Serving to Make a Difference Since 1948

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Program Chair of the Day: Caren McGratty

David E. Krause President and CEO, Parkland Foundation

A Dallas native and graduate of Hillcrest High School, David earned his Master of Divinity from the Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago and his Doctor of Divinity from Christ Seminary in St. Louis. He began his fundraising career in the seminary's development office.

As Vice President of the Baylor Health Care System, he initiated fundraising in all of Baylor's hospitals and closed several million dollar gifts. He served as Chief Operating Officer of the Baylor Foundation.

Serving Children's Medical Center as Senior Vice President, David conducted the $150 million wePromise expansion, a campaign ten times larger than any previous effort. He exceeded its goal by $10 million. David also oversaw the successful $15 million campaign for Children's new hospital in Plano.

Since 2005, the Parkland Foundation has been fortunate to have him serve as CEO. David has re-focused the foundation from government grants to private philanthropy. He recruited new volunteer structures to support the $150 million I Stand for Parkland capital campaign to build the largest, most innovative public hospital in the United States.

In 2008, David secured the two largest private charitable gifts ever made to a public hospital in the United States. A $50 challenge gift from the Harold Simmons Foundation and a $25 million gift from the Trevor-Rees Jones Foundation put I Stand for Parkland on the path to imminent success. The campaign's total stands at just over $107 million with $43 million remaining to be raised by its conclusion in 2014.

LAST WEEK (June 22)

Presiding: Jim Mills
Invocation: Nolan Duck
Song Leader: Rick Amsberry
Introductions: Nolan Duck
Photographer: Kirby Warnock
4 Way Test: DG Aide George Elking
Chair of the Day: Dwight Clasby
Speaker: Amb. James C. Oberwetter
Program: The Middle East: It Can Get Worse, Unless ...

President Jim Mills called his last regular meeting to order. Our guests included (then) DG Bud McBrayer and his wife, DG Aide George Elking and his wife, former member Mario Messina, a Rotarian visiting from Tokyo, and a guest originally from Zimbabwe. PP Rick Amsberry announced that RCPC was a winner of the new RI award, the Change Maker Award, which recognizes outstanding impact made in the club's community, in the country, internationally, or vocationally. He presented the Award to President Jim. RCPC is one of only two clubs in District 5810 who were given the Award. PP Rick also received his Year Book, traditionally given to past-presidents.

DG Bud McBrayer awarded President Jim the Presidential Citation from RI.

New* Linda Tunnell
New Member Award
Mary McMahon

He then announced that RC PC had won the Club of the Year Award for the third year in a row!! DG Bud also mentioned the Billboard and PSA Campaign the District was spearheading to increase Rotary awareness.

Dwight Clasby introduced our speaker, James Oberwetter, president and CEO of the Dallas Regional Chamber and former ambassador to Saudi Arabia. He said that the Dallas area is very attractive to corporations and that the Chamber is working to bring more businesses here. They also are interested in improving the Dallas ISD. He then moved on to talk about the Middle East. He said that he is optimistic, even though there is a long way to go before a settled situation can be achieved. There is rivalry between different branches of Islam. They believe in a very pure way of life, and that the rules were written by Allah. The history of conflict with the West dates from the Dark Ages. Islam is a very circular belief system, democracy is a different concept in the Middle East than it is in the West.
