The Sonoma County Economic Development Board (EDB) provides assistance services directed toward encouraging the startup, retention and expansion of Sonoma County businesses and jobs, particularly with small businesses; creation of new jobs and employment opportunities; and diversification of economic activity aimed at strengthening the County's tax base. The EDB has two major functions:

In addition, the Economic Development Director performs numerous activities on behalf of the Board of Supervisors ranging from coordination to analysis of issues impacting Sonoma County.

Notes from August 4th Meeting

Our greeter this morning was the suave Ed Corrette. Guiding us on our Flag sale Jennifer Hembd and our inspiration was provided by Tim Miller.

Hugh Helm asked to read a thank you letter from the Senior Picnic we put together last month thanking us for our participation. This is one of those occasions where you get instant gratification and I am sure this is why Hugh continues to put this together every year. Thank you Hugh.

DG Charlie Kelly from Ukiah will be visiting our club on September 8th. The event before there will be a Fireside at the home of Steve Herron. Two very important things first, it is always great to hear what the new DG is up to. Second, the wine at Steve Herron's rates a 95 on any wine list.

October 15th - Sunrise Culinary Classic

Nov. 3rd - Veterans Memorial Luncheon

We were quite the boisterous group this morning. Not sure what w energy was electrifying. It was a great meeting (in my opinion).

Bruce Campbell, past DG (District Governor) was a guest, and he c Past President Steve Worthen, the awards that our club won at the (did I get that right Del?). As Bruce said, he came with a bundle of which did a stellar job last year (thank you PP Steve Worthen).

The District Awards had a new format; there were Gold, Silver and given out to the clubs for various honors. All in all, we had 8 (eigh SIX) were GOLD!!!! We had 1 silver and 1 bronze. Boy, are we got

The awards were in the following categories:

Gold - International Service; Community Service; Youth Service; i

Website and Centennial Project. We have several members of our thanks. So, from all of us to all of you THANK YOU.

Silver - Club Service

Bronze Vocational Service (kudos to our vocational chair – first av

But the biggest prize, in my opinion, is that we won LARGE CLUB is especially gratifying, since the club, with whom we were compet Sebastopol . Sebastopol has won this award many years in a row. firstyear being classified as a Large Club, and we won LARGE CL THANK YOU PP Steve Worthen and sorry Kent Seegmiller.

HALL OF FAME: You're wondering what this is? There was a speci to a Rotarian from District 5130 (our district) at the district confer the actual award with him, and it was presented to.....come c you guessed it, our very own DEL RABY!!! The club was so proud c a standing ovation. Being Del , he didn't want the attention. Oh we Stones say, "You can't always get what you want....." Delbert, COI from all of us to you. You are truly an exemplary Rotarian, and we Santa Rosa Sunrise your home.

Rotaract: Okay, second call. We helped sponsor the Rotaract Clu they still need our support. The club meets the first and third Tu @ Mary's Pizza on Marlow and Guerneville (a little more info t Please help us support them by attending their two October meetin young people for their club. The Rotaract Club takes kids between professionals who are interested in "Service Above Self". If you kn they'd like to join Rotaract, and then help them by bringing them t you. Thanks, you'll feel good for it.

Steele Lane Gardening Project: Too late – it will be tomorrow, ! th. Unfortunately, you won't receive this bulletin until after it's ove at the club and if you wanted to go you got the information. If not sad.

GSE: Luckily you still have time to get involved with this. The GSE Exchange) will be going to Argentina this year. They are still in ner and non Rotarian professionals, between the ages of 25 – 40, to g learn about how their profession operates in Argentina . They need fairly quickly, so if you know of someone in either category, let Steve know as soon as possible.

Culinary Classic: - We're getting closer to the date as I write. Can't remember the name of the Rotarian, read an article in the PD about picnics and families, and I like the one in the article. (You know we have a picnic basket for the picnic. Unfortunately she didn't have blackberries and didn't ask Nancy Anderson. Nancy found all the blackberries she needed. Oh well. So, being as clever as she is, she made a peach pie, and Steve Amend auctioned it off. I think that Jim Healy bought it because someone jacked up the price. What a pie, $35????

Steve then asked the congregation who was intending to buy a tablecloth. If my count was right there were 11 of us who are planning to invite the guests to fill it (darn, I didn't realize that was part of the great response from our club.

We need your auction items, and Susan Glowacki practically begged for the donation form. Without it, the person giving the gift may not get credit and may not be auctioned properly if we don't have all the information. Please write up the auction booklet to describe the items available. List the auction items in (on the proper form). Thank you.

