Other Books

- American Government: Political Development and Institutional Change, 6th Ed., 2009
- Perspectives on American Government (Editor), 2009
- American Government, 2011 Texas Ed, by Jillson et al.
(Published annually at the start of each year this text provides currency and is the first student-centered American government text.)

Cal Jillson received his Ph.D. in Government and Politics from the University of Maryland, College Park, in 1979. He taught at Louisiana State University (1980-87) and the University of Colorado (1987-95). Professor Jillson chaired the Department of Political Science at the University of Colorado, Boulder, from 1989 to 1993, before joining the faculty of Southern Methodist University in July 1995, where he served as Chair in the Department of Political Science and Director of the John G. Tower Center for Political Studies from 1995 to 2001.

He is a frequent commentator on domestic and international politics. In 2004 he published a book entitled Pursuing the American Dream and in 2007 he published a book entitled Texas Politics: Governing the Lone Star State. His current project, entitled Lone Star Tarnished, is an analysis of the shortcomings of Texas public policy.

COMMITTEE TIME

Ronald McDonald House

by Fred Speno

On January 14th, about seventy-five patients, parents and siblings were guests at Ronald McDonald House in Dallas when about 20 Park Cities Rotarians and family members served dinner.

The entree was provided by Maggiano's and our Rotarians provided the remainder of the meal. There were several newer members who participated for the first time at the encouragement of Jina McDaniel.

Like N.V. Champagne, each year, Rotary International District 5810's Gala builds upon the success of the previous years. Our commitment for 2014 is to carry on these successes through our theme, REVEALED. This Gala season, Humanity in Motion will be visually REVEALED and illustrated showing the heart of Rotarians doing good in the world both locally in North Central Texas, and globally. We're expecting over 600 attendees. For more information and to buy tickets, see <http://portal.clubrunner.ca/50023>

LAST WEEK

Presiding: Cleve Clinton
 Invocation: Mary Bishop
 Pledge: Cindy Cummings
 Introductions: Kendra Yanchak
 Photographer: Phillip Bankhead
 Chair of the Day: Eric Heitkamp
 Speaker: Texas Rangers
 Program: 2014 Forecast

President Elect Cleve Clinton called the meeting to order. Mary Bishop gave the invocation. Cindy Cummings led the Pledge of Allegiance and "The Star Spangled Banner." Kendra Yanchak, assisted by Nolan Duck with the mike, introduced our visiting Rotarians and guests, including many guests visiting to hear about the Rangers.

Shawn Foster announced The Hub and web advertisers of the week. Susan Rogers reported on the RCPC Foundation and named those who had contributed in December. She then introduced Andy Carrothers, who said that RCPC would be funding two boys and two girls to attend Camp RYLA. He asked for nominations and that the students could be from any high school. The students are usually Juniors, going into their Senior year. Andy also asked for volunteers to help interview the students who are nominated. President Cleve awarded a Blue Badge to Tania Boughton to replace her newby red one. Tania asked everyone to take out their smart phones and put on Facebook that they were art Rotary, Pam Carvey announced that Dentistry with a Heart would be on February 14, and that dental services would be given to about seventy-five to one hundred people who could not otherwise afford them. Please volunteer. Paul Pirok announced that there were only twenty-eight weeks until the Fourth of July Parade. It was time to start making plans. There are many opportunities to volunteer in preparing for the Parade, and more details would be coming soon.

President Elect Eric Heitkamp introduced today's speakers from the Texas Rangers, announcer Steve Busby, Senior Director of Minor League Operations Mike Daly, and #9 Infielder Adam Rosales. Steve Busby started by saying that in three weeks pitchers and catchers would report to camp. The Rangers are deep in the minor league system, and they are beginning to see this pay off. He introduced Mike Daly, who talked about scouting in the Caribbean and Latin American countries. The Rangers have five of the top one hundred prospects list. The Frisco Roughriders is the 2A team for the Rangers, so you can watch them play, too. Adam Rosales was asked about his ability to play multiple positions; he said he simplified, and just tried to catch the ball and throw the ball. A common thread on winning ball clubs is that the team comes to the game with energy and cooperation and who don't give up. Mike Daly said that a lot of work goes into scouting and signing players. It is not just about talent, but also about their character and willingness to work. Adam Rosales was asked when he first realized he had talent; he said that he always wanted to play Major League Baseball, but he really started being successful in high school. They said that there are a lot of really good players coming back and several new players will be added and some young players will be coming up from the minors. There are two ways to be signed; one is to go through the draft, but internationally it is a free agent market. Anyone can be signed once they are sixteen years old

THOUGHTS ON ...

Elections

Elections are won by men and women chiefly because most people vote against somebody rather than for somebody.

~ Franklin P. Adams

That's the trouble with a politician's life-somebody is always interrupting it with an election.

~ Will Rogers

A politician thinks of the next election; a statesman of the next generation.

~ James Clarke

I know nothing grander, better exercise, better digestion, more positive proof of the past, the triumphant result of faith in human kind, than a well-contested American national election.

~ Walt Whitman
