The Four-Way Test
of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the truth?

2. Is it fair to all concerned?

3. Will it build good will and better friendships?

4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

Charles Shepard, III
Museum of Art, CEO
America’s Spirit – Part I

Our own Charles Shepard, III spoke to the Rotary Club of Fort Wayne on February 14. His topic, America’s Spirit – Part I, will be concluded on March 14. Charles presented a PowerPoint program with an array of photos and explanations of Civil War era portraits and paintings. The painting themselves speak to us without words.

Included were:
A Quaker painting of Thomas Smith, expressing his plainness, moral upbringing, and sea worthiness, and with a skull and poem showing he was read for the next world.
Paul Revere exuding tyranny and oppression.
Goddess Hebe and Goddess of Liberty (how much they look alike!) Our Statue of Liberty is based on the Goddess of Liberty.
Charles Wilson Peal had a business plan and opened the first museum in the US – in Philadelphia. He display Mastodon bones from upper New York.

So much more was covered! Visit the Museum of Art, 311 E. Main Street or www.fwmoa.org for an invigorating time!
Next Meeting: February 21, 2011

Are You Smarter than a 5th Grader?
Study Connection Tutors—full time & substitute—are needed for Washington School!
The regular time is every Tuesday, 3:30 to 4:45.
However, you can tutor on any afternoon that is more convenient for you. This is one of the most rewarding Rotary activities you can be part of as you make a major difference in the life of a child.
See Lona Antil for more information.

Reach Within to Embrace Humanity
2011-12 RI Theme

Rotary International
President-elect Kalyan Banerjee will ask Rotarians to Reach Within to Embrace Humanity during the 2011-12 Rotary year. Banerjee unveiled the RI theme at the International Assembly in San Diego on January 17. He urged participants to harness their inner resolve and strength to achieve success in Rotary. "In order to achieve anything in this world, a person has to use all the resources he can draw on. And the only place to start is with ourselves and within ourselves," Banerjee said. Once Rotarians find their inner strength, he continued, they can accomplish great things in their communities and around the world. Read more about the new theme plus more Rotary International news!

Rotary Program Committee

Guidelines for Candidates for Office as Speakers

- In a contested race, candidates from both major parties for a given office will be invited to speak. If only one of the candidates accepts, we will honor the invitation and inform club members that the other candidate was invited but did not accept, giving the reason if appropriate. Every effort will be made to accommodate candidates’ schedules so we don’t exclude a candidate.
- We will not invite candidates in a primary race to speak.
- 3rd party candidates will be included in the above as appropriate for a particular election and office, e.g. including but not restricted to when the 3rd party may have a significant impact on the outcome of the election or when the 3rd party position may be of significant interest to club members.
- For non-partisan races (judges, school board) the same rules will apply.
- Anyone who has declared their candidacy for public office will not be invited to speak to the club on any non-election related issue until after the election.
  - The exception to this guideline will be the traditional “State of the City of Fort Wayne” program given by the mayor in January.