Vietnam : Steve Amend (yes again), talked to us about the Vietnam project. It went up nicely, and it appears that we will be leaving on January 12th, the 20th or so. We will be doing 2 (Two) projects while over there. Hopefully, as usual, handling the eyeglass project. Dr. Shipley has agreed to help in this effort. Thanks Les.

Additionally, we will be doing a dental clinic at an orphanage (or tent) under the capable leadership of Ezbon Jen. Kelly Waggener and her husband, two dentists, have volunteered to go and work with Ezbon and the students. It should be going along (I think some students are going). In any event, it's a great project for Vietnam. Thank you Ezbon and Kelly.

Craft Talk: - Whoops - no time. Sorry Dicksie, but we'll look forward to next week. However, she was offering 6 free lunch tickets to celebrate the 100th "Y". Del thought that should have been a high 5, but President Steve said (remember our coffers need dough - can't let too many get away)

Recognition: - Ross and Stacy Andress are celebrating 32 years; Jones - 29 years; Penny Millar and Paul O'Rear (yes they're married) are celebrating the BIG ONE!!! Congratulations to all the lovely couples - we know you'll get there as well (to the long # of years of marriage).

One last item of recognition was for Larry Martin, and using the club's "billboard" for advertising an apartment for a friend in SF that was not fined, but suggested that the reason he was called up was probably so Larry. Don't you love the Rotary Way ???

One final note before we get into the SRKSEP presentation. With the drawing called, you'll never guess who's number came up.....yup, Penny Miller was a first - she didn't pick the black marble. Oh well Penny, maybe next time (not) - moving on.

The Program

was the program for the morning. We had kids/chaperones and Fe Kagoshima as our guests this morning. Sitting at my table was one Lauren, who was absolutely delightful. She loved the meeting, LOA surprise, huh Dave Brown), and wants to go to Vietnam with the c SRKSEP was started almost 20 years ago. In that time, with the br Lambert and Fern, the exchange program was set up with the Roti Kagoshima, Japan. Dan then turned the reins over to Bob Scott, al now very ably handling this program. Fern gave us some history o of Kagoshima has a special connection to Santa Rosa . Since the p we have had 107 students from Kagoshima and 10 chaperones. W kids with 18 chaperones (I think the Japanese chaperones must be than once). She also told us that for the 4 th time, we have univer September 1 st. The Amends, as they often do, have offered their sayonara party (not sure if it's the coming or the going, but we'll fi

We heard first from both chaperones, both of whom are teachers a School . Ken Emery spoke first and talked about how much the trip his stay in Kagoshima with a family. In fact, almost everyone said his best parts of the trip. You get to really learn the culture through a as a tourist. Sonia Bedford, the other chaperone, told us that for s visit in Kagoshima was without a doubt, the best part. She said th departure, her host mother, who spoke no English, said through a understand the Japanese heart; - patience, endurance, compassio attention to the beauty of the moment". That's quite a heart. If yo hope you feel some sense of success of the trip.

Each kid came up and spoke about their experience on the trip. La at our table, was one of the kids who got really sick on the trip and hospital. Despite that, she still loved the trip and was so thankful t opportunity.

Two of the girls were dressed in traditional kimonos and got up an Japanese. While the boys weren't wearing kimonos, a couple of th greeted us in Japanese as well. A few of the kids said they will be and stay for a longer time. This was one of the most talkative grou kids had written notes, some spoke straight from memory, but the and seemingly not too shy to speak in front of a group. You know is the number one fear – more than dying!

The kids spoke about the fact that it's the 60 th anniversary of the despite our being dire enemies with Japan during that time, we ha feelings, and now we are great allies. They all felt very welcomed, experiences and all the new things they learned. Many of them ha and when they go back will go visit these kids and their families. V opportunity for them all.

What came across from each of the kids was that this was absolut experience. Some of them had said they really had no intention of when the opportunity came up they decided to go for it. Others ha long time, and jumped at the opportunity to go. And to a person, t happy that they did. Each of these kids had some experience that and they treasure them. It was one of the most uplifting meetings The kids said it was amazing that there was a group of adults, hav so early in the morning. As my friend Bob Marigo says, "You guys the night". It was truly exhilarating and certainly a confirmation fo is the wonder of Rotary, and Rotary International.

Another great meeting PP/AP Steve Herron! Unfortunately I missed the message, but I hope it was a good one.

INTERACT IS BACK!!!

On August 17th and 18th, the Elsie Allen High School Interact Club had their display for student orientation days. This was an opportunity for new students and present information about the club. All told, several applications were handed out and thirty-six new members were signed. Not a bad start! Maisie Nguyen and seven other club members, along with Jim McCracken had fun demonstrating the enthusiasm of Interact to the students paraded by. A few more new members could have probably been recruited but crazy Maisie's overly outrageous enthusiastic recruiting technique won them away. All in all, this was a memorable experience, enjoyed by all who participated... and enjoyed the pizza.

