VOLUME 6

August 5, 1993

EDITORS: Steve Olsen/Dale Zumfelde FAX: 575-1610
PUBLISHER: Jeff Young

The following is excerpted from the Summer Issue of GOOD NEWS REPORTER, the newsletter of the Santa Rosa and Sonoma County Salvation Army.

"The Salvation Army Santa Rosa Corps is encouraged by the statistics of Christmas Past 1992 because they show what you achieved.

1. 5043 children had a happier Christmas because of the Salvation Army.
2. Food was supplied to 2045 families.
3. Our League of Mercy members made 1222 visits to the sick, disabled, and elderly."

Several members of our club helped last year by participating in the bell ringing activities of the Salvation Army. We all will have the opportunity again this Christmas season so please remember, when the time comes, some of the good that comes from these efforts. The Salvation Army always appreciates our volunteers and we are sure thousands of others who benefit do too.

Pursuant to the bylaws of the Santa Rosa Sunrise Rotary Club, the following individual has been proposed for membership in the classification of Investment Advisor: GREGG DOBBINS

Picnic !

Al Abramson and Carol Estes are organizing a fantastic picnic for the entire club for September 12, 1993.

Watch this space for all the details. For now, just mark your calendar, round up the family, do some stretching exercises, lose a pound or two if you have to so you will look great in a swimsuit and plan on being there. This is being organized as a family event and will be a great opportunity for all of us to get together for some healthy play.

RECOGNITION CORNER...

by Steve Olsen and Dale Zumfelde

Past President KENT SEEGMILLER had the honor of officiating in the absence of Present President NANCY AITA.

Frank Cercone is having a "Same Time Next Year" experience with his wife Jan at the Heritage House. An anniversary that is. Twelve dollars and twelve years. Congratulations Frank.

Dave Lorenzen had some underpaid help in the backyard to move the spa. I think it only cost him $5.00. (When you pay peanuts, you get monkeys.)

Vicki Lockner went vacationing to Montana and Mexico. Nobody bought the idea of paying off the fine with a joke instead of money. The cost was $10.00.

In what was reported to be only a cosmic confluence of non-concurrent, chance occurrences, Russ Lockner also went to Montana. In his case, to do some strange fishing, and stranger yet experimentation with parboiling of fisherpersons in the latest Montana style horse trough/spa. The answer to the question we are all asking about the sub-tub conflagration is "hotter than you want and it doesn't take too long."

Former member Marilyn Pratt and Peter Nieman visited from Arizona. Someone said something about Desert Ecstasy and $10.00 was paid. You figure it out.

Buster Finch is now acting like an Acting Operations Manager at Weightronics. Congratulations Buster and thanks for the $5.00.

(Editors's note: Quotes of "Fine me a lot" and "I love your grandmother" cannot be put in any context at all but seemed to be too good to go unreported.

John Dolinsek was in Oregon fishing and doing who knows what else. $5.00.

Art King established that he was definitely not in Mexico. However, going to New Mexico was close enough to qualify him for a fine, if it had been reported more contemporaneously. A free ride this time around.

Steve Owles paid $5.00 for recognition of his 5 year anniversary in the club.

Shauna Lorenzen received the coveted Birthday Gift with the added enhancement of a rose from Kent S's garden.

You are invited to play!

Just a Reminder:

Did you know there is a Minimum Attendance Requirement for Rotary?

Attendance must be 30% at home club meetings!

That translates to at least 8 meetings in a 26 week period (half year).

Attendance must be 60% overall (any Rotary club).

That translates to at least 16 meetings in a 26 week period.

Of course there are no maximums and the more we are there, the more everyone benefits. Last week's meeting provided four positive role models for the club with the recognition of members with perfect attendance records.

Kent Seegmiller - Seven Years

Dave Lorenzen - Seven Years

Randy Seelye - Five Years

Carol Estes - Five Years

Congratulations to all of you on the wonderful achievement and Thanks for the example.

Pursuant to the bylaws of the Santa Rosa Sunrise Rotary Club, the following individual has been proposed for membership in the classification of Human Resource Manager : TERRY CHENEY

Picnic !

Here are the details we have been promising. Al Abramson and Bruce Reyes are planning the club picnic and they want to see you all there with whatever it is that you call your family. The picnic will be catered so it couldn't be any easier. Just bring your own beer if you want it and come prepared for a good time.

Time: 12:00 Noon to 6:00 P.M.

Date: SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1993

Place: MORTON'S HOT SPRING, KENWOOD

Warm Springs Road - Maps available

Cost: $5.00/Person or $20.00 max./Family

Picnickers must pay by September 9, Thursday morning meeting.

Baseball !

September 23, 1993 - Talk to John Dolinsek for details

RECOGNITION CORNER...

by Steve Olsen and Dale Zumfelde

The best recognition was seeing Jack Eddinger back again after a jet ski accident. Couldn't very well fine him for coming back so Nancy didn't.

Birthdays to be celebrated: Bob Kingsley and Nancy Aita. The usual fines - usual payoff.

Nancy "HealthNet" Aita was apparently on the Channel 50 airwaves again, doing whatever HealthNetters do. The turnip is still red and the old adage remains true.

