Club hosted the winners of the 2nd annual Hillcrest Ethics Faire at its regular meeting Fri., Feb. 10.

The 1st place winners were Justic Calero (visual arts), Jordan Johnson (creative writing) and Jackson Stein (painting). The contest asks students to express their understand and experience with ethical values of: Truth, Friendship, Equality or Honesty. While the club was certainly impressed with the artistic talents of these young individuals, it was more impressed with their poise and perception of how ethical values have touched their lives; and in turn how they apparently are touching the lives of others.

Rotary is a strong believer in living ethical values, and the Ethics Faire is another example of how we can continue to encourage these same values with those in our communities.

THEY PROFIT MOST WHO LAUGH BEST

Why Men are Happier than Women

- They can open their own jars.
- If someone forgets to invite them, he or she can still be your friend.
- Their underwear is $8.95 for a three-pack.
- Three pairs of shoes are more than enough.
- They are unable to see wrinkles in their clothes.
- Everything on their faces stays its original color.

- The same hairstyle lasts for years, maybe decades.
- One wallet and one pair of shoes - - one color for all seasons.
- They can "do" their nails with a pocket knife.
- They can do the Christmas shopping for 25 relatives on Dec 24th in 30 minutes.
