

2020 EIB MASTER OF CEREMONIES: ED GREENE

Ed Greene spent almost all of his broadcast career in Denver, Colorado, beginning as a disc jockey at KLZ, then onto KIMN, KIMN-FM, KAAT and KTLK Radio with stints ranging from disc jockey to Music Director to Program Director.

In 1976 Ed made the switch to television, beginning a career that spanned 42 years – longer than any on-air personality in any capacity in Denver broadcast television history. Ed has worked at all three major network affiliates: KMGH, KUSA and spending the bulk of his career at KCNC (CBS4) – 32 years. Ed also worked at several radio stations simultaneously – primarily KYGO and KOA – in addition to his television work. During his entire career, Ed has done voice work and narrations for a variety of clients, including Garth Brook’s “Teammates for Kids.” Retiring from TV in 2017 after 42 years, Ed has gone back to his radio roots hosting programs on KOA, KHOW and KDFD.
