Attended Palos Verdes High School:

- Tried out for baseball team but didn't make it

Came to Sonoma County for another job and also graduate school at S.S.U.

Has a Masters in Human Resources Management

Is in the same profession as his father and mother and grandfather

Loves to backpack and ski. Use to play adult softball but has "bad knees"

WHO IS HE???

MYSTERY ROTARIAN

by Russ Lockner

This Californian has never left Sonoma County (high school, junior college, and SSU). He was extremely hirsute in high school—with mutton chop sideburns, which he didn't shave until college.

His daddy took him hunting at an early age and he still loves it dearly.

Met his wife at a church retreat when they were juniors in high school.

Took a job in his career the day after he graduated from SSU. He selected his profession 'cause he thought it would pay a lot more than being a forest ranger (he was right).

He still has that first job (but got one promotion several years ago).

His first love is the outdoors—he enjoys all sports and often takes the family to their 12,000 acre ranch in the coastal range for a little “pig huntin’” and “bass fishin’”.

Who is this paragon of stability?

ANNOUNCEMENTS continued

President Dan asked anyone who was unable to pay their fines from Russ Locker, to 'fess up. Response was not overwhelming.

RECOGNITION CORNER...

Bill Anderson—is back from medical rehab and a big trial in San Francisco, which got a $1.2 million judgment. Bill gave $100 to his PHF and $15 for his birthday.
