ATTENDANCE

Rotary International encourages 50% attendance at club meetings. Participation in meetings, service projects and makeup meetings with other clubs are credited towards attendance, so there is ample opportunity to meet that goal.

NEW MEMBER PROCESS

To apply for the Red Badge Program, you must attend at least 3 meetings and submit this application. It will be reviewed by the Board and members. Once approved, you will be invited to join the RED BADGE PROGRAM. At this time, you will be billed for your first installment of quarterly dues and your initiation fee. This program is designed to get our new members involved and educated on the culture of our club and its members. You will be required to complete any five (5) of the activities listed below and report your progress to your buddy/sponsor. In addition to working through the 5 items of your choice, you will also work with your buddy/sponsor and our Training Coordinator to schedule your orientation session. This is where you will have the opportunity to learn more about our club's rich history and areas of focus. Upon completion, you will meet with your buddy/sponsor, our Training Coordinator and the Club President to schedule your installation as an OFFICIAL BLUE BADGE member of the club.

COMPLETE 5 OF THESE OPTIONS:

- Give a 3 minute classification talk to the club
- Join a committee within the club
- Attend another club's meeting
- Participate in a Service Project
- Do either the invocation or the pledge
- Be a Greeter for 4 weeks
- Attend a Board of Director's meeting
- Have 4 weeks of perfect attendance