A reverse in order – inspirational thought came first from Lockner. She gave us a history of the flag, or more appropriate pledge (always the teacher). She talked about how “under comma, came into the pledge. Then our very own Del Ra her inspirational thought, telling us that when he was in 1 grade, in 1932 (was that in this century?) they used to salute (kind of saluting style). The club, as a whole, told Del , w do it. Del said that was okay, because they soon stopped salute, but Del still carries on – such a great guy, Del , a Scout!!!

The Program:

Our program today was the wine drinking, wine studying wine loving Bob Andrews of Jordan and Andrews Pension (yes, he has other interests – Italy , Italian food and win here to tell us about Social Security.

He started his program by telling us that he, too, belong: meets weekly; however, he said his group is so diametric our Rotary group; no women allowed; bad (language) jol to paraphrase, is "we don't help anyone do anything". Th speaker each week, but after the meeting - they're done work, no extra phone calls, no money spent on the down kids given an education; basically a group that doesn't give anyone else but themselves and their buddies in the group sounds like fun! I think there are a few of our members in the club as well.

Anyway, Bob started by telling us that Social Security drives. They always know where you are and what you're doing. He commented at the end of the talk that it took Social Security to relocate him, despite his having notified them on more than one occasion about his move to "heaven" aka Sonoma County. Oh we are one in every crowd.

Bob had our group divided into three sections; Hallelujah Down. He had us respond to certain parts of his speech, and a section of the audience he thought best fit the statement to say that it (Social Security) will continue to "screw" we apologized for using an Empire Breakfast Club term - "sc doesn't really know most of us Rotarians.

He said his taxes have gone up 247% since 1983. He told Walter E. Williams, Professor of Economics, George Mason University, quoted in Newsweek magazine, January 24, 1983, with "Social Security is a lie, a bad deal, and an economic roadblock. A mandatory private system would provide more for the elderly and stimulate growth in our flagging Gross National Product. If we continue the present system, a day will come when young people, paying wages in Social Security taxes to support some old people, will have other ideas about what to do with old people. That's an idea of mine as the years go by"

Bill Clinton may have had other things on his mind (??? - maybe?) The intimation that he might have done something else was too busy.

There are 79 million baby boomers. There used to be 42 retired persons for every 100. That number has gone down to three (3), or about 90%. I don't know about you, but that scares me.

The interesting thing is that Social Security is not funded by a promise by the government that they will pay you a certain amount at retirement. However, it's nothing but a bunch of IOU's, and it has been used to help the general fund of the country, for

Other countries have privatized their systems and have had success. Of course we all hear about the bad ones like England. However, Chile has had a private system for more than 20 years, and provides 3 x's the benefit of ours (yes, Chile). Australia is another example. They have instituted a mandatory investment in annuated funds. They have the most vigorous laws regarding costs are shown outright; nothing is hidden, so you know getting at all times (even if it's "screwed" – just kidding)

Bob had an interesting experience. He went to an event for Aging, and wasn't allowed to speak, since he was speaking for Security, and the council was pushing for the continuance of Zane, the Executive Director, then came to the now infar Club to speak about Social Security. She gave the folks a then called her, leaving a message as to why he was called called him back. Reminds me of my town meeting with Bob me about it).

He talked about the statistics that are thrown around; 46% income would fall below the poverty level. There are a lot of are asset rich but can show low income. The system is based entitlement. There are currently a million kids on Social Security for A.D.D. (are you kidding me???) Also, alcoholics and a automatically qualified to receive Social Security Disability (my mother drinking might be good for me).

Another big issue for Bob, and I think many of us, is the allowed to public employees, such as fire fighters and police signed into law a bill that would allow these folks to receive pay from age 50 forward (okay, so maybe police work would be better than drinking). We should all remember our last police retired soon after becoming 50, after a very short time he 90% of his very nice Santa Rosa salary. Public pensions are the California Constitution!!!

Bob feels we need to establish private accounts. He feels only get 4 – 5%, we'd be much better off by retirement time are a few of us, Randy Seelye included, who might disagree conclusion. However, the talk was very interesting and well

Bob brought a bottle of wine to give away, and because I the only one to raise his hand to answer Bob's question (answer it), he was given the bottle of wine. Knowing that wine connoisseur, I'm sure the wine was excellent.

It's been fun being the editor, but I'm done. Someone else because it's actually fun and you learn a bunch about the because you really have to pay attention. Thanks Dave for
