Community Connections Cafe

With a view to improving local health and wellbeing and to address loneliness in the Community, the Rotary Club of Campbelltown established the Community Connections Café with support from the Campbelltown City Council (SA) and Meals on Wheels. This is a drop-in centre that the locals would describe as being warm and welcoming to all and it only takes a coin donation to participate.

You can participate in the great activities provided including armchair yoga, easy to make cooking demonstrations, great coffee, and great company from a broad demographic.

Come in for Coffee and Biscuits at 10.30am and enjoy the activities on offer, or just sit and observe. You can stay for lunch before we conclude by 1pm.

The Rotary Club of Campbelltown can provide easy access to other support services. Chat to them about the ways in which they can help you identify and engage other service providers to help you achieve your goals.

- Michael McCabe had the following announcements related to the SHED

- A Certificate of Appreciation will be presented to Shirley Heath, who has assisted at the shed for over 25 years. Shirley has taken home jigsaw puzzles, completed them to ensure that all the pieces are there, and they are worthy of sale. Shirley has recently retired from this work, but we thank her for her service. (Pictured right: Shirley at the Shed, also check out this week's puzzle)

- Recently the Shed donated a large bag of children's clothes.

A former student of St Ignatius College, who previously worked at Wadey Community, in remote NT, has reported that the Community recently had some house fires and a number of families lost everything. She was appealing for children's clothes to be donated. The shed was able to donate a large bag's worth. Another example of the Shed providing Community Service.

- Jane Gascoigne presented a Pride of Workmanship Award to Luke Kounnas.

Luke Kounnas, we would like to thank you for your generous support, not only to our members but also this Rotary Club and our recent Rotary Conference.

Luke, you display outstanding qualities in terms of your approach, attitude, dedication and commitment to your job.

We are also aware of the huge support you provide to charities raising money for cancer research. These are too many to mention.

We are proud to present you with this Pride of Workmanship Award in recognition of your outstanding contribution, for your services to our local community.

Luke can be found at Bargain City Newton and Glynde.

- David Fenton announced that a former member of the Club and now in Roxby, Sandy Sumsion mentioned that her father is involved at the SA Orchid Fair next weekend at the Campbelltown Function

Centre from Sat 11th June 9-5 & Sunday 12th June 10-4 172 Montacute Rd. Entry by $7 donation ($5 for Campbelltown residents) FREE cup of Tea and Coffee each.

- Frank Augello has a message on behalf of Tony Lagozzino. Can anyone help out at a BBQ for this Sunday 12th June 6am-12pm at the Gepps Cross Market? Please contact Tony.
- Attendance Officer David Munro said attendance was 72.2% and apologies are coming in on time for those who can't make it to the meetings. It is good to see, so keep up the good work!

Congratulations to new Member : Mr Tony D'Ettore (Inducted 6th June 2022)

Enzo Piperone introduced Tony D'Ettore .

Tony is one of four brothers.

He married Rosita in 1995 & they have two beautiful daughters Monique & Claudia.

In 1987 Tony started his business, JAG Kitchens.

The business flourished, employed 65 people & went on to become SA's most awarded kitchen manufacturing company winning many State & National Building Awards.

Looking at properties for sale in the real estate sections of Premier Homes you often find one of the major selling points is they have a JAG Kitchen, which is such a testament to Tony's hard work & commitment for excellence.

Tony sold the business in 2020.

Having worked on projects with JAG Kitchens, in my opinion Tony was the main driver, a shrewd business person and an inspirational leader to his staff & colleagues in the building industry.

He is a great friend.

I give you Tony D.

After the Induction by President Stephany, Tony said it was an honour to be inducted into Rotary and this great Club . He also thanked Enzo who has been instrumental in persuading him to join .

"Thank you again and he is looking forward to meeting each and every one of you."

Guest Speakers -Paul Baker & Jimmy Day- Chefs on Wheels

Chair Damian Leach introduced Guest Speakers Paul Baker and Jimmy Day from Chefs on Wheels.

"But before I do that, I'd like to provide some context. COVID-19 has profoundly impacted the Australian economy since arriving in Australia in January 2020. Measures to reduce the spread (e.g., social distancing, commercial trading restrictions, and stay-at-home orders) have had varying impacts on economic activity.

The most noticeable impacts were driven by two COVID-19 variants: the L-strain of the virus, which arrived in Australia in January 2020, and the Delta strain, which was first detected in June 2021.

