- Ralph Holmes gave a report as below.

1) It is my pleasure to report on the Shed sale held on Saturday 30 October and the income for the month. Two scrap metal runs to Paramount Browns brought in a total of $455.20.

Sales during the month and on the day totaled $5,401 resulting in total income for the month of $5,856.20.

A huge thank you to Rotarians, Partners and volunteers who work extremely hard during the course of the month, particularly on Tuesdays, but also our pickup teams during the week to make our Shed sales such a success. We have had some success in marketing our goods online thanks to Val Hansen and David Richards, and if any Rotarians or Partners would like to get involved in the online marketing, I would be really grateful to hear from you.

I would like to really thank all who worked at the shed on Friday morning before the sale. It was great to see the results of your work when I got to the shed on Saturday morning.

I also extend our thanks and appreciation to Jeff and Jenny Neale and Paradise Mazda for the provision of the van and trailer which enables us to undertake the pickups and also deliveries on sale day.

2) We are looking at holding a sale on Saturday 13 November and advertising it as part of the Garage Sale Trail, an initiative that Ruth Graf brought to my attention. This fits with our desire to have an additional furniture sale in the hope of selling some of the excess stock that we are holding.

3) This coming Friday is the first of four Moonlight Markets to be held by the Campbelltown Council at Thorndon Park and we will again run a donut stall at the markets.

Thank you to everyone who has volunteered to assist, and I will circulate the roster during the week.

The market operates from 6 to 10pm and I would encourage all Rotarians who are able to have a look, proudly wear the Rotary Club shirt, buy some donuts and eat them as you walk around to market stall to encourage attendees to buy our donuts.

Thankyou

• Then Susan Harris broke out in song ...

What would you think if I sang out of tune?

Would you stand up and walk out on me?

Lend me your ears and I'll sing you a song

And I'll try not to sing out of key

Oh, I get by with a little help from my friends

Mm, I get high with a little help from my friends

Mm, gonna try with a little help from my friends

With a Little Help from My Friends

The Beatles

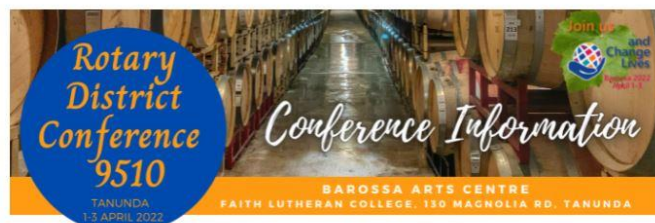

Produced by George Martin

Guest Speaker – Dr Campbell Baker.

- Chair Paul Eliseo introduced the guest speaker Dr Campbell Baker.

“Originally from Victoria, but since 1980 he has been a resident of the Barossa Valley.

He is a Veterinarian, who graduated from the University of Melbourne Veterinary School in 1968.

He worked in various mixed veterinary practices before settling into sole equine work in 1970.

In 1980 he was approached by Colin Hayes to come to Lindsay Park Angaston, where he provided Veterinary care and advice until its closure in 2014.

Currently he is an associate in EQUUS Veterinary services based in the Barossa Valley.

His principal professional interests are in the Thoroughbred horse industry, both racing and breeding.

He also has personal interests in racehorses plus running broodmares of his own.

So, with no further ado, I present Dr Campbell Baker.”

- Dr Campbell Baker then spoke about the real stars of the Melbourne Cup -The Horses.

He explained how the modern horse has evolved over the past 50 or so million years from a small multi-toed creature into the large single toed animal of today. He then gave a presentation and pictures to explain equine related concepts, such as their anatomy, locomotion, and veterinary care which can be quite challenging at times due to their nature and unique physiology.

