

AWARDS AND HONORS OF GERRY RADCLIFFE

- Mary E. Gladwin Outstanding Nurse Alumni Award, University of Akron (1982)
- Patient Services Public Education Award Arthritis foundation N.E. Ohio (1985)
- Community Service Volunteer Award Canton Urban League Pace Setters Guild (1991)
- NAACP Black History Hall of Fame (1997)
- Nurse of the Year, Stark Carroll District Nurses Association (1992)
- Ohio Division of American Heart Association Award for detailed study “Heart disease in African American Men age 35 and older. (1991)
- Ethelrine Nickerson Shaw Award, Ohio Nurses Association. (1995)
- Excellence in Nursing Service Administration Award, Ohio Nurses Association (1999)
- Delta sigma Theta Image Ohio State Award Community Service (1995)
- Diversity Impact Award, American Heart Association (2002)
- The “Shero” Award, Ohio Commission on Minority Health (2004)
- Inducted into the YWCA’s Women’s Hall of Fame (2005)
- Lifetime Achievement Award ABCD, Inc. (2011)
- Distinguished Nursing Alumnus Award (2011) for Outstanding Contributions to nursing, University of Akron College of Nursing.
- Community Health Center Hero, Ohio Association of community Health Centers (2014).

PUBLICATIONS

Chairman & contributor to Heritage Information Center “In Search of African American History”, The book, Yesteryears was published by The Canton Repository.

Received the Ohio Division of American Heart Association Award for detailed study of “Heart disease in African American Men age 35 and older”. The study was funded by the American Heart Association.

Submitted information to the Akron Beacon Journal for the article, “Ten at The Top”, 10 Black professional women were profiled and their services recognized for quietly going about the business of providing quality services to the community.

1993 wrote the WHBC Historical Sketch Black History Salute, one for each day of the month of February

Three very detailed articles were submitted to the local paper, the Canton Repository, "Aultman, In Search of African American History, as told by the people who lived there."

Written and submitted numerous papers specifically for nursing audiences. Developed many different power point presentations