The arrival of the L-strain of COVID-19 triggered an Australia wide lockdown on 23 March 2020. The first significant round of restrictions included temporary closures of pubs, clubs, cafes and restaurants, with various other service providers following shortly after. Many workplaces advised their employees to work from home where possible. Household social distancing measures were put in place, with the most severe restrictions being that gatherings were restricted to two people. Restrictions began to ease across the country between late April and early May 2020.

A surge in COVID-19 cases in Victoria triggered the state to go into a second lockdown on 8 July 2020, with stage 4 stay-at-home restrictions introduced in August. There were shorter lockdowns enforced in Queensland, Western Australia and South Australia.

The emergence and subsequent rapid spread of the Delta strain in June 2021 triggered various lockdowns across all states and territories, with Victoria, the ACT and NSW enduring the most prolonged, strictest restrictions. Leaving home was only permitted for essential reasons, and mandatory mask-wearing was enforced. PCR testing ramped up, and national and state governments strongly encouraged Australians to get vaccinated. Targets for vaccination rates were set across states and territories with the incentive of easing restrictions and ending lockdowns when these targets were met.

I provide this information because many businesses shut their doors during this time. Unemployment was anticipated to go into the mid to high teens, and bankruptcies were forecast to skyrocket. Of course, governments of multiple levels put in place support for individuals and businesses, but there wasn't a great deal of entrepreneurialism provoked at this time. As an economy, we became risk averse. Chefs on Wheels is one local story of innovation and entrepreneurialism.

The two gentlemen we have with us tonight, Paul and Jimmy, have backgrounds in some of the best restaurants in Australia as chefs.

Paul was the Adelaide Advertiser "Chef of the Year" in 2015 and 2017 and was also awarded Chef of the Year by the Restaurant & Catering Association.

Jimmy grew up immersed in the Barossa Valley wine scene and opened a cellar door and small restaurant at this family's winery. After several vintages making wine, he returned to Adelaide to start Edible Exchange, a fine food distribution business.

I'll leave them to tell you more about the story of Chefs on Wheels. Please welcome them."

WHO WE ARE

Paul Baker

Jimmy Day

Annabelle Baker

Back at CoW HQ

Paul & Jimmy then gave a presentation on how it all started ; the devastating effect of Covid on their industry; the urgency to reinvent themselves and assist others struggling to survive under covid and shutdowns with no one knowing what to do ;how to keep their jobs & those of their staff and earn a living again ? Looking back , despite the hardships it has been worth it . It was something they had to Do, it was the Right Idea with the Right People and the Right

Time. How did it begin ? Well before Covid Paul had worked as a chef in many high-end restaurants and was when Covid hit working in the Botanic Restaurant. When you are a Chef, your life was tied to the restaurant , you can't commit to anything in your private life . He even missed the his first Father's day

LOCKDOWN LINEUP!

But then it was time for SA's restaurants to reopen as life was somewhat returning to 'normal' ...

What was next for Chefs on Wheels?

18 MONTHS LATER - THE STATS:

30,000 orders	100,000 dishes cooked	15,500 households
150,000 kilograms of food	24 hospitality staff kept employed through COVID-19	7 supported hospitality establishments during COVID-19

Chefs on Wheels 2.0

Buying prepared food from participating restaurants around SA

Customers supporting restaurants during unprecedented times

Thriving in lockdown

Second pivot into a ready-made meal business

Building loyalty as a brand not as a community based venture

Learning new skills as a direct to consumer ecommerce company

Here to stay!

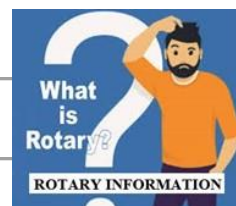

At the conclusion of the inspiring presentation there was time for questions.

Pictured right is Chair Damian Leach with Jimmy Day, Paul Baker and President Steph.

Those who braved the cold and the wet and went on the wine bus trip to Cadell last Sunday; Imagine the scene at the shed... there was a set of bathroom scales and Stan tested them out with Babu nearby. Stan weighed himself but always the same over 90Kg when he is normally 72kg. These are no good, until he looked behind him and saw Babu putting his foot on them...; Congratulations to Denise Dinham's granddaughter Aimee who represented SA and was runner-up Beadmaker in the Baking Assoc of Australia's annual Bake-Off held in Melbourne recently. Aimee was previously SA Apprentice Breadmaker in Oct 21 and won an excellence in Baking award in 2022; Jim fined himself after his wife Margaret came home after a busy day and he had done all the washing & ironing 😊 ...
