MYSTERY ROTARIAN

by Russ Lockner

- ❖ The caricature picture on his fraternity paddle was a barefoot organist in a tuxedo
- ❖ He was a music major in college, but couldn't sing
- ❖ His nose was always large but was "enhanced" after being broken three times playing water polo
- ❖ Spent a semester studying in Salzburg, Austria, where he majored in German, beer and skiing
- ❖ Has always liked working with his hands, but has also authored several articles and even spent six months writing poetry
- ❖ Saw the northern lights north of Fairbanks, Alaska and ate king crab in Ushuala, the southernmost city in the world at the tip of Tierra del Fuego
- ❖ He worked at his family's five-star resort and R.V. park on the shores of Big Bear Lake and now owns a no-star R.V. park in Sonoma County
- ❖ Spent a year with Mallard ducks in Minnesota and came to Sonoma County "sight unseen" 25 years ago
- ❖ Usually looks like he just stepped out of GQ (as in Grunge and Quick) but claims to own one suit

Who is this guy?????

MYSTERY ROTARIAN

by Russ Lockner

Thinking about our Mystery Rotarian evokes images of Miami Vice: sleek cars, flashy dressers, the urbane lifestyle—that's our guy! He was raised in Miami but roamed all over the eastern seaboard. He couldn't dance well enough to attend Miami U, so he signed up for the army instead. They promised him soft duty in a warm climate, which turned out to be 18 months in Viet Nam listening to the V.C. Charlie's radio signals.

After returning from S.E. Asia, they sent him to southern Sonoma County at Two Rock. This suited him just fine 'cause it looked just like home, complete with "hillbillies" and horses. Somehow he ended up back in Santa Rosa in an apartment house on Mendocino Avenue where he ventured out to attend SRJC. He met his wife at the swimmin' pool and invited her to dinner. He cooked the steaks and "she burned the potatoes", so he married her and taught her to cook.

We have no idea how he came to be employed or even what he does (neither does his boss). He must be successful 'cause he wears real shirts with monogrammed cuffs and has a secretary. We know he likes to travel, ride his bike and play with wood.

Who is he?????

RECOGNITION CORNER...

Mike Sass—for the one step in the approval for a sub-division for 49 lots at Oakmont—6 homes of which are to be affordable paid $10 for the small article Dan found.

Riki Intner 'won', so to speak, the privilege to co-host the Jim Grady Show and paid $10.

A High '5' Dale Zumfelde and Shirley took their raffle/win trip to Honolulu to enjoy the pro bowl. They turned it into a real vacation—Dale donated $100 to his PHF. Way to go!!

Dave and Shauna Lorenzen will celebrate their 16th anniversary (number confirmed by Leroy). $15 to be paid by Shauna next week.

Jo Gennuso didn't know who the Mystery Rotarian was and paid $5.

Steve Herron, Dan Lambert and Vicki Lockner each paid $5 because they didn't know who he was either.

Surprise— it was Russ Lockner!!!

REMINDER...

Richard Abazia is being considered for membership as an additional active under the classification of Mortgage-Loan.

DID YOU KNOW???

The first Rotary convention was in Chicago in 1910.

DID YOU KNOW???

The first Rotary Club outside of the United States was chartered in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, in 1910

Why classifications?

"The questions is often asked, 'Why do Rotary clubs limit membership to one person from each distinct business or profession?' Because our experiment has proved in operation that it makes for congenial fellowship, obviates business and professional jealousies, encourages mutual helpfulness, stimulates pride in the dignity of one's occupation, and broadens one's mind and sympathy with regard to the accomplishments and problems of other occupations. "—Paul Harris

Gary Bayless celebrated his birthday—$15

Art King celebrated Irene's birthday on Valentine's Day by cooking dinner—He paid $15 for an apron he can use.

Shauna Lorenzen paid $15 for her 16th anniversary.

Rick Franke happily celebrated his 10th anniversary and happily contributed $50.

