TODAY'S PROGRAM

Program Chair of the Day: Bob Dill

Arthur P. Bollon, PhD Artificial Blood and Personalized Medicine

Art Bollon, PhD, has more than thirty years of experience in biotechnology as a scientist, company executive, and entrepreneur. He is the Co-founder, Chairman and CEO of Vitruvian BioMedical, Inc. While the initial focus of the company was Alzheimer Disease, their research interests include bridging traditional and molecular diagnostics and treatment.

Art is the co-founder of HemoBioTech, Inc. which focuses on a red blood substitute derived from modified bovine hemoglobin, which is advancing toward clinical trials in the U.S. Although no longer the President and CEO of HemoBioTech, he remains a Director and Consultant to the company.

He co-founded SignPath Pharmaceuticals in 2006, and remains a Director. The company focuses on Curcumin, a plant derivative for the treatment of cancer and neuro-degenerative diseases, and is planning clinical trials in oncology for late 2010 or early 2011.

He co-founded Cytoclonal Pharmaceuticals in 1992 and was Chairman and CEO until 2001. The company acquired drug design technology based on the Nobel Prize winning work of Dr. John Pople, who served as a scientific advisor. The company focused on cancer diagnostic technology using DNA probes and Monoclonal Antibodies. Cytoclonal was in a business agreement with Bristol Meyers Squibb for the cancer-fighting drug, Taxol.

Prior to 1992 Art founded and was Chairman and CEO of Wadley Biosciences /LPL, which was in partnership with Phillips Petroleum and Wadley Cancer Center. The company focused on Cytokine technology for cancer treatment.

From 1979 through 1987 Art served as Chairman of the department of Molecular Genetics and Director of Genetic Engineering at the Wadley Cancer Center.

From 1972 through 1979 he was an Assistant Professor at UT Health Science Center at Dallas, and from 1983 through 1989 was an Adjunct Professor at the University of Texas at Dallas.

Art received his PhD in Molecular Genetics from Rutgers University and was a post-doctoral fellow at Yale University.

He is also interested in art, music and the martial arts. He is on the Board of Directors of TITAS, a Dallas arts group presenting global music and dance companies

COMMITTEE TIME

Looks like doing good can be contagious! by Tracy Gomes

After launching its Caught Doing Good program in the Fall semester recognizing four students, Hillcrest HS found even more kids doing good this Spring semester. Hillcrest and Park Cities Rotary recognized ten students this past Tues., May 17 with a pizza and cupcake party.

The students were recognized for a variety of good acts, from breaking up a fight, to cleaning up a spill in the hallway to cleaning out the school fountain. Nobody asked the kids to do these things, to them they were just doing what needed to be done.

Let's hope their actions cause others to think about what they can do to make their school, their world a better place.

Sign up for 2011-12 Committees online!

It's time to register for the annual Awards & Installation Dinner. Look under Club Events on the right side of the RCPC Home Page. If you want NY Strip Steak w/ Cabernet Sauvignon sauce click on Awards Dinner - NY Strip Steak.

LAST WEEK

Presiding: Rick Amsberry
 Invocation: Margaret Collins
 Pledge/Song Leader: Karl Von Bieberstein

Introductions: Ley Waggoner
 Photographer: Kirby Warnock
 Chair of the Day: Rod Pirtle
 Speaker: The Rotary Chorus
 Program: Service Through Song

President Rick Amsberry called the meeting to order. Margaret Collins gave the invocation, but did not mention any members who were ill or in the hospital. Karl von Bieberstein led the Pledge of Allegiance, but left the Star Spangled Banner to be sung by the Rotary Chorus. Ley Waggoner introduced our visitors and guests. Dax Seale recognized The Hub and the web advertisers of the week. Bill Clark reported on the donations to the RCPC Foundation. Jim Mills and Mike Jarrell awarded a grant from the RCPC Foundation to Jackie Carl, the Executive Director of Exodus Ministries. This organization assists women who are re-entering society after incarceration. They reunite the women with their children and provide a place for them to live and assistance in becoming productive citizens. They also take donations of furniture and household items. Both Mike Jarrell and E.G. McMillan are on the Board of Exodus Ministries. Fred Brown reminded everyone to sign up for Committees for 2011-2012. Sign up for several! Paul Pirok reminded us that the Fourth of July Parade is only forty-five days away. Sign up to help out before, during, or after the parade. There will be a RCPC picnic immediately following the parade, so plan to stay. Margaret Collins announced the Installation and Awards Banquet on June 24, and asked that we dress up for the event. Dwight Clasby announced the Blood Drive on Saturday, May 28.

Rod Pirtle introduced today's program, The Rotary Chorus. The Chorus is directed by Larry McCain and are accompanied on the piano by Hyung Gu Kim. They started with "The Star Spangled Banner." They continued with a energetic version of "Step to the Rear." Next was "Out on the Mira," a song about the Mira River of Nova Scotia. The Chorus then sang the Rotary song, "Vive Le Rotary," followed by "The Quest for Peace," composed by Bill Sanner, a member of the Rotary Chorus. They then changed pace to sing the jazz standard, "Don't Get Around Much Any More" and a sea shanty, "I'm Bound Away." Jim Echols, accompanied on the piano by his wife Jane Echols, then sang "If I Were a Rich Man." The Chorus then closed their program with a "Salute to the Armed Forces," consisting of the songs of each of the branches of the military. By popular demand, they concluded with an encore of "You're Sixteen," but adjusted to "You're Sixty."

THOUGHTS ON...

Blood

Blood is thicker than water.

~ German Proverb

They say that blood is thicker than water. Maybe that's why we battle our own with more energy and gusto than we would ever expend on strangers.

~ David Assael

Family isn't about whose blood you have. It's about who you care about.

~ Trey Parker
and Matt Stone

Blood is inherited and virtue acquired.

~ Venezuelan Proverb

The bonds that links your true family is not one of blood, but of respect and joy in each others life. Rarely do members of one family grow up under the same roof.

~ Richard Bach

A STORY

A Story for Memorial Day

Several weeks ago in Atlanta, GA, in the airport, several people witnessed a great act of patriotism.

Moving through the terminal was a group of soldiers in their camos. As they began heading to their gate, everyone (well almost everyone) was abruptly to their feet with their hands waving and cheering these young unsung heroes who are putting their lives on the line everyday for us so we can go to school, work and home without fear or reprisal.

A young girl, not more than 6 or 7 years old, ran up to one of the male soldiers. He knelt down and said 'hi.' The little girl then asked him if he would give something to her daddy for her.

The young soldier, who didn't look any older than maybe 22 himself, said he would try and what did she want to give to her Daddy. Then suddenly the little girl grabbed the neck of this soldier, gave him the biggest hug she could muster and then kissed him on the cheek.

The mother of the little girl told the young soldier that her husband was a Marine and had been in Iraq for 11 months. As the mom was explaining how much her daughter missed her father, the young soldier began to tear up.

When this temporarily single mom was done explaining her situation, all of the soldiers huddled together for a brief second. Then one of the other servicemen pulled out a military-looking walkie-talkie. They started playing with the device and talking back and forth on it.

After about 10-15 seconds of this, the young soldier walked back over to Courtney, bent down and said this to her, 'I spoke to your daddy and he told me to give this to you.' He then hugged this little girl that he had just met and gave her a kiss on the cheek. He finished by saying 'your daddy told me to tell you that he loves you more than anything and he is coming home very soon.'

The mom at this point was crying and as the young soldier stood to his feet, he saluted Courtney and her mom. As the soldiers began to leave, heading towards their gate, people resumed their applause.