Dan Lambert underwhelmed us all with his non-plans for an August 12th anniversary. $10.00 was still the fine. Maybe he was under-reporting to minimize the damage.

Mike Sass picked up the $15.00 fine for the photo in the paper. Could have had help from Dan Davis, except it wasn't (they alleged) our Dan. Is it possible two people share the same name and the same rear elevation? (That's architect's lingo.)

A story to be continued: We only got the teaser this week, but we'll flesh out the details next week. Don't miss the meeting and you can hear it yourself. Anyway, it's about Bruce Reyes, Bruce's date, Bruce's dog, and a bag of bones. Space limitations prevent full reporting of rampant speculation and we hope the evidence will not reappear with Bruce on Thursday.

Thanks to Tom Eakin for standing in as Mystery Rotarian. We enjoyed the impromptu talk but we did miss Archie's "Ode to Eakin" in last week's bulletin. Be deprived no longer. (Nice work Archie!)

He loves to make stew into brew,

He makes wise wine,

And labels it with Einstein.

His love blossomed so,

He recently married a gal named Jo.

His company sucks fruit Oh so dry

To make their stock price fly so high.

He likes to ski, bike, and do taekwon-do,

And makes lots of dough.

With these clues

You should see who our next Mystery Rotarian will be.

All this empty space can only mean one thing! Either this reported dozed during the recognition portion of the meeting or President Nancy was a little off speed and not pitching with her best stuff after a one week layoff. Be there Thursday for the comeback.

 PUBLISHER: Jeff Young

To Kent Seegmiller and Family we send our sincere condolences on the passing of Kent's mother. Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time of sorrow.

Repetition can sometimes serve to reinforce those things we consider important so I'll take this space to restate some of the Goals and Objectives adopted by President Nancy for this Rotary Year:

- *MAXIMIZE PROFITS FROM SCANDIA NIGHT/GOLF
- *INTERACT CLUB
- *5 NEW PAUL HARRIS FELLOWS
- *INCREASE MEMBERSHIP BY 5%
- *INCREASE SPOUSE/SIGNIFICANT OTHER PARTICIPATION
- *$100 PER PERSON FOUNDATION CONTRIBUTION

I'll list the rest next week - - bet you can hardly wait!!

Pursuant to the bylaws of the Santa Rosa Sunrise Rotary Club, the following individual has been proposed for membership in the classification of Human Resource Manager : TERRY CHENEY

Picnic !

Here are the details we have been promising. Al Abramson and Bruce Reyes are planning the club picnic and they want to see you all there with whatever it is that you call your family. The picnic will be catered so it couldn't be any easier. Just bring your own beer if you want it and come prepared for a good time.

Time: 12:00 Noon to 6:00 P.M.
 Date: SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1993
 Place: MORTON'S HOT SPRING, KENWOOD
 Warm Springs Road - Maps available
 Cost: $5.00/Person or $20.00 max./Family

Picnickers must pay by September 9, Thursday morning meeting.

Baseball !

September 1, 1993 - Talk to Nancy Aita for details
 September 23, 1993 - Talk to John Dolinsek for details

RECOGNITION CORNER...

by Steve Olsen and Dale Zumfelde

As our first order of business, New Member Gregg Dobbin was welcomed to the club by his sponsor, Frank Cercone. Let's all make a point of introducing ourselves to Gregg. WELCOME ABOARD!!

Oops! Nancy made a protocol blooper, forgot to ask for "guests of Rotarians". After initially thinking there were none one or two were found and that cost Nancy $10.

Stan Walker managed to come to the conclusion that going to Tahoe was better than going to the Foundation meeting in Ukiah. How strange. That plus his recent trip with Phil to Weaverville brought him a bit closer to bleeding heart status.

Gary Doolittle has added considerable space to the old office, 4400 to be specific, upstairs, darkroom, shower. Leaving well enough alone Gary added $100 to Carolyn's Paul Harris.

Riki Intner was properly recognized for the fact that her son David is a Paul Harris fellow at age 21.

Carl Jacobsen has been travelling with the Navy again, this time to New England where Carl made up at the "Haddam", (izzat right?) Conneticut Rotary Club.

With activities too numerous to mention, new blazer, no tie, company merger, new offices, Jeff Young wisely elected to put $100 towards his Paul Harris.

For the weekly Steve Report: Steve Davis didn't get a new car, Steve Olsen didn't get the mailing labels done in time, and Steve Owles had some choice words for the Prez.

Carol Estes Hi Fived her loan approval, the new house will cost her more.

The raffle pot is still growing so you all come and take a crack at the black marble. Better chances than the lottery!!

MYSTERY ROTARIAN

At press time we have no information, mysterious or otherwise about a mystery rotarian; we're all mysteries at this point. Anyway, we'll take this space to remind everyone, if you have something you think should appear in the bulletin or would generally be of interest to the membership, please feel free to contact either Dale or Steve. Believe me, we can use the material.

Please Note:

The Meeting Time for Rohnert Park/Cotati Club is now 7:15 a.m. on Tuesdays. This is a change from previous meeting time of 12:15 p.m. Location remains the same - Red Lion Inn in Rohnert Park.

THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM:

Sal Rosano The chief of the Santa Rosa Police Department should give us some timely insight on the ever increasing violence.
