

SMILE

THIS WEEK AT ROTARY . . . Monday, March 23, 2020

VOL. 91 NO. 34

A Message From Your Club President

Rotary Calendar

Rotary of Dayton Members:

What a difference a day can make!! The reactive and proactive policies made in response to the rapidly spreading COVID-19 virus, as well as the market and industry response, has us all reeling. Personally and professionally, I am sure that everybody's typical day has changed immensely. Please keep your health and safety, and the health and safety of those around you, first in mind.

The Rotary Club of Dayton's Board has voted to extend the cancellation of our weekly meetings until May 4. Of course, that is subject to change. District 6670 has cancelled activities as well, including RYLA camp, Rotary Leadership Institute training, and the District Conference in Wilmington. It is our intent to keep you posted of Rotary-related activities via the weekly SMILE. You will also have the opportunity to continue your Day-10 announcements and birthday bucks. Simply email either me (jean@vancongc.com) or Laura (laura@daytonrotary.com) and it will be included in the next SMILE. Your continued support of our Foundation and the good works that it supports is appreciated.

If any of our members has a special need or knows of a member who has a special need during these uncharted times, please notify me personally. We want to help.

Best wishes to all of you!

Jean Maychack, President

Rotary Book Club

The book club met this week last week and after discussing the book On Freedom and Revolt: A Comparative Investigation between Nobel Prize Winners Albert Camus and Martin Luther King.

Our discussion returned to the challenges our community faces, and we looked for resources that could continue to educate us about children who have grown up in homes without fathers. So our next book is: The Power of Showing Up: How Parental Presence Shapes Who Our Kids Become and How Their Brains Get Wired by Daniel J. Siegel & Tina Payne Bryson.

For information purposes, we discussed a book one of our members is reading called The Boy Crisis by Warren Farrell & John Gray. We may decide to read this book in the future.

Our next meeting is Tuesday, May 12, 2020, upstairs at Flyboys Deli, 2515 Far Hills Avenue, Oakwood, Ohio 45419, 937 723-6135, www.flyboysdeli.com, 6:00 - 8:00 PM.

Any questions please contact Susan Hayes at sm.hayes@me.com or 937-750-7400

Stuck at Home? Dayton Metro Library Offers Online Solutions

As schools and colleges cancel in-person classes, and businesses reduce hours or access in an effort to contain the spread of the COVID-19 virus, more people are likely to find themselves at home in the coming days and weeks. Dayton Metro Library has links to reliable resources, as well as updates on Library services, at DaytonMetroLibrary.org/covid-19 <<http://www.daytonmetrolibrary.org/covid-19>>.

Whether you're quarantined for Coronavirus, or home with the flu, Dayton Metro Library's website has resources you can easily access online, anytime. These FREE resources are accessible with a Dayton Metro Library card and PIN at DaytonMetroLibrary.org <<http://www.daytonmetrolibrary.org>>. Those who do not already have a DML card can get an eCard online <<http://www.daytonmetrolibrary.org/register>> and have instant access to these digital materials.

Have students at home?

Dayton Metro Library offers many homework help tools and resources for learning online, for young learners through secondary school and beyond. HelpNow <<http://daytonmetro.idm.oclc.org/login?url=http://main.dayton.oh.brainfuse.com>> from Brainfuse, features lessons in many subject areas, quizzes and practice tests, and live one-on-one tutoring from 2:00-11:00 p.m. weekdays. Tumble Books <http://www.tumblebooks.com/library/auto_login.asp?U=daytonlib&P=metro>, for grades K-6, features animated stories, chapter book read-alongs, games and more, designed to build reading, math and literacy skills in grades K-6.

Working from home?

Online tools for current events, business and finance can support those working from home. Access local, state and national newspapers, including same-day Dayton Daily News <<https://daytonmetro.idm.oclc.org/login?url=https://infoweb.newsbank.com/apps/news/browse-multi?p=NewsBank&t=favorite%3ADDNBODDN%21Dayton%20Daily%20News%20Collection>> and New York Times <https://www.nytimes.com/subscription/promotions/lp3FURL.html?campaignID=7R9YU&gift_code=75b6ba55b1a27f52>. Online tools for business and finance include Morningstar <<https://daytonmetro.idm.oclc.org/login?url=http://library.morningstar.com>> and Reference USA <<https://daytonmetro.idm.oclc.org/login?url=http://referenceusa.com/>>.

Those working from home may also want to explore free, web-based meeting options for small group collaboration. These are not Dayton Metro Library services; DML staff cannot facilitate their use or offer tech support. Please visit each site for information, options, and requirements.

Free Hosted Meeting Platforms:

- * GoToMeeting <https://free.gotomeeting.com/>