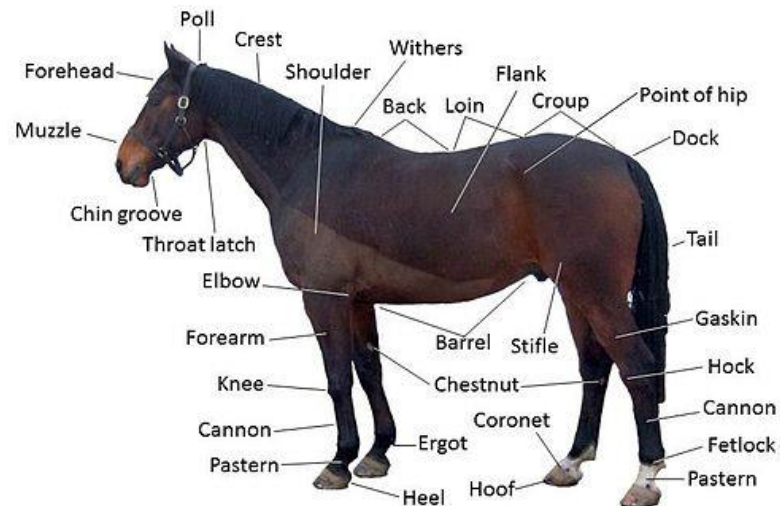

Horses are adapted to run, allowing them to quickly escape predators, possessing an excellent sense of balance and a strong fight-or-flight response.

Related to this need to flee from predators in the wild is an unusual trait: horses are able to sleep both standing up and lying down, with younger horses tending to sleep significantly more than adults.

The horse skeleton averages 205 bones. A significant difference between the horse skeleton and that of a human is the lack of a collarbone—the horse's forelimbs are attached to the spinal column by a powerful set of muscles, tendons, and ligaments that attach the shoulder blade to the torso. The horse's four legs and hooves are also unique structures. Their leg bones are proportioned differently from those of a human. For example, the body part that is called a horse's "knee" is actually made up of the carpal bones that correspond to the human wrist. Similarly, the hock contains bones equivalent to those in the human ankle and heel. The lower leg bones of a horse correspond to the bones of the human hand or foot, and the fetlock (incorrectly called the "ankle") is actually the proximal sesamoid bones between the cannon bones (a single equivalent to the human metacarpal or metatarsal bones) and the proximal phalanges, located where one finds the "knuckles" of a human. A horse also has no muscles in its legs below the knees and hocks, only skin, hair, bone, tendons, ligaments, cartilage, and the assorted specialized tissues that make up the hoof.

The critical importance of the feet and legs is summed up by the traditional adage, "no foot, no horse".

The horse hoof begins with the distal phalanges, the equivalent of the human fingertip or tip of the toe, surrounded by cartilage and other specialized, blood-rich soft tissues such as the laminae. The exterior hoof wall and horn of the sole is made of keratin, the same material as a human fingernail. The end result is that a horse, weighing on average 500 kilograms (1,100 lb), travels on the same bones as would a human on tiptoe. For the protection of the hoof under certain conditions, some horses have horseshoes placed on their feet by a professional farrier. The hoof continually grows, and in most domesticated horses needs to be trimmed (and horseshoes reset, if used) every five to eight weeks, though the hooves of horses in the wild wear down and regrow at a rate suitable for their terrain.

Dr Campbell Baker showed some interesting timelapse pictures of a horse's unique running action, describing the process, the demands on the heart, blood supply etc. and the stresses involved, especially on the animal's feet. At the conclusion of Dr Baker's most informative talk he answered many questions, followed by President Steph thanking him for showcasing the real stars of the Melbourne Cup -The Horses.

Some lovely Horse Quotes for you: -

- The horse. Here is nobility without conceit, friendship without envy, beauty without vanity. A willing servant, yet never a slave. Ronald Duncan.
- In riding a horse, we borrow freedom. Helen Thompson
- For one to fly, one needs only, to take the reins. Melissa James
- You can see what man made from a seat of an automobile, but the best way to see what God made is from the back of a horse. Rolfe Knofle
- No hour of life is wasted that is spent in the saddle. Winston Churchill
- There is no better place to mend a broken heart than on the back of a horse. Missy Lyons

And there racing at "The MELBOURNE CUP"

- Fellowship Director Denise Dinham said "it was lovely to see so many here tonight for the Cup, thanking her fellowship committee who have done a marvellous job organising the night. There will be 4 sweeps organised expertly by our three bookies Curly (Peter Allen), Larry (Dean Crook) & Mo (Stan McPhee), judging of the best dressed male & female by international la haute couture judges Karen Klopper & Gus Mc Grubben. This will be then followed by the Phantom Race Call of the Cup by our one and only Garth Holmes. "

○ Bookie Mo explained there will be sweeps and the winnings are: -

1st is $22 ,2nd is $16 & 3rd is $10

○ The fashion parade then followed with judging being a difficult decision which went to: -

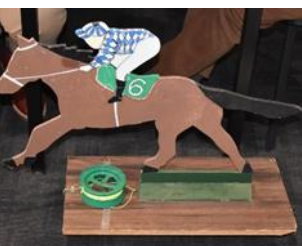

The best dressed female - Susan Harris and the best dressed male- Paul Trotta.

