ANNOUNCEMENTS

FEBRUARY 17-20, 1995

The third annual Rotary ski trip will be to South Lake Tahoe President's holiday weekend. The early season snowpack is the deepest in a decade, so the skiing should be fantastic. (That compares to semi-fantastic conditions during the past two Rotary trips).

Reservations have been made at Pacifica Lodge, which is located midway between the Heavenly Valley ski lifts and the casinos.

Room rates range from $59 a night (with a AAA discount) for one or two beds to six-person chalets for $150. A one-night deposit must be mailed to Pacifica by January 15 to guarantee reservations. Check with Randy Seelye for details. He'll have brochures available at the next meeting.

Joe Gennuso introduced our sponsee member of the GSE team to Brazil in the spring, Ben Stone. The other members of the team are:

Teresa Ridenhour

Arthur Munoz

Kirstin Smith

We'll have a team here from Brazil after they leave.

RECOGNITION CORNER . . .

GARY DOOLITTE spent a long day at work and ordered a pizza to celebrate his birthday - He spent $15 for an apron - now he can cook!!

STEVE OWLES enjoyed an outstanding trip to Maui, good whale watching - $20 for the experience.

STEVE BECKWITH What's Northstar 11? A fun family trip skiing - Also lots of guests over the holidays (24 to 31 people and Steve cooked!). He gladly donated $10.

STAN WALKER sent a thank you to Bruce for his donation to his girls Nicki & Kelly's Paul Harris Fund. Stan paid $5 a "girl."

DAVE shared some quotes - something about trails and not taking women 'cause he feels responsible. Archie owned up that he contributed those quotes to an article on Gnarly Hikers. Then he played which door with Dave, who accepted Archie's traveler's check for $50.

JOE GENNUSO'S long ago quote from an article in Sonoma Business cost her $10.

MIKE SASS plans a building project for 53 detached single family homes, but numbers are changing. Mike paid $15 for the progress so far.

Our Mystery Rotarian, Mary Russell, was correctly guessed by Steve Young, who paid $5 for being correct.

ANNOUNCEMENTS continued

Jerry Johnson shared that our Bell Ringers raised $374!!!

FOUNDATION DINNER

Albert Handelman was the rafle winner and received a $150 savings bond.

From the editor...

Our newsletter will go to press on Thursday mornings immediately after the meeting, so any articles, information, announcements, etc. you want to have included in the newsletter can be submitted to me at the meeting.

Thanks in advance for your cooperation.

Did you know... that the first Rotary club meeting was in Chicago, Illinois on February 23, 1905?

February 17-20, 1995

The Third Annual Rotary ski trip at South Lake Tahoe. Reservations have been made at Pacifica Lodge, located midway between Heavenly Valley ski lifts and the casinos.

Room rates range from $59 (with a AAA discount) for one or two beds to six-person chalets at $150. A one-night deposit must be mailed to Pacifica by January 15 to guarantee reservations.

Check with Randy Seelye for details.

RECOGNITION CORNER...

John Dolinsek made an appeal for clothing, shoes and food for the Salvation Army/Red Cross, who are coordinating the relief efforts for the victims of the flood. These agencies are operating out of the old Yeager and Kirk building on Santa Rosa Avenue.

Steve Beckwith traded his red badge for blue - Gary Bayless presented it. Steve paid $20 for the privilege.

John Dolinsek celebrated his birthday with a day off and birthday dinner and gladly forked over $15.

Bob Scott celebrated his 35th anniversary. He and Kathy spent the day together and ended with a steak and lobster dinner and donated $15 for that pleasure.

Art King -- up early on January 2 -- had seats for Rose Bowl Parade and saw football game, but his team lost, so no fine. Way to go Art!

Rotary Celebrates 90 years

On February 23, 1905, a cold, wintry day in Chicago, Illinois, USA, the Rotary seed was planted. That was the day young lawyer Paul Harris met with three friends--Gustavus Loehr, Silvester Schiele and Hiram Shorey--with the idea of starting a club to foster small-town fellowship in the big city and to build a business network.

Nearly a century later; the Rotary movement, far broader in scope than its founders ever dreamed, thrives in thousands of cities across the globe.

On February 23, 1995, Rotary celebrates its 90th birthday. We are encouraged to observe this milestone with a special club activity or event--such as a window display in a downtown business or storefront--that will make our community aware of our long and important history of service. Please share any ideas you may have for such a commemoration.

Best wishes for a speedy recovery -
Nancy Aita – we miss you

F Y I . . .

Albert Handelman is having his Community Service meeting on Tuesday, January 17 at 5:30 pm at his office. All are welcome to come. They'll be looking at changing the focus of the committee from supporting many organization with small funds, to focusing on greater funding for one organization.

Gordon Shurtleff invited us to attend the Rotary Club of Santa Rosa's annual fundraiser - a Polenta Feed on Saturday, January 28. He also shared that they need items for their auction. Call Gordon at Liberty Personnel (527-1776) if you have donations or further questions.

John Jones gave an update on our World Community Service Project. He said it was a great success. Our contingent included Peter, Dan and his son Matt, Dr. Les Shipley and his son Jared, and John and his son Chris. They returned January 5. They spent three days in the jungle at Tusik and provided glasses for 150 people there, 202 pairs in the village of San Jose, and 292 in the village of Tihosuco, They worked long days, and saw a total of 650 people and fitted 450 with glasses.

