Quantum Entanglement at Work

Ten Allen County students were among 126 high-schoolers to attend the annual Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA) leadership camp for three days in April. While there, they bonded, learned how to do the Starbucks handshake (which they taught us), held a tarantula and learned about leadership, service and self-discipline from multiple speakers. The students are Amy Arthur, Ana Martinez, Mark Hellinger, Mariah Kiefer, Max Marin, Catherine Bleddoe, Ana Cris, Wilisha Graham, Ben Gibson, Emma Walker and Laura Macias.

Review Proposed Bylaws Changes

Reminder: On May 21, the club will vote on the corporate membership amendment that is posted on the club’s website. Questions should be directed to Pres. Mike or any member of the executive committee.

Also on May 21, the Rotary Club of Fort Wayne will vote on 2012-13 nominating committee for president in 2014-15. Three candidates are up for a vote to represent our Rotary Zone. Mark Daniel Maloney (Rotary Club of Decatur, Ala.), John F. Germ (Rotary Club of Chattanooga, Tenn.), and Thomas A. Branum (Rotary Club of Indianapolis Northeast, Ind.) are on the ballot. Details on the candidates will be available at the club meeting.

Willkommen to Ian

Ian McCormick, a Fort Wayne native and IU grad, is the club’s newest member. Ian works at Raymond James and is an officer with the Fort Wayne Maennerchor/Damenchor. Ian has already been working on the club’s website!

Service Award Nominations Sought

Submit nominations for this year’s Opening Doors through Service Award, which honors someone who has gone above and beyond the typical membership requirements this year. Information and the application are on the front page of our club website, www.clubrunner.ca/fortwayne

Cleo Fox Scholarship Winners
Seven students received Cleo Fox scholarships from the downtown Fort Wayne Rotary Club at auditions that took place on April 17 at the music studio at WBOI Radio. A total of $3,500, raised by downtown Rotarians at their annual fall golf outing, was awarded. The students will attend a summer program to further their musical education. They are:

- Brianna Bowman, piano, Heritage High School, $500, IPFW Music
- Morgan Marshaus, flute and piccolo, Woodlan Junior-Senior High School, $500, Indiana University Jacobs School of Music Summer Clinic
- Mikah Sunderman, alto saxophone, Snider High School, $500, Indiana Ambassadors
- Austin Lewellen, double bass, South Side High School, $500, Brevard Music Center
- Danielle Whitney, trombone, Blackhawk Christian, $500, Blue Lake
- Caleb Stuckey, violin, Homeschool, $500, Ball State
- Josh Shepler, trumpet, Bishop Dwenger, $500, Blue Lake

Judges were Marcella Trentacosti of the Fort Wayne Philharmonic Youth Symphony, Masson Robertson, John Leal and Kelly Updike. Assisting was the Cleo Fox committee chairman Chris Fountain.

For the past 30 years, the Cleo Fox scholarship committee has awarded student scholarships to honor the musical passion of Cleo Fox, who joined the Fort Wayne Rotary Club in 1946. For many years, one scholarship was provided to Interlochen (Michigan) International Music Camp, of which Fox was a founder. A Michigan native, trombonist and assistant director of the Philharmonic, Fox served as Rotary Club pianist and secretary. He died at age 80 in May 1982. The club then endowed the scholarship fund to honor Fox's service and musical stewardship.

Cleo Fox Thank-You Letter

Thank you and the Rotary Club for your generosity over the past three years. Morgan and I are very grateful for all that you have done for her, and she is happy to accept this year's scholarship to attend the Indiana University Summer Music Clinic. This program has been an excellent source of education, inspiration and networking for her. It has also afforded the opportunity to both perform with, become friends with and compare her skills to high level musicians her own age from all over the country.

None of this would have been possible for her without your help. Thank you all!

Warmest regards,

Kevin Marshaus

Gee, Kids Today!

The EarlyAct Club at Washington School, whose officers attended this week's meeting along with Study Connection participants, proudly announced they collected six boxes of school supplies to send to Togo. And congratulations to Washington for high reading scores (90 percent passing rate) by third-graders!
Dear Rotary Club of Fort Wayne,

Thank you very much for the $500 Cleo Fox music scholarship. That really makes a big difference in funding and helps out a lot. This will be my first year attending Blue Lake and I am really looking forward to it. I play trumpet in a variety of bands such as the Bishop Dwenger High School Jazz Band and I previously auditioned for the IPFW Three Rivers Honor Band and was assigned first chair trumpet out of sixteen other players. I also play in the Fort Wayne Philharmonic Youth Symphony. Going to Blue Lake will be a very great experience for me and I am really looking forward to it. It will be an experience that I will always remember. I appreciate you taking the time to listen to my audition and awarding me this wonderful scholarship. I look forward to sharing my summer music camp experience with you later this year.

Sincerely,

Josh Shepler