Picture above are the fashionista/ la haute couture judges Karen Klopper (Karen Robinson) & Gus Grubben (Gus DeAngelis) with best dressed winners Susan Harris and Paul Trotta, with Denise Dinham.

- It was then time for Garth's exciting Phantom race call which had everyone in stitches and some needing veterinary assistance to see the call out.

The horses names were clues to their jockeys names e.g., Drain Block, Yogi Bear, Reporter, Tricky Nikki, Orlando Wine, Barnical Bill... It was a tight race with the lead changing many times with some upsets including a flash of red, was it a sun flash spooking the horses? No, it was Aaron, with his bright red hair further unsettling the horses by rattling his Salvation Army collection can..., other unsettling & panicky moments were the horse That's My Seat running the wrong way and jumping the fences heading off into the sunset ,scattering horses everywheremeanwhile the race contd with BBQ Boy, leading from Tricky Nikki, Handbrake, See-the-Doctor and Chitty Bang Bang....the lead has changed again with Lawyer's Delight, by SpendaPenny & Wacka's world...Henny Penny on the outside. Then nose to nose...Then SpendaPenny (also known as Henny Penny) gets just in front by cms What a race... I am exhausted...the punters are happy; the horses are happy; you are all happy... So, the results are 1st SpendaPenny ridden by Benny Bosman, 2nd Lawyer's Delight by President Stephany and 3rd was Wacka's World ridden by David Richards. Well, done. Meanwhile a report has come in, That's My Seat was last seen at Ballarat heading towards Adelaide. Another six horses that were spooked have gone missing and are out there somewhere. Hand Grenade ridden by Peter Allen was the favourite, but he failed to complete the race and was found eating grass not far from the starting gate. The Jockey Peter Allen is now contemplating his future in the racing game. I would think so! Thank you very much ... (followed by thunderous applause)

A great enjoyable night was had by all.

The Sweeps went really well, everyone was having such a good time, of the 4 sweeps, only 1 winner remembered to collect? More about this next Monday. So, you may be a winner after all, it's not too late, otherwise you may miss out.

Now for the pics

Congratulations to the winning Jockeys who are a little saddle sore after their great performance: -

2nd President Steph -riding Lawyers' Delight
1st Benny Bosman -riding Spend a Penny
3rd David Richards -riding Wacka's World

- Some great feedback from our Rotary Information sessions .
This one is from Pat Reddy commenting on Peter Allen's recent talk on his Rotary year as President 1890-1891 Oops 1990-1991...
Peter's address brought back many memories of quite busy times. Rotary sure has had an amazing impact on the local community over the years, and also built many friendship. I'm sure that the skills learned by many of the members have been invaluable in their own lives. I know that Ian picked up on some hints from the Italian concrete workers in the club! Welfare officer's Report- (Please contact Peter Rumbelow on 0402 844 304 or peter@rumbelow.net)

Peter was an apology, so Bruce Barnes read out Peter's Report as below.

Lou Dimech has been in and out of hospital over the last three weeks. He has been having blood transfusions and diuretics for fluid on the lungs. They are monitoring a blood infection.

Tony Uren had a procedure last Tuesday to isolate and remove the cause of the infection in his jaw after the bone grafting and muscle re-organization that occurred last year. He was hospitalized for two nights and, much to his annoyance, has a tube through his nose in order to take liquid nourishment. No red wine, coffee or solid food allowed for up to two weeks.

Elise Dansie, a volunteer at our shed who has been a loyal source of assistance for four or five years, has been unwell with a dose of Pneumonia. She recovered sufficiently to work at last Saturday's shed sale.

John Bennett is having bouts of nausea and stomach pain that the Doctors are monitoring and treating with medication & rest.

For all those who are unwell, under treatment or convalescing and are mentioned in this column your Rotary family are sincerely thinking of you and your loved ones as your welfare and health are of concern to us all. May you get better soon.