WELCOME

Art King called upon Bob Kingsley and Leroy Carlenzoli to introduce and welcome our newest member, Rich Abazia. Since his classification is the same as Bob's, Bob sponsored him. He comes as an additional active under the classification of Mortgage—Loan.

Bob Jarvis didn't guess who the Mystery Rotarian was. Neither did Bruce Reyes. Both paid $5. Surprise— it was Archie Julian.

From Jo Gennuso—regarding the GSE Program—We're preparing to send our team and we will be hosting participants visiting here. We're looking for host families for 4 nights beginning April 26. They will attend our meeting on April 27. Their occupations are Opthamologist, Secretary, Newspaper/ Journalist, Oral Surgeon, Engineer (Construction Contractor).

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Nancy Mika announced that we need bulletin sponsors—Please give Nancy your business card. It's $90/month for sponsorship. There will be a $25 fine if she doesn't get volunteers and your card appears.

Stan reported on our work project. Ten members painted the ballroom at the Senior Center—a fun project from 12:00 to 5:00 when a party started.

RECOGNITION CORNER...

Bob Kingsley's 53rd birthday is better than the alternative. He will have a family celebration—$15.

Rick Franke's birthday—waiting to see what happens—$15 and he donated his apron back to the club.

Gary Doolittle needs any changes to be made to our directory. He also asked where Mary Russell has been.

Mary Russell has been traveling to Brentwood to include schools there in her school fund raiser. It's truly business and Mary paid $5.

Dan Davis vacationed for 9 days in Hawaii with his mother-in-law and all his wife's family—$30 for that pleasure

Albert Handelman had Stan Walker remodel his office—each paid $10.

Randy Seelye made a "business trip" to Florida and took his daughter to Disneyworld—he also went to Sacramento for a computer class—$15 less $5 for a club flag

MYSTERY ROTARIAN

by Russ Lockner

This gentleman "went to school abroad" which was probably the norm for the gentry of Connecticut. He had heard about San Francisco and how beautiful it was so thought he'd come have a look see. Unfortunately the stories he heard all took place in the Haight-Ashbury during the summer of love. (Come to think of it, he does look a little bit like a flower child).

He ended up having to work, so he marketed filters for the computer industry. His main customers were in the Silicon Valley and the peninsula, which was nice for business but not much for living. He was able to upgrade his $400,000 "cottage" for more appropriate digs in bucolic Santa Rosa.

After getting to "the country", our hard working computer man decided that consulting would better enable him to pursue his real passions of traveling, scuba diving and sailing. His preferred mode of travel is a BMW motorcycle (although he has owned most of the Japanese bikes as well). Rumor has it that he just finished ground school, so perhaps a Bonanza or Mooney is next?

Who is this well-traveled gent??

PLEASE NOTE...

Our Thursday, March 2 meeting has been moved to Fountaingrove Country Club.

The First meeting of our Interact Club will be held today at Elsie Allen High School at 12:30 pm

Steve Olsen announced you can be a runner/walker or sponsor one in the Human Race for C.A.R.E.

LOCATION CORRECTION**

THE THURSDAY, MARCH 2 MEETING

WILL BE HELD AT

FOUNTAIN GROVE INN AT EQUUS
101 Fountain Grove Parkway

(Not at Fountaingrove Country Club as stated in Bulletin)

Dan Davis overlooked the 90th birthday of Rotary International and donated $100 PHF for this oversight.

Dan auctioned a "dressy" picture of Leroy Carlenzoli—Leroy was the lucky winner at $21.

Del Raby feeling guilty, volunteered a fine of $15 for neglecting to acknowledge Rotary International's birthday.

Tom Eakin opened a passbook account for his son's education—$440 starts it.

Dan gave a Sunrise Rotary apron to our own Gary Horton.

High 5

Del Raby did a show & tell. He told us that he wove the shirt he was wearing, on his loom, and that Harriet made it! It's beautiful Del!

REMINDER...