Peter presented the baseball equipment, which was appreciated. More to come with John's slide presentation.

Many thanks to John, Peter, Larry Martin, Jo Gennuso, Les Shipley, Sola Optical, Santa Rosa Crating and everyone who put time in polishing, cleaning and preparing the frames.

Congratulations on a job well done!!!

MYSTERY ROTARIAN

by Russ Lockner

- ❖ California native from the "boonies of Sonoma County
- ❖ A California Bear who is still "warm and fuzzy"
- ❖ Has only lived in three houses in his entire life

He set a record as a young college student. He graduated from the university, got married, and took his first job all in one week's time. He still has his degree (I'm told that were Berkeley not a public institution, there would be a campus building named after him); still has his wife and kept that first job for 25 years.

He has three children, no grandchildren that he is aware of, and no hobbies. He does enjoy ballroom dancing, the opera season in Graton and shooting carp in Clearlake. A buddy of his once told me that our MR's dream is to shoot a white buffalo with a spear gun while riding blindfolded on a charging moose—or something like that.

Who is he?????

SUNSHINE CORNER...

Bill Anderson tore a ligament in his knee—he is recuperating from surgery. Speedy recovery Bill.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Gary Doolittle announced that Nancy Aita asked to borrow a stationary bike and Mike Sass volunteered one.

The Community Service Committee met on January 17 to discuss long-term planning for the Club's community contributions. The committee determined that the Club should continue its policy of funding a relatively small number of organizations' projects annually with donations in the $1,000-2,000 range, and that the focus should remain on those organizations the Club has supported in the past. At the same time, the committee determined that, with raising fund-raising revenues, reserves should be built up so that every few years a major project could be funded. The goal is to identify major projects through information provided by members of the Club, with primary consideration being given to those projects which will allow the Club to combine its financial contribution with a hands-on work project. It is our hope that this will enable the Club to garner favorable publicity about the project, possibly including a permanent plaque or other identification at the project site itself. Club members are requested to keep their eyes open for such projects, as well as the usual smaller projects which could be funded on an as-needed basis.

RECOGNITION CORNER...

Carl Jacobson had a double celebration. January 2, he and Judy celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary by cleaning out the garage. Since it is also Judy's birthday, he paid $30.

Rolf Wessman—will be taken out to dinner to celebrate his birthday. He shared a makeup tag from Shanghai for Del Roby, but paid $15 anyway.

Riki Intner—is celebrating her birthday—got an apron to match Bob's—$15.

Dan spotted Eli Bayless' name in the program of Santa Rosa Players' "A Christmas Carol." Eli played young Scrooge. Gary Bayless wasn't a scrooge, he paid $15.

MYSTERY ROTARIAN

by Russ Lockner

- ❖ California native (aren't they all?)
- ❖ Went to high school in the bay area where "things happened that people wouldn't want to know about"

His punishment for being sooo outrageous in school was a stint in the U.S. Navy in beautiful southeast Asia. He was a storekeeper and actually lived better than the admirals did. (I believe the correct term is "barter" which he parlayed into his current retail business.)

Came back from "seeing the world" and married his high school sweetheart. As father and daughter were about to walk down the aisle, he said "it isn't too late to back out, we'll just send the presents back and have a party." Actually his father-in-law learned to love this boy just like his own. Off they went to central California where he swept floors for $12.50 a week. Like many career choices, it was the result of careful planning, as in she saying to him "would you get off your *$# and get a job."

They came to Santa Rosa and started a family and a business. You know him best for his wild neckties and ugly cars. But he is also devoted to kids and spends a lot of his time coaching soccer and baseball. He also claims to be a fisherman, but no one has ever seen him fishing.

Who is he?????

Did you know...that the first regular Rotary luncheon meetings were in Oakland, California.

RECOGNITION CORNER...

Nancie Mika vacationed in Costa Rica with her husband. Poor Nancy was sick some, but had fun anyway. She paid $100 towards her PHF.

Russ McCracken A cork and a bow was the clue—not a lot of recognition—Dan passed.

Peter Treleaven—in spite of a slow market—Peter honored Maria's request for a new Volvo for Christmas—HoHoHo and $25.

Gary Jensen almost got fined for his 4-year old car.

Rolf Wessman paid $5 to reclaim his umbrella.

Jo Gennuso correctly guessed Leroy Carlenzoli as the Mystery Rotarian and paid $5.

Words of Praise for the Quad Program...

(From a January 10, 1995 letter from Colleen Larson, Principal at Hilliard Comstock Junior High School)

"The funds that Rotary Clubs of Santa Rosa have provided... for providing free school counselors...at the school... was received with great enthusiasm."

"Since approximately 12 agencies are involved in the Comstock Partnership Project... Comstock become a central place where students can benefit from counseling services as well as homework help, recreation, and a variety of activities...and increases The sense of comfort and climate that our school enjoys during the day."

"It is my hope that in the future the counseling services will continue...and it is my expectation that Comstock's Site Council will match the funding that you have so generously supplied..."
